

Junaluska Names Miss Medford For Queen Of Festival

By THE REV. P. H. DUCKWALL, Mountaineer Correspondent

Miss Bonnie Lou Medford was elected Lake Junaluska candidate for queen of the 1949 Tobacco Festival last night.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Medford of Crabtree Road was named for the honor by Lake Junaluska residents at a box supper meeting held by the local Community Development Program organization.

The visitors paid about $20 for the boxes auctioned off by Program Chairman Hallett Ward. The funds will be used to help finance the Lake Junaluska Community Development Program projects.

Presiding at the event was Community Chairman Charles Edwards, Jr.

The dinner was arranged by the community's recreation committee, headed by Mrs. Ruel Noland, the chairman.

Francis Cove Club Meets With Mrs. Chamblee

An all-day meeting of the Francis Cove Home Demonstration Club was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Chamblee.

Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, gave a demonstration on Christmas Gift Suggestions and Mrs. Troy Wyche also made suggestions for making gifts.

A covered dish lunch was served and a Christmas party with an exchange of gifts was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Norris and son, Billy, left last week for Sarasota, Florida where they will spend the winter.

Children's Books To Be Displayed For Book Week

Book Week will be celebrated at the Haywood County Library during the week from Saturday, November 12, until the following Saturday. All new Children's Books will be on display throughout the week.

The center of the display will be a miniature merry-go-round loaded with books for all ages, from picture books up to teen-age selections. The bulletin boards will be covered with jackets from a number of new books.

Parents, teachers, boys, and girls are invited to browse among the books and make selections for future reading. As is the custom, no books will be checked out of the library until the close of Book Week, November 19, at 2 p.m. Books will be held for readers who make the first requests and then they will be circulated in the regular manner.

Miss McKinney Is Married To D. B. Edwards

Miss Barbara Ann McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McKinney of Canton, became the bride of Billy Dale Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Edwards of Canton, in a candlelight ceremony Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Methodist Church in Clyde.

The Rev. W. T. Medlin, pastor, performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with white and cream chrysanthemums with fern and greenery interspersed with seven branched candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. Larry Cagle, vocalist, and Miss Janice Smathers, organist, of Clyde, presented a program of wedding music, "Indian Love Call," "I Love You Truly," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Always," "Wonderful One" and "Because" were heard before the ceremony. "To A Wild Rose" was played during the ceremony. "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used as the processional and recessional.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. The bride wore a wool suit of powder blue with brown accessories. Her only ornament was an heirloom pin. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with white and white satin streamers and white sweet peas.

Miss Carolyn McKinney of Canton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a wool suit of winter white with pink blouse and black accessories. Her corsage was pink gardenias.

Franklin E. Metcalf of Canton was best man. Ushers were Francis Pless and Nicky Carter of Canton.

An informal reception followed at the home of the bridegroom for members of both families and a few friends. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Those asked to assist in serving were Mrs. Franklin E. Metcalf, Mrs. Ralph Crawford, Mrs. A. B. Owenby, Mrs. Carey Smathers, Mrs. Logan White and Mrs. W. S. Burnette, Jr.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink gardenias.

The couple left for a trip through the East and will reside at the home of the bridegroom upon their return.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Boyd and Ronny and Nancy Boyd of Morristown, Tenn., aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Neal Lanning of Asheville, cousins of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Smith of Elizabethtown, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mrs. A. C. Edwards, Tabor City, aunt of the bridegroom and Mrs. L. L. Freeman, of Hamlet, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. W. W. Gordon and small daughter, Celeste, of Sumter, S.C. are arriving Saturday for a visit to the former's mother, Mrs. J. P. Dicus.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy B. Medford of Lake Junaluska attended the Georgia Tech-Tennessee football game in Knoxville on Saturday.

Medford Named To State Bar Committee

William Medford, Waynesville attorney and a former state senator, has been appointed to the membership committee of the North Carolina Bar Association.

The committee appointments for 1949-50 were announced this week by Association President Thomas H. Leath of Rockingham.

Kicking Around
DURHAM (AP)—Duke University's soccer team is engaged in a seven game schedule that will extend to Nov. 23. Opponents are North Carolina State (twice), Virginia, North Carolina (twice), Washington and Lee and Maryland, in the closing contest.

Strange Spot
EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—The lightest man of the first string Michigan State football lineup this season is, of all things, a tackle. Don Coleman, sophomore left tackle, weighs 178 pounds and is 12 pounds lighter than his smallest teammate, backs included.
