Methodist Church Book Editor Addresses Lake Junaluska Audience

The Rev. Dr. Nolan Harmon, of Baltimore, Md., and New York City, who holds the important office of book editor for the Methodist Church in America, was the featured platform speaker at Lake Junaluska Assembly Friday.

THE REVEREND NOLAN B. HARMON, JR., D.D. - 24

He gave two addresses from the auditorium platform and delighted large audiences with the individuality of his treatment of theological subjects and the wealth of information at his tongue's tip.

Speaking on the rate and acceleration, Dr. Harmon cited the origin, change and technique that pertain to the ecclesiology accompanying the Holy Communion. Baptism joining the church marriage, and burial of the dead. No one cares, he said, just what particular pattern of procedure a Christian man or woman of Christian men may work out for themselves as they worship but behind the form the spirit must be everything.

In his address on "Fields of Christian Thought" the speaker reviewed the world situation in the realm of Christian thought and action. He said that the world in which we live is a world of change and that the church must be ready to meet it. He said that the church must be a living organism, and that it must be able to adapt itself to the changing conditions of the world. He said that the church must be a light to the world, and that it must be able to shine in the darkest of times.

Songs Sung at Festivals

The Lord sent Joseph into Egypt, and he was sold as a servant and was a prisoner in a prison until the word of the Lord lived him.

Israel came also into Egypt, so that Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham; and the Lord increased His people greatly, and made them strong.

They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; These see the works of the Lord and His wonders.

This is the day which the Lord hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it, for He is good.

Dallas Bishop Speaks At Lake Junaluska

Bishop Charles C. Seeman, of Dallas, Texas, guest minister at the Lake Junaluska Assembly, Sunday evening spoke on the "Supremacy of Personality," climaxing the events of Junaluska Day, an annual Red Letter event.
"It is gratifying," said the Bishop, "to observe that following a long period of mass movements and complex organizations, there is a return to a new emphasis upon rugged individualism."
"This idea of the value and dignity of the humblest human soul is underscored in the New Testament."
"In fact, it has been said that Jesus discovered the individual."
"He put personality above property or position or title."
"By personality we mean that invisible essence of a man that gives light to the eye, quality to the voice and something distinctive to his presence. One, therefore, is wise to acquire an adequate appreciation of one's personality. No one should think cheaply of himself. Therein lies the driving force of life. We arrive at worthy goals by means of our own power to meet life's challenges and overcome difficulties. The chief reward of great living lies in developing a stalwart personal character, even approaching the example of Him whom we call the Son of Man."
Toronto residents think their Yonge St. is the longest street in the world. It continues as Ontario Highway No. 11 for 885 miles.
