Jesus Quoted From the Psalms

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Psalms 8:2; 22:1, 16-18; 91:9-12; 108:8-13; 110:1; 118:22-23; Matt. 21:15-16, 28-42; 22:41-45; Luke 24:44.

David, in his distress cried, like Jesus on the cross, "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me? why art Thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?"

In the 22nd psalm, David cried to God, "They pierced my hands and my feet. They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture," even as they did to Jesus.

When Jesus was tempted in the wilderness, Satan told Him to cast Himself down from the top of the temple, "for He (God) shall give His angels charge over Thee," that no harm come.

Just before Jesus' ascension, He told His disciples, "These are the words that are written in the law of Moses, in the prophets and psalms concerning Me." MEMORY VERSE—Psalm 105:4.

Canton Coach Re-Elected To Conference Post

Head Coach Dick Fayssoux of Christ School has a new term as president of the Blue Ridge Conference.

He was re-elected Tuesday at Asheville at the fall meeting of the officials and coaches. Bill Morris, Sand Hill coach, was elected vice-president; and C. C. Poindexter, Canton High School athletic director, was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

Named on the executive board were B. H. Abrogast of Asheville School and Ted Carter of Hendersonville.

In other important business, the Conference officials gave their blessing again to the post-season Paper Bowl football game at Canton.

They extended permission to any member of the conference to accept a bid as host team that might be tendered by the Champion Y's Men's Club.

They also officially recognized Christ School as the 1949 Conference baseball champion.

The house and go away, for you are abusing and damaging, yours obligingly."

Bowles Urges Hospital Support At U. Crabtree

By PEGGY BRADSHAW Mountaineer Correspondent

Waynesville District Schools Superintendent M. H. Bowles urged Upper Crabtree residents Tuesday night to support the hospital bond issue when it comes up for a vote on October 1.

He addressed a meeting of the Upper Crabtree Community Development organization at the home of Gay Bradshaw, with Chairman Jack Rogers presiding.

After Mr. Bowles outlined the urgent needs of the Haywood County Hospital that could be filled by the bond issue if it is approved, the audience immediately launched a discussion of the issue.

Then a committee of four members was appointed to contact other residents of the community regarding the election.

Serving on this committee are George Best, Jim Best, Cassius Rogers, and Brack James.

Before the meeting adjourned, Mr. Rogers indicated the time and place of the next regular session would be announced later.

Upper Crabtree's boys' and girls' softball teams will play the Saunook teams at 2 p. m. Saturday for the right to enter the County Field Day competition Sept. 17 at Champion Park in Canton.

Pigeon Valley Pastor To Hold Radio Devotions

The morning worship service will be broadcast from the First Baptist Church, Sunday at 11 o'clock. Rev. L. G. Elliott will speak on "The Achievements of Failure." Those who cannot attend are invited to listen in.

Morning devotions will be conducted over WHCC by Rev. V. N. Allen, pastor of the Pigeon Valley Methodist Church. These brief periods of worship begin at 9:30, Monday through Saturday.

Through the remote facilities of WHCC a program of organ music will be played by Joe Morrow, Monday through Friday at 10:30 a. m. The program will originate from the First Baptist Church. Joe Morrow is a rising Junior at the University of North Carolina, majoring in music. The talented musician has been organist at the First Baptist Church during the summer.

Entertainers From Saunook Going to Whittier on Friday

By JEAN HALL Mountaineer Correspondent

The Merry Makers of Saunook, are going to Whittier on Friday night for a special program, which is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association.

The program that is planned will be a Gay Nineties fashion show and also the modern fashions of today.

The group plan to give special songs and costume selections including several black faced numbers.

This is the second performance of the group outside of their own community. Mrs. Clifton Shook is director.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Eller and Miss Lou Elva Eller are leaving tomorrow for a visit in Bloomington, Ind.

Cincinnati pitcher Eddie Eratt was the Pacific Coast League's strikeout king in 1946 when he was 21 years old.

Brother Rat Admonished To Go Away, Please

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI)—If you had rats in your house in the '80s, one method of getting rid of them apparently was to write them a letter.

Such a method was discovered by Achille Therrien, who found a letter in an old house. Dated May 14, 1899, the letter was addressed to "Mr. Rat," and read: "Will you be so kind as to leave
