ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scriptures—Isaiah 1:21-28; 10: 13; 19:19-25; 31.

The princes of the city of Jerusalem are rebellious, the Lord told Isaiah, and companions of thieves every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards.

I will restore thy judges and thy counsellors as at the beginning, afterward thou shalt be called the city of righteousness, a faithful town.

Jehovah shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know Jehovah in that day, and shall vow a vow unto Jehovah, and shall perform it.

In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, and a blessing in the midst of the earth. MEMORY VERSE—Isaiah 2:4.

GOD REBUKES THE NATIONS

DECLARES THAT EGYPT, ASSYRIA, ISRAEL WILL WORSHIP HIM

Scripture—Isaiah 1:21-28, 10: 13; 19:19-25, 31

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL OUR LESSON today is very long and difficult for both teachers and pupils. The gospel readings which are assigned to it, however, do remind us of world history, from the conquerors and dictators of Isaiah's day, down to our two world wars.

The Assyrians of that day (traditional enemies of Israel) conquered the Jewish nation. Later other dictators and would-be world rulers arose from time to time—Caesar, Napoleon, Mussolini, Hitler, to name a very few, and all met the same fate as the warriors of old—eventual defeat and ruin.

In Isaiah 1:21-28, Isaiah tells the people that Jehovah asks how His people came to be so wicked and rebellious, and enumerates their sins.

"How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment, righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers." "Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them."

"That reminds us of the present time, when too often our newspapers print stories of corruption in high places—those in important posts accused of taking bribes to use their influence to gain advantage over others."

The Lord, said Isaiah, would purge these untrustworthy ones of their sins or destroy them. He would restore the honest judges and counsellors, and in time the city (Jerusalem) would be called, "The city of righteousness, the faithful city."

How many cities today would measure up to that title? The 10th chapter of Isaiah again reminds us of our one-time dictators—now deceased it reads: "O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation."

"I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against Based on copyrighted outlines produced by The International Council of Religious Education and used by permission. Distributed by King's Pattern Syndicate.

Jewish people is in the home land after many thousands were slain in the recent persecutions. Then comes the prophecy that in other lands besides Israel the Lord shall in time be worshipped—in Egypt and Assyria.

The Lord shall send the Egyptians a saviour, and a great one, and He shall deliver them. "And the Lord shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the Lord in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the Lord, and perform it."

Assyria too, shall be the Lord's, and "In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land. Whom the Lord of hosts shall bless."

In spite of wars and rumors of wars, let us trust God's goodness and take to heart the promise in our Memory Verse today, that in His own good time wars shall cease and peace descend upon this troubled earth.

MEMORY VERSE "Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."—Isaiah 2:4.
