Chiffon And Crepe

Pretty nightgown with lace trim.

By VERA WINSTON
TWO FABRICS are sometimes better than one when plotting a particularly pretty design be it for street or intimate wear. This dainty nightgown uses flesh colored chiffon for the bodice and matching crepe for the skirt. Alencon type lace is posed over the chiffon bodice, and an inset band of satin terminates in a bow in back. Short satin sleeves extend from the dropped shoulder line. This is a charming gown for a gift or for self-pampering.

Tea Is Given To Honor Miss Richeson

Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. M. G. Stames and Mrs. Nancy Killian were joint hostesses at a tea on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Killian. The affair was given as a courtesy to Mrs. Dorothy Richeson, whose marriage to James Long Stronfield will take place Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Arrangements of mixed garden flowers were used throughout the home with the exception of the dining room where the bridal motif prevailed. The dining table which held a crystal punch bowl was decorated with white tapers in low silver holders and an arrangement of white roses, white sweet peas, and aspidochelone.

During the first hour Mrs. Ben Sloan received the guests at the front entrance and introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of the hostesses, Mrs. Richeson, her mother, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, her grandmother, Mrs. W. B. Evans, and Mrs. Sam Stronfield, mother of the bride-to-be.
