CAPTURE BANDIT KING'S PAL

CUT DOWN BY POLICE FIRE, Giuseppe Cucinella, top lieutenant of Italy's fabulous "bandit King," Salvatore Giuliano, is questioned by the director of the Palermo hospital where he is being watched night and day. Cucinella was captured when he left his mountain refuge in Sicily to visit his girl friend, Angela Burruano (inset). The bandit's left leg had to be amputated. Angela was arrested for going to his aid. (International)

The new procedures went into effect on November 1.

The most important of them are: 1) Veterans who have completed or discontinued a course and wish to take another course in a different general field will be required to undergo advisement and guidance. This will determine their aptitudes and needs for the new

If the veterans clear advisement, they must obtain certificates of chemids for a specie course and

2) Each application for original and supplemental certificates must metude the veteran's choice of course and name of the school in which he wants to take that course. Application must be made on new form 7-1950 (Sept. 1949).

If the application is ap he certificate will be good only for the specified course and school.

The procedures are necessary under a new law which continues the ban on non-vocational and recreational courses. The new law also probibits the VA from permitting eterans to enroll in a school which has been operating less than a year at the time the veteran en-It also prohibits the VA from
