

Many State Leaders To Attend Tobacco Festival

Known To Be Gram

such a group of leaders gathered here for the first time in the history of the festival.

delegation headed by R. Hoey and others are to appear on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, which are the days and of the festival.

will be held during the festival.

is publishing pictures of part of the festival.

will appear on the festival.

will appear on the festival.

will appear on the festival.

will appear on the festival.

will appear on the festival.

will appear on the festival.

will appear on the festival.

These Are Among The Many From All Parts Of The State Coming To Festival

HUGH AGNEW, president of the South Carolina Farm Bureau, will address Saturday's meeting of the Haywood County Farm Bureau and its Auxiliary. The session will be held in conjunction with the Tobacco Festival.

U. S. SEN. FRANK P. GRAHAM of Chapel Hill will address the Haywood County Tobacco Festival Friday afternoon following the parade.

U. S. SEN. CLYDE R. HOEY of Shelby will be the principal speaker on the festival program on Friday afternoon at the Haywood County Court House.

R. C. FRANCIS of Rattlesnake Cove, chairman of his own community and chairman of the County Community Development Program, will introduce U. S. Rep. Monroe M. Resden before the congressman's scheduled speech Saturday morning at the Court House.

MISS NELL KENNETT, district home demonstration agent of the State College Extension Service, will appear here this week during the Tobacco Festival.

W. E. COLWELL, in charge of the N. C. State College agronomy department, will be one of the special guests at this week's Tobacco Festival.

WALTER DAMTOFT, secretary of The Champion Paper and Fibre Company, will introduce Dr. E. L. Butz, prominent Purdue University agricultural economist prior to Dr. Butz' address at the Waynesville Armory Wednesday night during the Tobacco Festival.

DEAN I. O. SCHAUB, director of the North Carolina State College Agricultural Extension Service, will be one of the prominent guests at this week's Tobacco Festival here.

A. HUGH HARRIS, assistant North Carolina Agriculture Commissioner, will be one of the outstanding officials who will be special guests at the Tobacco Festival this week.

U. S. REP. MONROE M. RESDEN of Hendersonville is one of the featured speakers on the Tobacco Festival program. His address is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. Saturday at the Court House.

DR. JAMES A. HILTON, director of the N. C. Agricultural Experiment Station, will appear here this week in connection with the festival. He is also dean of the N. C. State College School of Agriculture.

JOHN M. QUEEN, SR., Waynesville attorney and former district solicitor, will introduce U. S. Senator Frank P. Graham to the festival audience at the Court House Friday afternoon. The senator is scheduled to speak immediately after the festival parade ends.

ALONZO EDWARDS of Hookerton, president of the North Carolina Farm Bureau, will come here as a special guest of the Tobacco Festival this week.

One of the outstanding specialists who will appear on the Tobacco Festival program this week is Miss Pauline Gordon, of the N. C. State College Extension Service. Her field is family relations.

You Insulate Once In A "HOUSE TIME!" DO IT RIGHT

DEMAND THE FOLLOWING:

1. Skilled Craftsmen
2. Efficient Equipment
3. Fireproof Mineral Wool
4. Naturally Water Repellent Mineral Wool
5. Non-Settling Mineral Wool
6. Full Thickness For Maximum Benefits

GET ALL THE ABOVE WITH AN EAGLE-PICHER CERTIFIED INSULATION JOB

The Original Black Rock Wool

Factory Engineered

Franchised Contractor

PHONE 3-0946 FOR FREE SURVEY

NO OBLIGATION

EAGLE INSULATING CO.

30-31 McINTYRE BLDG. ASHEVILLE, N. C.

ROBERT F. WILSON

JOHN R. CABE