

Marine Reserves On Job

These Marine Reserves are hitting the beach to practice. The end of the war four years ago did not end training of beach heads on the Marines as thousands of civilian Marine reserves are at it again. Many of these men are sons of Marines. Will all the peace-time practice? They all answer the same: "I want to be ready if we ever have to fight again."

Mrs. Newell To Speak On Radio Devotions

The Rev. Mr. C. O. Newell of the Cradock Methodist Church will be the speaker for morning devotions over WBOC next week Monday through Saturday at 9:30. Mrs. Newell is always heard with pleasure by the members of the area.

The following week Rev. A. W. Maxwell pastor of the Mountain Star Methodist church will be the speaker.

The worship service of the First Baptist Church will be the broadcast Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. L. G. Elliott will preach the sermon. Special music will be under the direction of Charles Isley, with Joe Morrow at the organ. Those who cannot attend are invited to listen in.

The odor of musk still clung to the rooms of the Empress Josephine sixty years after her death in spite of washings and perfumes. She loved the scent and painted her rooms with it constantly.

Prayer Room Plans Are Made For United Nations

PRAYER ROOM proposed for the United Nations. By ARTHUR SHENEFFEL

AP Newfeatures

LAKE SUCCESS - United Nations architects have released a drawing of the proposed "Hall of Meditation" for the United Nations headquarters being erected in New York. The design is based on principles incorporated in the famed Hall of Religions at the World's Fair in New York.

Ever since a "Prayer Room" was suggested for the new U. N. site, offices of the Secretariat and especially of the U. S. delegation have been flooded with letters and appeals. U. S. press secretary Porter McKeever says "no other political, strategic or controversial issue before the U. N. has elicited such a public response."
