

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN SOCIETY and CLUB ACTIVITIES

MRS. BEN SLOAN, Society Editor—Office Phone 700—Home Phone 462-J

Crabtree 4-H Club Elects New Officers

Election of new officers for the senior 4-H Club of the Crabtree-Iron Duff High School was held at the first meeting of the year, Friday.

Those elected are president, Helen Ferguson; vice-president, M. L. Beasley; secretary and treasurer, Joan Medford; reporter, Barbara Best; song leader, Susie Noland; and local leader, Mrs. O. L. Yates.

Nancy Poston Named Head Of Bethel 4-H Club

Nancy Poston, attractive Bethel High School senior who is rounding out her first year as president of the Haywood County 4-H Club Council, was elected president of the Bethel Senior 4-H Club at a recent meeting.

Active also in community work, Mrs. Poston is serving as reporter for the Crano Community Development Program and is the Mountaineer correspondent for that area.

The members also elected Carl Green as vice-president; Joan McCracken, secretary and treasurer; Sue Dean Amos, reporter; and James Twaggs and Nancy Rhinhardt, song leaders.

The Bethel club is sponsoring the Waynesville Lions Club Minstrel performance at Bethel High School tonight.

The curtain is scheduled to go up at 7:30 p.m.

This will be the first of three rural performances. The Minstrel troupe will give for the benefit of the 4-H Club camp at the Test Farm. The Bethel Club's share of the proceeds will go into this fund.

During the meeting also, the new members were enrolled, and the leaders outlined the projects for the new year.

The club's next meeting will be held November 9.

Mrs. S. H. Bushnell Sr. left Sunday for a visit to her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bushnell, Jr., at their home in Durham. Mrs. Bushnell flew to Durham with her son, who was here for the day Sunday.

Waynesville FHA Group Attends Rally In Bryson

Thirty-five members of the Waynesville High School chapter of Future Homemakers of America attended the district FHA rally held at Bryson City last Saturday.

Prior to the meeting the visitors were shown through the Home Economics Department of the Bryson City School and refreshments were served in the dining room.

The program opened at ten o'clock with Miss Alyce Epley, state president of F.H.A., presiding.

Guest speaker for the morning session was Miss Marietta Henson, who reported on her work with girls in Brazil. Her talk was followed by a South American dance solo by Geraldine Fish of Clyde.

Another highlight of the program was the report by Miss Epley of the national meeting held in Memphis, Miss. Catherine T. Dennis, state supervisor of Home Economics, discussed the activities of both state and national F.H.A. Clubs and announced that the national meeting will be held in Kansas City next year.

The opening ceremony was given by four members of the Valdese Chapter and W. L. Latham, superintendent of the Swain County Schools, made the address of welcome. Miss Mary Ann Simpson led group singing.

The afternoon session opened with the emblem service presented by the Cullowhee chapter. Other afternoon features were a Mexican fandango, a one act play, and a square dance.

Six hundred and sixty-six girls attended the rally. The Waynesville group was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Farmer, Mrs. Curtis Seay, and Mrs. James Medford, chapter mothers.

Carolyn Bischoff Entertains At Birthday Party

Miss Carolyn Bischoff celebrated her fifteenth birthday with a party at her home in Hazelwood Friday evening. She was assisted in entertaining by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bischoff.

Yellow and orange were the predominant colors in the flowers used for decorating and the Halloween motif was observed in the appointments and refreshments. Games were enjoyed during the evening.

Those invited were Miss Julia Ann Stovall, Miss Joan Ratcliff, Miss Ann Coman Crawford, Miss Linda Sloan, Miss Vivian Sayer, Miss Vivian Gilliland, Miss Katherine Bell, Miss Donna Jo Queen, Miss June Davis, Miss Mary Ann Byrd, Miss Geraldine Keavenim, Miss Betty Setzer, Miss Sara Jane Davis, Ted Owen, Charles Messer, Charles Leatherwood, Wilburn Davis, Aaron Gibson, James Fugate, Bobby Setzer, Dale Ratcliffe, and Gene Liber.

HAZELWOOD'S Little PLUMBER

WE HAVE A STANDARD THAT IS HIGH! TO MEASURE UP TO THAT WE TRY

HAZELWOOD PLUMBING CO.

Miss DeLozier Announces Wedding Plans

Miss Nina Elise DeLozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cleveland DeLozier of Asheville, has announced the plans for her marriage to Joseph Hardy Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Palmer, of Crabtree.

The wedding will take place in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska at four o'clock in the afternoon, on Sunday, November 6, with the Rev. T. A. Grace, pastor of the Abernathy Methodist Church of West Asheville, pronouncing the vows.

A program of nuptial music will be presented by Mrs. John Kirkpatrick of Crabtree, soloist, and Jimmy Galloway of Waynesville, pianist.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will have as her only attendant her sister, Miss Charlotte DeLozier.

Mr. Palmer will serve as best man for his son and ushers will be Hugh DeLozier, brother of the bride, William H. Morris, brother-in-law of the bride, G. C. Palmer, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, and Wayne Corpening.

Mrs. Helen King Of Canton Is Married In S. C.

Mrs. Helen B. King of Canton and Kenneth S. Carr of Jacksonville, Fla., were married on Saturday, October 1, at 5 o'clock in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. B. A. Mattison, in McCormick, S.C. The Rev. Matthew Evans Boozer, pastor of the First Methodist Church of McCormick, officiated.

The bride wore a gold gabardine suit with brown accessories and her corsage was of bride's roses. Miss Aurelia Cauffe of McCormick, the bride's only attendant, wore a gray suit with matching accessories.

James R. Morrow of Greenville, S.C., served as best man.

An informal reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Carr is the daughter of Mrs. John B. Britt and the late Dr. Britt. She is a native of McCormick and was educated at Winthrop College, the South Carolina College for Women. For a number of years she taught in the public schools of Canton, where she was making her home at the time of her marriage.

Mr. Carr is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Carr of Stevens Point, Wis. He is a veteran of both World Wars, having served in the Navy in the first war and in the Army in World War II. He has been employed since his release from the Army with the U.S. Treasury Department.

Safety Discussed By Crabtree-Iron Duff P-TA Group

By MRS. ROY MEDFORD, Mountaineer Correspondent

The Crabtree-Iron Duff Parent-Teacher Association met at the school Thursday night, for the regular monthly meeting, with 62 present.

James Kirkpatrick, president, was in charge, and the Rev. C. O. Newell led the devotion.

The topic for discussion was "Safety Education." Among those taking part on the program were Mrs. Hugh Noland, Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick, and Fred Noland.

The association voted to continue the sponsorship of the Boy Scout work in the community.

Larry Ferguson, Jr., gave a solo during the program.

The association will meet again on November 18.

Miss Cody Heads Morning Star 4-H

The members of the Morning Star 4-H Club elected Kathryn Cody as their president recently during their first meeting of the new school year.

Sam Smathers was elected vice-president; Christine Fisher, secretary and treasurer; Troy Mann, reporter; and Judy Ensley, song leader.

Assistant Home Demonstration Agent Elise DeLozier and Assistant County Agent Joe Cline outlined the projects for the new year and explained the meaning of the club's four-leaf clover emblem.

Simpson Girls Get Their Men

MISS SLOAN SIMPSON: Rumor says she'll become the bride of New York's Mayor O'Dwyer.

MRS. ROMAINE SIMPSON: She's engaged to the Marquess of Milford Haven, of England.

MISS SLOAN SIMPSON: Rumor says she'll become the bride of New York's Mayor O'Dwyer.

Mr. And Mrs. J. H. Woody Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan H. Woody were hosts of a barbecue supper at their home on the Country Club Drive Saturday evening in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Supper was served at long tables decorated with autumn leaves and arranged near fireplaces on the lawn.

Assisting the hosts in receiving and serving were their daughter and son, Laura and Stephen Woody, and Mrs. M. H. Bowler, Mrs. Aaron Prevost, Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., Mrs. Ben Sloan, Mrs. Nora Swift Atkins, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. James Kilpatrick, Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mrs. William Prevost, Mrs. Whitener Prevost, Mrs. William Ray, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Kimball Barber, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Jr., Mrs. J. J. Ferguson, Mrs. Stanley Henry, Misses Edna and Edith Summerrow, Miss Merrill Green, Miss Thelma Jones, Miss Joy Woody, and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler.

For the occasion the dining room was decorated with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and in the living room, yellow chrysanthemums were used. Centering interest in dining room was the display of Mrs. Woody's trousseau and her bride's book.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody were married in Atlanta, Ga., on November 19, 1924 and resided there until 1940 when Mr. Woody became president of the First National Bank here.

Mrs. Woody is the former Miss Anne Foote, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Foote of Atlanta.

Mr. Woody is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Woody of Cataloochee.

Among the out of town guests at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Troutman, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Woody, Mr. and Mrs. Pollard Turman, Miss Helen Johnson, Mrs. Hockwell Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Troutman, Jr., all of Atlanta; Mrs. Hartwell Joiner and daughter, Miss Amanda Joiner of Gainesville, Ga.; Mrs. Thomas Harbin of Rome, Ga.; Judge and Mrs. Eugene Bryan of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Hal C. Worth of Raleigh, and Mrs. Jack Brown of Salem, Mass.

Mrs. Mack J. Siles of Canton, also a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and was dressed like the matron of honor.

Dr. T. J. McGee, Jr., of Atlanta, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man, and ushers were William D. Brackett, cousin of the bride, of Chattanooga, and Jack J. Stiles of Canton, brother-in-law of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents for members of the families. Mrs. Carver, mother of the bride, wore a black silk dress and a corsage of pink gardenias, and the bridegroom's mother wore a black silk dress and a corsage of white gardenias.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a copper gabardine suit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Hosp attended Western Carolina Teachers College and was graduated from the Barbizon School of Fashion Modeling in New York City. Lt. Hosp is a graduate of Duke University and Long Island College of Medicine. He interned two years at Newark City Hospital, and is now on active duty in the United States Navy Medical Corps.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. Hosp, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carver and Mrs. Gladys Carver of Rome, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brackett and Miss Ann Brackett of Florence, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brackett of Chattanooga, Tenn., Dr. and Mrs. T. J. McGee, Jr., and daughter, Melissa Anne, of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kelley of Waynesville, Mrs. J. H. Lilly of Hazelwood and Mr. and Mrs. David Underwood Jr. and children, Nancy O'Neil and David III, of Waynesville.

Diesel locomotives regularly haul trains consisting of as many as 175 freight cars. The longest on record was a potato train in Maine, of more than 200 cars, about 1.7 miles long.

Hallett Ward Is Honored At Buffet Supper

Hallett Ward, Jr., was honored at a buffet supper given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ward, at their home at Lake Junaluska Sunday evening. The party marked the seventeenth birthday anniversary of the honor guest and was given as a surprise.

A color motif of pink and white was carried out in all the appointments. The dining table was centered with a large birthday cake, flanked pink candles in silver holders and arrangements of pink roses were used in decorating.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Charles Ketter, aunt of the honor guest, and Mrs. William Hannah.

The guest list included Miss Bette Hannah, Miss Rita Grant, Miss Dolt Kienast, Miss Vivian Watkins, Miss Martha El Paso, Miss Jenny El Paso, Miss Ruth El Paso, Miss Nancy Floyd, Miss Linda Sloan, Miss Lane Prevost, Miss Laura Woody, Miss Edith Moore of Sylva, Miss Sally Stovall, Jimmy Swift, Brent McCrary, Miles Stamey, Harold Metcalf, Wingate Hannah, Johnny Whitman, Walter Tallaferro, Bobby Jeter and Frosty Lane.

Now the annoying snorer can be silenced by a corrective device reported in The American Magazine. Molded to fit comfortably between teeth and lips, the device automatically opens when the mouth is opened.

Miss Carver Is Married To Lt. D. H. Hosp

Miss Alice Ophelia Carver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smiley C. Carver of Canton, was married to Lt. (jg) David Henry Hosp, Medical Corps, USN, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hosp of Newark, N. J., in the First Baptist Church of Canton Saturday evening.

The Rev. Horace L. Smith, pastor, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with palms and Woodwardia fern, ivory gladiolus and chrysanthemums and was lighted with candles.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Ann Brackett of Florence, S. C., cousin of the bride, vocalist, and J. B. Rhea, organist. Miss Brackett sang "Through the Years" and "Because" and Mr. Rhea played "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life", "Londonderry Air" and "Beautiful Dreamer". The traditional wedding marches were used, and "Liebestraum" was played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin made with a portrait neckline trimmed with self applique and a yoke of illusion. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms and illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of ivory bridal roses centered with white butterfly orchids.

Mrs. T. J. McGee, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of shell pink tulle fashioned with portrait neckline and full gathered skirt. Her halo was of ivory chrysanthemums and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

Mrs. Mack J. Siles of Canton, also a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and was dressed like the matron of honor.

Dr. T. J. McGee, Jr., of Atlanta, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man, and ushers were William D. Brackett, cousin of the bride, of Chattanooga, and Jack J. Stiles of Canton, brother-in-law of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents for members of the families. Mrs. Carver, mother of the bride, wore a black silk dress and a corsage of pink gardenias, and the bridegroom's mother wore a black silk dress and a corsage of white gardenias.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a copper gabardine suit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Hosp attended Western Carolina Teachers College and was graduated from the Barbizon School of Fashion Modeling in New York City. Lt. Hosp is a graduate of Duke University and Long Island College of Medicine. He interned two years at Newark City Hospital, and is now on active duty in the United States Navy Medical Corps.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. Hosp, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carver and Mrs. Gladys Carver of Rome, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brackett and Miss Ann Brackett of Florence, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brackett of Chattanooga, Tenn., Dr. and Mrs. T. J. McGee, Jr., and daughter, Melissa Anne, of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kelley of Waynesville, Mrs. J. H. Lilly of Hazelwood and Mr. and Mrs. David Underwood Jr. and children, Nancy O'Neil and David III, of Waynesville.

Diesel locomotives regularly haul trains consisting of as many as 175 freight cars. The longest on record was a potato train in Maine, of more than 200 cars, about 1.7 miles long.

Beta Sigma Phi Entertains At Tea Sunday

The Beta Sigma Phi sorority entertained at a tea Sunday afternoon honoring Miss Elise DeLozier and Mrs. Ethel Hayes Fisher. Two members of the chapter who are to be inducted this fall, Mrs. Edvin Russell, Mrs. James Fields, and Mrs. William Dayer, new members of the chapter.

The affair was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Garrett on Walnut Street.

Mrs. Garrett greeted the guests at the front entrance and the receiving line was composed of Miss Edna Summerrow, vice president of the sorority, Miss Nancy Killian, social sponsor, the brides-elect and the new members. The honor guests wore corsages of yellow roses, the sorority flower.

Mrs. Stanley Henry directed the callers into the dining room where Mrs. Herbert Gibson, Jr. received and Mrs. Herbert Braten presided at the tea table. Mrs. Fred Campbell assisted in serving.

The residence was decorated throughout with yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. The tea table was covered with a linen applique cloth and held a silver bowl of yellow chrysanthemums.

Following the tea the brides-elect were presented Beta Sigma Phi Bride's Books.

The guest list, in addition to members of the sorority and the honorees, included Mrs. J. C. DeLozier, and Miss Charlotte DeLozier of Asheville, Mrs. W. H. Morris and Mrs. K. M. Williams of Candler, Mrs. Glenn C. Palmer and Mrs. B. F. Nesbitt of Clyde, Mrs. J. C. Hayes and Mrs. Frank Hall of Whitfill, Mrs. Earl Padgett of Sylva, Mrs. W. C. McDarris of Barnardsville, Mrs. Maurice Buckner of Asheville, Miss Pearl Hayes, Mrs. Jonathan Woody, Mrs. Ben Sloan, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mrs. Hurd Burgin, Mrs. Roy Moseman, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. Sam Queen, Mrs. J. W. Killian, Mrs. Robert Turner, Mrs. Frank Kinsey, Mrs. J. L. Elwood, Miss Evelyn Sutton, and Mrs. Jack Messer.

Benefit Supper At Grace Church Thursday Night

A benefit spaghetti supper will be given at the Parish House of Grace Episcopal Church, Thursday night.

Members of the Rector's Guild will be in charge.

Hallow'een Carnival To Be Monday at Lake

The Hallow'een Carnival at the Junaluska School will be held on Monday, October 31, instead of Thursday as previously announced.

When a GOLD Strike back with LONI for colds, DISCOMFORTS

FOR COLD DISCOMFORTS $3.50/Bottle

CANCEL up to 25% of your oil bills with a

DUO-THERM Fuel Oil Heater with Power-Air Blower!

The Beautiful Duo-Therm CHIPPEDALE Home Heater in Walnut Finish

Don't face winter with an oil-waster! The beautiful Duo-Therm heater with exclusive Blower—and save up to 1 gallon of fuel oil! Tests in a cold northern climate have proven. Enjoy unequalled heating comfort at the dial. More than a million satisfied users Duo-Therm!

Exclusive Duo-Therm Dual Chamber Burner more heat from every drop of oil... and always. Quiet. No moving parts. Extra cold days.

Fine Furniture Styling of this Duo-Therm real beauty to your home! Choice of walnut shown, or modern blond.

EASY TERMS, IF YOU WISH!

Garrett

Phone I-J

IN'S and OUT'S of MEDICINE

You get out of medicine exactly what's been put in... to insure the quickest possible recovery, we use only proven pharmaceuticals produced by nationally known makers.

Your Walgreen Agency

CURTIS DRUG STORE
Home Owned & Operated
Phone 32

NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!

Yes, these were the findings of noted throat specialists after a total of 2,470 weekly examinations of the throats of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels for 30 consecutive days.

I MADE THE 30-DAY TEST AND MY DOCTORS REPORT WAS NO SURPRISE TO ME! CAMELS ARE A GREAT SMOKE - AND I KNOW THEY'RE MILD! MY THROAT TOLD ME SO!

Joe Baynard
SALES REPRESENTATIVE

To Remove Misery of COLDS
take 666
LIQUID OR TABLETS - SAME FAST RELIEF

LAFF - A - DAY

Copyright, King Features Syndicate, Inc. All rights reserved.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR JFG SPECIAL COFFEE

The Best Part of the Meal

"It's all right—he's my brother."