TO BE SURE-BUY DRUGS at the
DRUG STORE

The very nature of the druggist's professional training is a definite safeguard which protects not only your health but also your satisfaction and your purse. He knows more about home remedies than just the prices. He knows what they are for and how to use them—matters on which people frequently seek advice. His interest in the welfare of his customers often prevents wrong, and sometimes harmful, purchases. So, to be sure—BUY DRUGS AT THE DRUG STORE. It costs no more—our prices are the lowest in town for quality-tested, quality-proven products and you have complete brand selection from which to choose your favorites.
