Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost returned on Saturday after a week's visit to High Point and Hickory.

Silk Beauty

Dainty nightgown with lace insets.

By VERA WINSTON

WITH ALL THE emphasis on man-made fabrics still it isn't wrong to sell silk short. For there is nothing to take the place of the luxury feel of lovely silk lingerie. Beautiful as a gift, or as a treat to oneself is this dainty nightgown of baby pink silk crepe. The round neckline and cap sleeves are trimmed with dainty matching lace. Little insets of lace at the waist, and an embroidered pastel flower spray on the bodice add an extra touch of charm. The string sash in back comes from the side seams.

Margaret Rogers Is Honored On 14th Birthday

Miss Margaret Rogers was honored at a dinner given by her mother, Mrs. Wayne Rogers, at her home Thursday evening, in celebration of her fourteenth birthday anniversary.

A color scheme of blue and white was carried out in decorations and all party appointments. The dining table was centered with a birthday cake flanked by blue candles and favors marked each place.

Games were played following dinner.

Those present in addition to the honor guest were Miss Florrie Patrick, Mrs. Marguerite Russ, Miss Dixie Ann Enley, Miss Pat Reed, Mrs. Betty Ann Howell and Miss Linda Messer.

Mrs. Roberson Has Party On Son's Birthday

Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson entertained with a supper party Friday afternoon, honoring her son, LeRoy Roberson, on the occasion of his sixth birthday.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the house and table appointments were also in the Christmas motif. Santa Claus favors marked the places of the guests.

Games and movies were enjoyed in the afternoon.

The guest list included Mary Barber, Carey Howell, Charlotte Watkins, Dottie Turner, Lynn Kilpatrick, Marietta Campbell, Tommy Prevost, Jimmy Medford, Chip Killian, Edwin Davis, Paul Davis, Michal Tuttle, Charlie Hendry, Jack Prevost, Tommy Walker, Johnny Carswell and Harris Prevost.
