300 Attend Decoration Day At Cemetery

Three hundred people attended the annual Decoration Day ceremonies last Sunday at the Buchanan Cemetery.

Their contributions to the committee swelled the treasury for financing maintenance of the cemetery to $68.73.

All members of the cemetery committee were re-elected unanimously: Hilliard Frazier, Rufus Inman, Scott Cunningham, and Treasurer Charlie Buchanan.

The Rev. Dave Wiggins and the Rev. Gibbs were elected to take charge of next year's services after the Rev. Bill Queen requested that someone be named to succeed him in this capacity.

He explained that his health would not permit him to officiate at the next program.

Mr. Wiggins opened the program with a prayer, and Mr. Queen called the meeting to order.

The audience heard the report of the year's activities by Mr. Frazier.

While the committee members were taking up the collection a song service was conducted.

Mr. Gibbs discussed the history of the cemetery, with Mr. Queen conducting the preaching services afterward.

Then the graves were beautifully decorated, and Mr. Queen ended the program at noon with a prayer.

Officials announced that anyone who was not contacted by the committee may mail their donations or see the treasurer in person.
