Shimmering Date Dress

Taffeta pointed with green.

By VERA WINSTON

FABRIC SPINS a fine fashion story this season. The younger crowd, especially, dotes on date dresses that are fashioned of lovely, shimmering or brocaded fabrics, cut and handled on simple, casual lines.

Petit point-rayon jacquard taffeta in copper with tiny pin points of green makes this smart little date dress. The tiny sleeves have jutting cuffs which come from the turned-back notched neckline. A narrow belt circles the shaped, set-in waistband and the skirt is flared.
