FISH FARMING PAYS
LEWISTON, Idaho (UP)—Fish farming is proving a profitable venture in parts of southern Idaho, says Thomas Hunter, job analyst for the state employment service. About 15 men are raising fish on a commercial basis in communities along the Snake River.

Has Ambition
BALTIMORE (AP)—Yelberton Abraham Yardarm Tittle, Jr., the Baltimore T-brewer who was All-America Conference rookie of the year last season, sets his sights high for the future. Says the Louisiana State star from Marshall, Tex.: "I aim to be the best thrower in these here states."

Actor Says Jones's Are Luckiest

By Patricia Clary
United Press Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—An actor who's been known during his short life by six different names says you folks who are born and remain John Jones are lucky. This man was born Kenny O'Morrison. But nobody believes it. Not even the nurse who made out his birth certificate.

"I'm legally registered," he said, as Kenneth Eugene Morrison. That name was entirely the idea of the recording nurse at the hospital. When my father said 'Kenny O'Morrison,' she thought he was too excited to know what he was telling her."

The "O" before the "Morrison," he added, throws more people than just the nurse at the hospital. "People won't question O'Shea or O'Donnell," he said, "but when you say O'Morrison, they think it's your middle initial."

Kenny, he adds, is not diminutive of Kenneth. It's a good Irish clan name.

Name Changed
When Kenny was four, the father who named him was killed in World War I. His mother married again, and the boy became Kenny Elliot. In school, he added, teachers called him Kenneth, even

Astute Campus Wolf Hand-Picks Date List

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (UP)—Some "wolf" on the University of Alabama campus has the best prospective date list, all pretty co-eds hand-picked.

The girls realized what was happening only after they got together after registration this month. The fellow with the date list was helping out in registration.

He would stop the prettiest girls and ask to look at their registration form, containing their name, local address and telephone number. He copied that information, letting the lasses think it was the usual registration rigamarole.

though it wasn't his name. Later his mother married another man named Mandel, Kenny became Kenny Mandel.

By the time he got to high school his mother was divorced and had resumed her maiden name of Adams. Kenny became Kent Adams. "These troubles were nothing," he says, "compared to trying to explain to the army why I called myself Kenny O'Morrison when my birth certificate said Kenneth Eugene Morrison."

It took the government five weeks to adjust to the situation.

Now he is working in Filmakers' "Never Fear," produced and directed by Ida Lupino, under the name of Kevin O'Morrison.

"Richard Conte suggested the name," he said. "I hope it's the last one I have."

"BE PATIENT, SIR I'M SHAKING OUT HIS PIGGY BANK AS FAST AS I CAN."
