The Bible Story

ABRAHAM

And the Lord appeared to Abraham, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God, walk before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for in thee shall many nations be multiplied.

And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarah thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarah; but Sarah shall her name be. And I will bless her, and she shall have a son also; yea, I will bless her, and she shall have a son also of her; yea, I will bless her, and she shall have a son also of her. And Abraham fell upon his face, and the Lord said unto him, I have said unto thee, that thou shalt not walk before me, and thou shalt be perfect. And I will establish my covenant with thee, and with thy seed after thee.

And Abraham called the name of his son whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him. And the days went, and Abraham was a great old man, and that Isaac was born.

And it came to pass, that as the angels, that God had sent unto Abraham, and he said, now thy son, Isaac, only son whom thou lovest, is with thee, and the angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham, and he said, Here am I. And the angel said, Lay not thine hand upon Isaac; for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked behind him, and he saw a flock of sheep bleating by the flock, and Abraham went and followed the flock, and offered him up on a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

And the angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

And Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham, and he said, Here am I. And the angel said, Lay not thine hand upon Isaac; for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked behind him, and he saw a flock of sheep bleating by the flock, and Abraham went and followed the flock, and offered him up on a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

And the angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

I'm Serious!

Maybe you like smiling babies? Sorry to disappoint you, but I've got a lot on my mind.

There's something wrong in America . . . and I'm the chap who is getting hurt!

Our Constitution says that no one can be denied the right to worship God. I'm an American! According to the Constitution I have the right to learn about God, to hear the Bible Stories, to be taught the Christian Way of Life.

But here's the hitch. While the Government can't deny me the right to attend Church School and Church—MY PARENTS CAN. They can rob me of my most sacred right just by neglecting my spiritual needs.

Did you know that about half the children in America are growing up without religious training? And yet there's a church in every village!

Yessir, I'm serious! Instead of talking about juvenile delinquency, we ought to do something about it. We ought to crowd our churches with children . . . and parents! And we ought to start Sunday!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
