Canton, Waynesville JV Teams Battle To 0-0 Tie

Bethel Set For Indians Tomorrow

Bethel's Blue Demons, who found their scoring punch at their first season last week against the Waynesville Jayvees, will make their bid for their first victory tomorrow night against one of the teams that whipped them.

Coach Terry Johnson's Bethel gridders will face a heavy Cherokee team in Black Bear Memorial Stadium at Canton.

The kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p. m.

The Demons fell, 20-0, in their second game of their inaugural season last month before the Indians.

But it will be a greatly improved Demon eleven that will take the field for the kickoff.

Since their 35-6 loss to the Yannisians a week ago, the Demons have been working hard on polishing their defenses, which have let 81 points through in their three games.

They also spent considerable time on ball-handling and their potent passing attack.

The Bethel starters probably will be: ends—Bobby Holland and Wayne Howell; tackles—Jerry Gibson and Terry Howell; guards—D. B. Gibson and Felix Mease; center—Virgil Browning; quarterback—Edwin Lowe; left half—Billy Allison; right half—Bobby Fore; fullback—G. S. Franklin or Buddy McDowell.

Before designing his dummy, Mortimer Snerd, Edgar Bergen studied phonology and combined in Mortimer all physical marks of stupidity.

“Get your football lineup! Name of each and every player!” he shouted. The gateman, evidently thinking newsmen were to be admitted free, let him pass, with his friend right behind him.

Once inside the stadium, they quickly sold the paper and watched the game still with 20 cents in their pockets.

The Canton junior varsity gridders fought the Waynesville Yannisians to a scoreless tie last night in their return match at Canton's Black Bear Memorial Stadium.

A handful of loyal students and cheerleaders stayed in the stands under the full moon tensely watching for the scoring break that never came.

It was an upset for the Bear Cubs, who had fallen 25-7 only a few weeks earlier to the Mountaineer's talented backs and hard-charging linemen.

But this time the Cubs managed to stop everybody but the smashing 180-pound freshman fullback, Gertrud Ross.

That's one thing they couldn't do either on offense or defense.

Ross gained 8 1/2 yards each of the eight times he carried the ball on scrimmage plays, and he played a terrific line-backing game that smeared Canton's runners for losses five times.

In carrying the ball, his smallest gain amounted to four yards.

On the next to last play of the game, he disguised himself as a fullback and swerved around end 24 yards before he was finally dropped by the last Canton defender.

Quarterback Don Cade of Canton was barely overshadowed by Ross' work as far as all-around playing goes. Cade repeatedly broke up Waynesville's line plays before they could get started and dropped passers before they could get the ball away.

On offense, he gained every time he carried the ball and snagged a pass from Ray Morgan for an 18-yard gain seconds before the first half ended.

Earlier in the same period, he raced 17 yards to the Canton 48 on one of the longest runs of the game.

The Deacons, only member of the Southern Conference in this select circle, were rated 18th on the strength of their convincing 27-7 victory over Duke last Saturday.

The result at the same time knocked Duke out of the top 20.

Notre Dame, next Saturday's opponent for North Carolina's crippled Tar Heels, were ranked first again; Army second, Oklahoma third, California fourth, Michigan fifth, Cornell sixth, Rice seventh, Michigan State eighth, Minnesota ninth, and Virginia tenth.

The second ten in this order, are: Ohio State, Southern Methodist, Texas, Kentucky, Boston University, Louisiana State, Stanford, Wake Forest, College of the Pacific, and Santa Clara.

North Carolina's Tar Heels, with All-America Charlie Justice nursing the sprained ankle he received in the William and Mary game worked hard this week in preparation for the toughest game their schedule-makers set up since they started playing football.

Looking at the fat injury list which includes the names of some of Carolina's most vital reserves, Tar Heel supporters gloomily hoped that the Tar Heels would somehow find the inspiration to make the game at the Yankee Stadium a reasonably close one.

Two Records Broken As Ward's Licks Lawrence

Two records were blasted Tuesday night as Ward's Esso bowlers strengthened their hold on the lead in the Haywood County Bowling League by lopping second-place A. C. Lawrence, 3-0.

The individual game record was shattered twice as Bill Cochrane of Esso rolled a 242 for high honors and runner-up Arthur Vieth of Lawrence scored 225.

Vieth's score was three points better than the previous individual single game mark set by Spider Medford of Ward's.

The individual high series honors were reversed.

Vieth took first place with a total of 537 for three games (150-225-162), while Cochrane was runner-up with 534.

The second record shattered that night was the one for the highest team series, with Ward's Esso setting the new mark of 1,027.

Life Insurance Company of Virginia shut out Dayton No. 1, by 3-0, and Dayton No. 2 edged Waynesville Bowling Center, 2-1.

The schedule for next Tuesday: Lawrence vs. WBC, Ward's vs. Dayton No. 1, and Life Insurance vs. Dayton No. 2.

The standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Ward's	20	4	.833
ACL	15	9	.625
Life Ins.	9	12	.426
WBC	8	13	.380
Dayton No. 2	9	15	.375
Dayton No. 1	5	13	.280

Wake Forest Climbs To 18th Place

Wake Forest's Demon Deacons, who finally found their scoring punch two weeks ago, were promoted to the top 20 teams in the Associated Press national football standings for this week.

The Deacons, only member of the Southern Conference in this select circle, were rated 18th on the strength of their convincing 27-7 victory over Duke last Saturday.

The result at the same time knocked Duke out of the top 20.

Notre Dame, next Saturday's opponent for North Carolina's crippled Tar Heels, were ranked first again; Army second, Oklahoma third, California fourth, Michigan fifth, Cornell sixth, Rice seventh, Michigan State eighth, Minnesota ninth, and Virginia tenth.

WTHS Coach Rates Monroe High; But Still Likes His Mountain Boys

Carlton Weatherby, Waynesville's head football coach, made this comment today after being informed that Monroe would be the Mountaineers' opponents in the Paper Bowl at Canton Nov. 30:

"We're working for Marion right now, and we're taking them as they come."
Then he added:
"We know we'll be the underdogs against that great undefeated eastern team (Monroe)."
