Psalms That We Sing

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Psalms 23; 42; 46; 90; 121; 148.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside still waters.

Yes, though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me always.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God, for I will praise Him.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, even forevermore.

MEMORY VERSE—Psalm 92:4.

Correction

Two errors appeared in Monday's news item concerning the Church of God Assembly held last week at Cleveland, Tenn. The Mountaineer regrets these and is happy to make the corrections.
Bob Jones College at Greenville, S. C., has no connection with the group that met at Cleveland. It is operated by a different denomination.
The Rev. N. G. Henderson is pastor of the Church of God in Waynesville, not Canton.
The information Mrs. E. E. Caldwell gave us did not contain these errors. Hers was completely accurate.
Members of the Haywood group that attended the Assembly are of the Church of God over which M. A. Tomlinson is overseer.
Churches of another denomination, known as The Church of God, are located in Hazelwood and Canton.
The Tomlinson Church of God, however, also has a church in Canton, as well as in Wayneville.

PSALMS THAT WE SING

IN WHICH DAVID EXPRESSES HIS TRUST IN GOD

Scripture—Psalms 23; 42; 46; 90; 121; 148.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL,
EVERYONE in the world thirsts for something. We have a thirst for freedom, for financial security, for love and happiness, for knowledge, and for God in whom to place our trust. These are basic needs which make all men brothers.
The 23rd Psalm is called the "Shepherd's Psalm." It was probably written by King David when he recalled his own days as a shepherd boy, before he became a king. If he did write it when he was a shepherd, the date would be somewhere around 1030 B. C.
This is a Psalm which, above all others, we should memorize. If you do so when young, it will surprise you to find yourself repeating it all through life, when griefs come or worries of various kinds.
It pictures a peaceful stream flowing through a lovely meadow, with a kind shepherd watching his sheep, ready to fight if necessary for their safety, and to seek any that are lost through straying.
So God, says David, takes care of those who trust in Him. He will not desert us even when we pass "through the valley of the shadow of death."
"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want."
"He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters."
"He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake."
"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me."
"Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anonestest my head with oil; my cup runneth over."
"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever."
Psalm 42 expresses the king's longing for God.
"As the hart (the stag, male red deer) panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God."
"Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His countenance."
"Deep calleth unto deep; all Thy waves and Thy billows are gone over me."
"Yet the Lord will command His loving kindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life."
"David sings of his trust in the Almighty in the 46th Psalm, where he wrote:
"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."
"Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
"Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth."
"Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations."
"Before the mountains were brought forth, or even Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God."
In Psalm 121 David repeats his trust in God and thankfulness for His care, beginning: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help."
"My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth."
Psalm 148 is purely a song of praise to Jehovah. He calls on all mankind, all the beasts, the heavens, the waters of the earth—the whole universe—to praise their Maker and their God.
"Praise ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens; praise Him, Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all ye stars of light."
"Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth."
"Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children."
"Let them praise the name of the Lord."

MEMORY VERSE

"Thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad."—Psalm 92:4.

The good shepherd. "Thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad."
