Hendersonville Defeated By A 28-20 Score Here

The Waynesville Mountaineers fought from behind twice Friday night to edge the Hendersonville Bearcats, 28-20, in a wild Blue Ridge Conference game that kept the 2,800 fans on their feet from the opening kickoff to the final

It was a sub halfback named Jimmy Moss, filling in for the injured ace. Bob Davis, who proved the sparkplug of the Mountaineer offensive which manufactured more points in the whirlwind first half than it had in Waynesville's three previous games.

Fullback Don Whisenhunt rammed over three times, and End Gene Yarborough scored once, but Moss' bull's eye passes produced two of the touchdowns and his running helped set up the Halfback Bob Fleming, tall, fast Hendersonville star, seored all three of the losers: touchdowns and gave the finest individual performance the Waynesville gridiron has seen this year.
