Homecoming Day To Be Observed At Maple Grove

Homecoming Day will be observed at Maple Grove Methodist Church on the Dellwood Road, Sunday, October 2.

All members of the church, former members, and their families and friends are invited to share the worship and fellowship of the day.

Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. will open with a special program by the children and young people, followed by classes for all age groups.

Miss Patsy Leatherwood will read Psalm 100 and Miss Louise Palmer will lead the prayer. Special music will be presented by the Intermediate Department, under the direction of Miss Iris Jaynes, and Little Miss Patricia Reed will give a reading.

The Rev. John Moore will deliver the sermon at the 11 o'clock church service and World Communion Day will be observed. The Rev. J. E. B. Hoover, pastor, is remaining with the churches on the Dellwood Circuit for the day.

Following the morning service a picnic lunch will be served on the grounds. Special recognition of family groups will be made at this time.

On Saturday members of the church will join in cleaning up and decorating the grounds and cleaning the Sunday School rooms and sanctuary. Hardy Liner and Will Leatherwood will be in charge of the work.

The committee in charge of the program for Sunday is composed of Mrs. Ed Glavich, Mrs. James T. Noland, and Mrs. Isabelle Walker.
