children who fit in those categories to compete in the contests, which will start right after school is over on Halloween day.

The children can get their paint when they register at the Chamber of Commerce office. The only article the contestant will have to bring is a paint brush.

Each contestant will be assigned a number and the window which he or she is to paint.

The number will go on the window as a sort of signature of the child's work.

jects of the society, which are divided into three main phases: to keep alive the memory of the founders of the nation, to promote education, and to foster true patriotism. She made a plea for a fight against the inroads of socialism and communism.

Mrs. J. S. Silversteen of Brevard presented Miss Carraway, who outlined the work of the DAR. She held the Golden Jubilee to be held next year.

An invitation to meet next year in Asheville was extended by Mrs. Roy Cagle of the Ruth Davidson Chapter and was accepted by the district.

In addition to Miss Carraway and Mrs. Silversteen, former state registrars presented were Mrs. W. H. Belk and Mrs. Preston B. Wilkes, Jr.

The Rev. M. R. Williamson gave the invocation, and Mrs. A. G. Barnett led the pledge to the flag. Miss Ruth Greene led in the recitation of the American creed, and the address of welcome was made by Mrs. Killian. The response was given by Mrs. Eugene Cross.

The following chapter reports gave reports:

Edward Bunncombe, Asheville, Mrs. A. G. Barnett, Ruth Davidson, Asheville, Mrs. H. G. Etheridge, Waightstill Avery, Brevard, Mrs. C. L. Newland, Joseph McDowell, Hendersonville, Mrs. R. F. Walters, Martha Pettigrew, Marion, Mrs. W. W. Neal, Greenville, Old Fort, Miss Nina Greenlee, Col. John Alston, Valdese, Mrs. C. C. Long, Doreas Bell Love, Mrs. Killian.

Among state and national officers and chairmen who made brief talks were Mrs. R. C. Whitaker, state recording secretary; Mrs. M. O. Noland, vice state regent; Mrs. Ruth A. Lyon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. H. Summerville, state registrar; Mrs. A. J. Kellenberger, state historian; Mrs. O. L.
