

Roads Lead to Waynesville

For The 3rd Annual Tobacco Harvest Festival

BIG DAYS—5 BIG NIGHTS

Monday, Nov. 22

Saturday, Nov. 26

Some of The Nation's Best Platform Speakers

●

SINGING

BY

QUARTETTES

AS YOU LIKE IT

●

SQUARE

DANCE

CONTESTS

●

HIGHLY

ENTERTAINING

Thursday, Nov. 24

9:00 a. m.—Union Thanksgiving Service, First Presbyterian Church of Waynesville. Address by Rev. J. E. Yountz, Pastor of First Methodist Church.

2:00 p. m.—Thanksgiving Football Game at Waynesville High School. Canton vs. Waynesville.

Thursday Night, Nov. 24

Tobacco Harvest Festival

Ball

8:00 - 12:00 P. M.

Admission, $1.25
(Advance Tickets)

WAYNESVILLE ARMORY
Music by Carol Henry's Orchestra

9:00—Formal Presentation of Contestants for Tobacco Queen.

(Sponsored by Waynesville Junior Chamber of Commerce)

●

BEAUTY

QUEENS

●

BANDS

AND

CONCERTS

●

EDUCATIONAL

AND

INSPIRING

Friday, Nov. 25

Admission FREE Day and Night Program
LADIES AND TEACHERS DAY
Haywood County Courthouse

10:30—Band Concert.

11:00—Address by Mrs. Perry Taylor, Vice-President Federated Women of North Carolina.

12:30—Luncheon for Special Guests. (Waynesville Rotary Club)

2:00—Parade, Led by Senator Graham, Sen. Hoey, Congressman Redden, 23 Community Floats with Beauty Contestants; 25 Commercial Floats; 7 Bands. (Starts at Waynesville High School, Through Hazelwood and Waynesville.)

2:30—Address by Sen. Graham, at Court house. Introduced by J. M. Queen, Sr.

3:00—Inspection of Tobacco Exhibits—Small Court Room, 3rd Floor Courthouse.

EVENING PROGRAM
Waynesville Armory
Admission FREE

7:00—Band Music at Waynesville Armory.

7:30—7 outstanding Quartettes in State.

8:00—Address, Judge Camille Kelley, (Juvenile Court, Memphis, Tenn.) Introduced by Senator Hoey.

Selection of Tobacco Queen's Court. Quartette Singing.

Saturday, Nov. 26

Youth Day

Haywood County Courthouse

Admission FREE For Entire Day

10:30—Band Concert.

11:00—Introduction of Special Guests.

11:30—Address, Hon. Monroe M. Redden, (United States Congressman.) Introduced by R. C. Francis, Chairman Community Development Program.

12:30—Lunch for Special Guests. Sponsored by Haywood County Farm Bureau and Auxiliary.

2:00—Meeting Haywood County Farm Bureau and Auxiliary. Speaker, Hugh Agnue, President S. C. Farm Bureau. String music, door prize, free turkey! All farm people of Haywood County are cordially invited.

EVENING PROGRAM
Waynesville Armory
Admission FREE

7:00—Band Concert.

7:30—String Music.

8:00—Selection of Queen of the Tobacco Festival.

8:30—Square Dance Team Exhibition and String Band Competition.

(Ten of the outstanding square dance teams in the Nation will compete; also fifteen string bands will compete).

Sponsored By The Merchants Association

Here You Will Find Complete Stocks, and Friendly Homefolk to Efficiently Serve You. It Always Pays To Trade Here!

...ght, Nov. 22
...LE ARMORY
...P. M.
...arming
...ion, 75c
...dancing and Old-time
...together.
...t—
...and young!
...st—
...PRIZES — PRIZES
...lbarrow
...e Of Sponsors
...enter's String Band
...farmers and farmerettes!
...Business and Professional
...Club, Waynesville.
...day, Nov. 23
...mission Free
...OF INDUSTRIES
...with Haywood County
...Industry
...le and Pilkington.
...and Pilkington
...on Rubber Co.
...o Shoe Plant No. 1.
...annery.
...g. Co.
...plants at time specified.
...you will miss the tour.)
...ville Armory
...mission Free
...rt
...the outstanding barbershop
...in the state.
...peaker, Dr. E. L. Butz,
...gricultural Economics De-
...Purdue University, Ind.
...J. Damtoft, of Champion
...and Fibre Co.
...Comes to Waynesville.
...television" of work being
...community Development
...rogram).
...unities to be represented