Street Dress And Stole

Seal stole and wool frock.

By VERA WINSTON

SMART SIMPLICITY and wearability make for good fashion sense, as is demonstrated by this street dress. Of gray and black striped woolen, it has a lap-over panel in back and a black leather belt which can be worn over or under the accompanying black baby seal stole scarf. The stole is a versatile affair, and can be worn many ways. It has pockets at each end and is lined with red wool. It would be handsome with a tweed suit, or a plain coat.

Wesleyan Guild To Meet Tues.

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church will meet Tuesday night, November 15, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. William Chambers in Hazelwood.

Bridal Party Is Entertained At Breakfast

A wedding breakfast was given at The Lodge last Sunday morning for Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Antosy and members of their bridal party.

The affair followed the wedding ceremony which took place at St. John's church at 11 o'clock, with the Rev. Ambrose Rohrbacher, officiating.

Guests were seated at one long table which was decorated in the bridal motif. The centerpiece was of white chrysanthemums and fern, flanked by white candles in crystal holders, and at one end was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Around twenty-five guests were present.

Mrs. Antosy is the former Mrs. Dorothy Gallus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Von Grodd of Budapest, Hungary. She was educated in schools in Hungary and Switzerland and has resided in Waynesville since her arrival in the United States about two months ago.

Mr. Antosy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Antosy of Reading, Pa. He is a veteran of service with the army during World War II and is now located in Germany where he has a position with the Government.

Following the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Antosy left by plane for Washington and New York. They will return to Waynesville where they have an apartment at the home of Mrs. E. L. Wilbers and will spend several weeks before going to Germany to reside.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Strimfeld will leave tomorrow for New York City to attend the Carolina-Notre Dame football game. They will join Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay in Greensboro for the trip.
