Good Luck Tokens For Tar Heels

Some University of North Carolina football fans give part credit for the Tar Heels undefeated record to the good luck charms of Mascot Rameses VI and his bearded, long-haired keeper, G. B. Cook. The picturesque Cook has no connection with the university but he has voluntarily taken over the chores of looking after the cam maseot at games in Chapel Hill. He makes a practice of appearing at many large public gatherings in North Carolina to display his hair and heard. (AP Photo).
