Miss Margaret Murray Is Bride Of Fred L. Rogers

Miss Margaret Ruth Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Paul Murray of Canton, became the bride of Fred Lewis Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McLain Rogers of Clyde, in a double-ring ceremony performed at the First Baptist Church in Canton Friday evening at 8 o'clock with the pastor, the Rev. Horace L. Smith officiating.

The vows were spoken before a white arch of cathedral tapers set in a background of palm wood, waldia and orogen fern among baskets of white gladioli interspersed with candleabra holding white cathedral tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by J. B. Rhea, church organist, and Miss Helen Howell, soloist. Mr. Rhea played "Indian Love Call," "Tranquillity" and "Liebestraum," and "To a Wild Rose" while the vows were being spoken. Miss Howell sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette over white satin with a lace train. The long sleeves ended in calla lily points over the wrists, fitted bodice and a full gathered skirt ending in a circular train. Her two-tiered hairdo, veil of imported illusion fell from puzan honey-trimmed with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, white satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Polly Murray, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white, figured, lily-of-the-valley, mosquito over orchid tulle with a matching orchid sash which hung to the floor. She wore a matching heart shaped bonnet and carried bouquets of orchid, marine heart with rubrum lilies, stephanotis and tube roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Doris Brown of Clyde and Miss Tommie Murray, sister of the bride. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor, their colors being turquoise and tuschia, with matching bonnets. They carried bouquets of white marine hearts with rubrum lilies, stephanotis, and tube roses.

Little Mary Ann McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned McClure, and Master Michael James, son of Mrs. Virginia James of Canton, were junior attendants.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Gene Rogers of Clyde. Thorton Holland, Alvin McKinch, both of Canton; J. W. Graham, E. L. Higgs, Jr., both of Clyde, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black lace gown. Her corsage was of white rose. The bridegroom's mother wore a white gown and a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The house was decorated in green and white with lighted candles. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth with a three-tiered wedding cake in the center.

The guests of honor were Mrs. Lynn Brubaker, Jr., sister of the bride of Chapel Hill, Mr. Jack Cobe, Misses Barbara and Marjorie Cobe, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Miss Patsy Anderson, Mrs. E. M. Byers, Mrs. James Haynes, Miss Judy Patton, Mr. Glenn Brown and Mrs. Thurston Holland.

For traveling the bride wore a jewel tone suit with brown and yellow accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid detached from her Bible.

Mrs. Rogers is a graduate of Canton High School and Mars Hill College. While in college she was a member of the Cho Literary Society. Mr. Rogers is a graduate of Clyde High School and is now attending North Carolina State College at Raleigh where he is a member of the Agricultural Club and the Animal Industry Club.
