

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN
SOCIETY and CLUB ACTIVITIES
MRS. BEN SLOAN, Society Editor—Office Phone 700—Home Phone 462-J

Sylvia Campbell Celebrates 3rd Birthday

Little Miss Sylvia Rose Campbell celebrated her third birthday with a party Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Campbell, on Short Street. She was assisted by her mother.

Pastel colors were used in the decorations, and party appointments. Refreshments were served following games and each guest was presented a favor.

The guests were Betty Shoaf, Sheila Wilson, Brenda Gail, and Patricia Ann Gibson, Sandra Lee Howell, Grover Golden, Jimmie Robinson, Kenneth Martin James, Miles Chalm, Johnny Wilson, and Laney Chalm.

Officers For Crabtree 4-H Club Are Named

The Junior 4-H Club of the Crabtree Iron Duct School held its first meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon and the following new officers were elected: president, Sibyl Bradshaw; vice-president, Johnnie Crawford; secretary and treasurer, Claudia Sue Crawford; reporter, Jewel D. Ferguson; and song leader, Bobbys Gene Bradshaw.

Mrs. Elise DeLozier, assistant home demonstration agent discussed with the leaders in carrying out the 4-H Club work.

Mrs. H. B. Phillips and small daughter, Emily, are leaving Saturday for their home in Cottageville, S. C., after a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Leatherwood, and to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd.

Ethel Hayes Fisher Is Engaged To J. C. McDarris

Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Hayes of Whitner have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hayes Fisher, to Joseph Charles McDarris, of Barnardville, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McDarris, also of Barnardville. The wedding will take place later in the fall.

The bride, who has resided in Waynesville for the past four years, is present secretary of the Haywood Chapter, American Red Cross.

Mr. McDarris, who was until recently employed with the Farmer's Home Administration, formerly resided here for many years. He is currently engaged in a dairy farm at Babsonville, Clatsop.

New Methodist Pastor And Wife Are Honored

The Rev. J. E. Younf, new pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Mrs. Younf, and Dr. C. N. Clark, district superintendent of the church and Mrs. Clark were honor guests at a reception given by the members of the Woman's Society of the church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Garrett Wednesday evening.

Arrangements for a special fall flowers were used throughout the residence in decorating.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett greeted the guests at the front entrance, and others receiving included officers of the Woman's Society, members of the Wesleyan Guild and Circle, and church members.

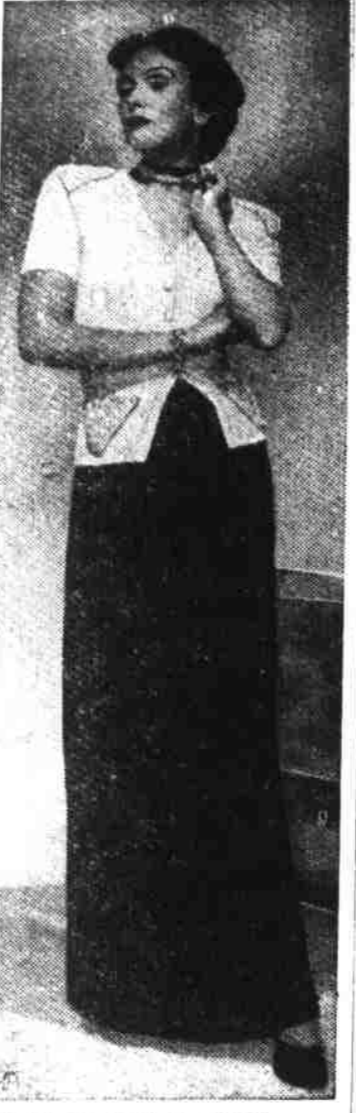

In the receiving line with the guests of honor were Mrs. Homer Ray, president of the Woman's Society, Mr. H. B. Beckel, chairman of the Stewards of the church and Mrs. Boyd.

During the first hour Mrs. Ruth Siler received in the entrance hall and Mrs. E. J. Hoyt and Mrs. John Harrod directed the callers to the dining room. Mrs. Roy Barkner and Mrs. David Hoyt were at the entrance to the dining room and Mrs. James McKinnis presided at the punch bowl. Others assisting in the dining room were Mr. Claude Rogers, Mrs. Carl Roberts and Mrs. Mary Medford Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Mildred Fryer.

During the second hour Mrs. J. H. Howell was on the entrance hall, Mrs. Lawrence J. Galloway and Mrs. Orla Crow were in the dining room and Mr. G. D. Snavel and Mrs. Elsie McLean were at the dining room door. Mrs. S. H. Bushnell presided at the punch bowl and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Carlotta Weatherly, Mrs. W. V. Berry and Mrs. Herbert Gibson. Goodbyes were spoken to Mrs. Charles Buzan.

The dining room was decorated with fall flowers in shades of yellow and orange and the table was centered with a bowl of yellow chrysanthemums and other roses.

Around two hundred members of the church called during the designated hours. Special guests included Mrs. and Mrs. William Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Love, and Mrs. Elmer Clark of Lake Junaluska and the following pastors and their wives of other Waynesville churches: The Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Elliott, the Rev. and Mrs. Malcolm Williamson, the Rev. and Mrs. Edgar H. Gould.

GLAMOR AFTER DARK . . . WHITE tinsel-trimmed evening sarigan, black jersey skirt.

D.A.R. To Hold Meeting Friday

The Dorothea Bell Love Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet at the home of Mrs. Dan Vroom in Sylva Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. J. W. Keenan, present, will preside.

Hazelwood P.T.A. To Meet Monday

The October meeting of the Hazelwood Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the school auditorium on Monday, October 17, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Whitman Provost will preside and a program will be presented on the subject "How Safe Is Your Child?"

Average size of all farms in the State in 1945 was 64.3 acres.

Music Club To Meet In Sylva

The Waynesville Music Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Grover Wilkes in Sylva, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Carver Named Treasurer of WSCS

Mrs. Ernest Carver was elected treasurer and Mrs. Bill Henry, chairman of the status of women committee of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Magpie Methodist Church yesterday.

The elections were held at a meeting at which the Rev. Mr. Bell, the new pastor, and his wife were honored as special guests. Each spoke briefly at the meeting.

Mrs. Fred Henry presided, and Mrs. Hobart White was in charge of the interesting, informative program.

Refreshments were served by the ladies.

Each of the members is urged to attend the next meeting, which will be held some time next month.

Central P.T.A. Holds Business Meeting

The first meeting of the Central Elementary Parent-Teacher Association for this school year was held in the school auditorium Wednesday night.

The session was devoted entirely to business with Joe Jack Adams, vice-president, presiding in the absence of the Rev. Malcom Williamson. Mrs. William J. Lee opened the meeting with a short devotional.

The annual Halloween Carnival was discussed and arrangements for the event were left to a committee composed of Mrs. Lorraine Bishop, Mrs. Hartman Farmer, Mrs. Ben Stuart, Mrs. Herbert Branren, and Mrs. Blanton.

Mrs. Harold Mastic was named chairman of the membership committee with Mr. Harvey Whitcomb and Mrs. Owen James and the program committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. J. B. Siler, chairman; Mrs. Joe Casabella, and Mrs. Ernest Edwards.

The first grade lunch by Mrs. Troy Boyd, won the award for the largest percentage of parents present.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Fultz have their guest at their home at Lake Junaluska, the former's father-in-law, Joe Hrabak, of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Emily McCracken, who is a student at Woman's College in Greensboro, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Weaver McCracken, at Lake Junaluska.

Mrs. R. M. Waddell left Wednesday for Tama, Ga., where she will spend the rest of the week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Waddell.

Mrs. Frances Robeson left today for Newport News, Va., to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Frances Robeson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robeson, Jr., which will take place Saturday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Sampley of Lake Junaluska left Wednesday for Stewart, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Reid left for their home in Green Cove Springs, Fla., today after having spent the past week as the guests of Mr. Reid's sister, Mrs. H. G. Stone, at the LeFaine Hotel.

Mrs. E. P. Martin and her son, Fred Martin, spent the weekend in Mooreville as guests of Mrs. Martin's son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Lynch. They went to attend the Lynch's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration and were accompanied by the Misses Martha Ellen and Elizabeth Lynch, students at Western Carolina Teachers College, and Mrs. J. F. Fricks and son, Edwin Martin Fricks, of Sylva.

Mrs. Roy Martin returned Tuesday after a visit to relatives in New York, Richmond, and Charlotte. She was the guest of her daughter, Miss Louise Martin, in Richmond, and visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fowler, in Charlotte.

Mrs. John Harrod left this morning for Columbia, S. C., to join her husband for a visit to relatives there and in other South Carolina cities.

The Rev. And Mrs. Lynch Celebrate 25th Anniversary

The Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Lynch entertained at their home in Mooreville last Saturday evening, October 8, in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Arrangements of autumn flowers were used in decorating the home.

Mrs. Joe Hornbuckle and Mrs. Paul Morrow greeted the guests upon arrival and presented them to the receiving line composed of the Rev. and Mrs. Lynch and their daughters, Miss Martha Ellen, Elizabeth, and Ruth Lynch; Mrs. E. P. Martin of Waynesville, mother of Mrs. Lynch; Fred Martin of Waynesville, brother of Mrs. Lynch, who was an usher at the wedding; Mrs. J. F. Fricks of Sylva, sister of Mrs. Lynch, who was maid of honor at the wedding; Mrs. W. M. Fowler of Charlotte, who was flower girl at the wedding; Mr. Fowler, Miss Margaret Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Keever, cousins of Mrs. Lynch.

Mrs. Lynch wore a floor length dress of aqua crepe with silver sequins trim and a purple orchid corsage.

Mrs. O. L. Davis directed the guests to the dining room, where Mrs. John Reese, Mrs. Ted Berry, Mrs. R. L. Potts, and Mrs. L. D. Helms served punch, cake, mints, and nuts.

The dining table was covered with an imported embroidered cloth, and was centered with white carnations. A color note of green and white was observed in the decorations and refreshments. A wedding ring of white carnations, dwarf dahlias, and tuberose, with French nylon net showered with silver wedding rings, was arranged on the buffet. White tapers in silver holders lighted the rooms.

Mrs. Fletcher Nelson, Miss Becky McLean and Miss Helen Chester assisted with the gifts. Mrs. P. G. Greenhill directed the guests to the gift room, where Mrs. Cecil Newton and Mrs. Emmet Morrow received. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowe of Gastonia kept the guests register. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. H. L. Saritt.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lynch were married on October 8, 1924, at the First Methodist Church in Waynesville, the first couple to be married in the new church. The late Rev. J. T. Mangum officiated.

Mrs. Lynch is the former Miss Mary Martin, daughter of Mrs. E. P. Martin and the late Mr. Martin of Waynesville. The Rev. Mr. Lynch is a native of South Carolina but has been a member of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church for the past 26 years.

Around 200 guests called during the appointed hours. Among those from out-of-town were Mrs. E. P. Martin, Fred Martin, and Mrs. O. P. Martin of Waynesville; Mrs. J. F. Fricks and son, Edwin Martin Fricks, of Sylva; Miss Margaret Martin of Winthrop College, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fowler of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Keever of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mehaffey and Misses Bess and Winnie McLean of North Wilkesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowe, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davidson, Mrs. S. W. Davidson, Miss Winifred Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kirksey, Mrs. Lester Rhyne, Mrs. W. R. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Jordan and Richard Jordan of Gastonia, the Rev. and Mrs. Sanford Williams of Kannapolis, Eugene Nelson of Appalachian State College, Mrs. J. E. Ramsey, Mrs. Annie King Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mundy of Denver.

Services Are Held Wednesday For Mrs. Evans

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Flora Ewald Woodard Evans, 23, who died Tuesday in the Haywood County Hospital after a short illness. The Rev. Hobart Rogers and the Rev. Malcolm Williamson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated and interment was in Crawford Memorial Park.

Pallbearers were Charlie, Claude, Grady, and Ben Woodard, Jimmy Williams, and Howard Gibson. Cousins served as flower bearers.

Mrs. Evans formerly resided in Gastonia where she was a member of the East Baptist Church. She had been living with her parents for the past two years.

Surviving are the husband, Elvis Evans of Gastonia and Waynesville, one son, Elvis, Jr.; one daughter, Judith Ann; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Woodard of Waynesville; one sister, Mrs. W. W. McNeil of Spartanburg, S. C.; one brother, Roger Carroll Woodard of Waynesville, the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rogers of Franklin; and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Henry Woodard of Sylva.

Crawford Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Snyder Rites Are Set For Friday Afternoon

Marion E. Snyder, 39, a retired farmer, died Wednesday morning at his home in the Sanok section after a brief illness.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. in Pleasant Balsam Baptist Church. The Rev. J. M. Woodard and the Rev. Frank Leatherwood will officiate and interment will be in Platt Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be H. A. Davis, Tom Davis, Earl Frazer, Haskell Davis, Carl McCracken, Jr., and Jack Snyder.

Grandaughters will be flower bearers.

Mr. Snyder, a native of Haywood County, was the son of the late Robert T. and Celia Joyce Snyder. He was a member of the Pleasant Balsam Baptist Church.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Alice Messer Snyder; three sons, Claude and Don of Waynesville, Route 1, and Roy Snyder of Mars Hill, two daughters, Mrs. Joe Davis of Hazelwood and Mrs. A. Heisinger of Everett, Wash.; four sisters, Mrs. Mattie L. Justice, Mrs. Laura Queen, and Mrs. Will Smithers of Waynesville, and Mrs. Julia Huffman of Charlotte; 18 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

Arrangements are under the direction of Garrett Funeral Home.

Mountaineer Gridder New 4-H Club President

The members of the Waynesville Township High School 4-H Club last Tuesday picked a football player as their new chief.

They elected Wade Francis, Mountaineer reserve end, as president of the club for the 1949-50 school year.

Nancy Medford of Ratcliffe Cove was elected vice-president; Viola Mae Taylor, secretary-treasurer; Mildred Medford, reporter; and Alene Williams, song leader.

All members will complete and turn in their project books this week to complete in the State Project Book Contest.

They discussed the plans for initiating new members, and indicated that the details will be completed soon.

WAC-WAF Officer To Be in Asheville

Captain Florence M. Packard, North Carolina WAC-WAF recruiting officer, will be at the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Reenlisting Station, Asheville, on October 18-19, according to an announcement by Sgt. Henry B. Allen, local Army recruiting sergeant.

Application for enlistment in the WAC-WAF, and an interview and examination by Captain Packard may be arranged by contacting Sergeant Allen at the Post Office Building in Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Craig had as their guests for a week the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alene Moughton, of Ulica, Mich, and also Mrs. Craig's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Fox and daughter, Geraldine, of Dearborn, Mich. The visitors left for their homes yesterday.

German President

Mrs. E. P. Martin and her son, Fred Martin, spent the weekend in Mooreville as guests of Mrs. Martin's son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Lynch. They went to attend the Lynch's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration and were accompanied by the Misses Martha Ellen and Elizabeth Lynch, students at Western Carolina Teachers College, and Mrs. J. F. Fricks and son, Edwin Martin Fricks, of Sylva.

Head Cold Stuffiness

RELIEVED IN SECONDS!

For almost instant relief, put a few Vicks Vapo-rol Nose Drops in each nostril. Vapo-rol works right where stuffy trouble is! It opens up cold-clogged nose, relieves stuffiness... and lets you breathe again. Try it.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL NOSE DROPS

Naturalizer - THE SHOE WITH THE BEAUTIFUL FIT.

You Can Always Get Good Shoes At Economical Prices At

MASSIE DEPARTMENT ST.

Exclusive in Waynesville at THE TOGGERY

Plaid... with more than surface interest 39.95

One glance will tell you there's rare color talent here in the tone-on-tone blending of this exclusive Sacony plaid. But look below the surface. Notice the superb execution of every detail in this flawlessly tailored suit. From smooth-fitting shoulders to lovely lining, there's much, much more than meets the eye. It's a wonderful buy that you'll see in VOGUE and right here! Misses' sizes.

as advertised in

VOGUE

Sacony

It's a wonderful buy!

The Toggery

German President

Prof. Theodor Heuss

E. Waynesville P-TA To Hear Hallowe'en Plans

The members of the East Waynesville Parent-Teacher Association will hear the plans for the Hallowe'en Carnival program when they meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the East Waynesville School.

David Underwood, president of the organization, urged all members to attend the meeting, describing it as a very important one.

Friday Deadline For Crop Cover Seed Bids

The Haywood County ACA office here reminded farmers that tomorrow is the final day for filing their requests for cover crop seed.

Deaths

DANIEL C. HOWARD

Daniel Cruso Howard, 67, died Tuesday afternoon at his home in the Queen's Town section of Haywood County after a brief illness.

Graveside rites were held this afternoon in Round Hill Cemetery near Bryson City with the Rev. William Howard officiating.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Artie Reynolds Howard; one son, E. M. Howard of Canton, Route 2, two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Howard of Bryson City and Mrs. Frances Woolton of Canton, Route 2, two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Edwards of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Belle Walls of Hickory; and three brothers, T. M. and A. D. of Canton, Route 2, and J. C. of Candler, and 17 grandchildren.

Garrett Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Lamar Killian and Jessie Green, both of Clyde.

John Stuart Kinsland and Jennie Patton, both of Canton.

James Parris and Geneva Taylor, both of Canton.

Edward Green and Ruth Suttles, Hall, both of Clyde.

Woodrow Patton of Canton and Betty Ferguson, both of Luck.

Ryan Kernode of Amancora County and Edna Westmoreland of Canton.

Famed Visiting Brother

Gooding Crumley, of the Georgia League, is visiting in Waynesville for a few days. Crumley is a member of the Georgia League and is a well-known pitcher. He has pitched in the major leagues and has won many games. He is a native of Georgia and has been in the profession for many years.

TOUPEE

TOUPEE... A toupee is a wig that covers the top of the head. It is often used to hide balding or thinning hair. There are many different styles and colors of toupees available. Some are made of human hair, while others are made of synthetic fibers. Toupees can be a good option for men who are looking for a natural-looking solution to hair loss.

MASSIE DEPARTMENT STORE

MASSIE DEPARTMENT STORE... A department store is a retail store that carries a wide variety of goods, including clothing, shoes, accessories, and home goods. Massie Department Store is a well-known retailer in the area, offering a wide selection of products at competitive prices. The store is located in Waynesville and is a popular destination for shoppers.