Dayton Licks ACL In Loop Play

Fifth-place Dayton No. 2 earned considerable ground last week by shutting out second-place A. C. Lawrence-Leather Company, 20-0 in Haywood County's Bowling League play.

Ward's Esso, the League leader, continued rolling by edging Life Insurance Company of Virginia, 2-1.

The last-place Independents were up and knocked off Wayneville Bowling Center, 2-1 in the final match.

Spider Moffatt, Ward's League-leading sharpshooter, racked up the season's second highest score for a single game—a 234.

That's just 66 pins short of a perfect score.

This also helped him to win top honors for an individual three-game series. His other games of 155 and 165 added to his best record mark gave him a total of 554 for a good night's work.

Earl Gribble, his teammate, followed a 205 for rumpus honors for highest individual game. S. Caldwell of ACL was third with a 200. J. Riggins, another Ward's sharpshooter fired a 179-167-110, 526 for second place in the high individual series department.

M. Hesse of the Independents had the third best three-game series, 177-191-153—521.

Ward's Esso also won team high series laurels with 982 and Life Insurance Company of Virginia placed second with 919.

Medford's mark in the individual scoring column for the season to date is a neat 169 average to show for 30 games, playing with a seven-pin handicap.

E. Dudley of A. C. Lawrence is second with 104.

Automobile Trailers

There are about 550,000 automobiles in the United States. A great many of these are in service as either temporary or "permanent" housing. Construction of trailer coaches this year is expected to result in 100,000 new units as against 72,000 last year. A coach that will sleep six persons is now available.

the season. He's still under treatment for a knee injury he suffered in the Paper Bowl game against Monroe.

First Bethel Grid Team Is Honored

The students and teachers of Bethel High School set a new precedent in modern football Friday night.

They turned out to honor a team that hadn't won a game. They threw a banquet to the high school athletes to pay tribute to their first football players for doing their best in the first five games any of them ever played.

Thirty-three Blue Devils and their coach, Terry Joe Johnson, were the guests of honor and in these days of a somewhat serious general attitude, when being is generally considered an almost permanent disgrace resulting in permanent injury to the characters of the students and a crushing blow to the school, the atmosphere was surprisingly lively.

The boys' last four and had one in their introduction to high school football but about the only essential to winning football they lacked was experience. They showed plenty of the other essentials—speed, talent, and individual fortitude and it was quite dependent only on this last quality. They would have had a perfect season.

Principal E. J. Evans said last week that the event would be a banquet to honor the football team. And that, exactly what it was.

In the report the Bethel talk also of another precedent which had already received loud profane applause from coast to coast.

Each of the girls promptly responded with a warm, praising the quality and quantity of the dinner and the efforts of the girls and the in-decision post, the more than a cheer for it in sincerity and enthusiasm.

Wanting to do even more, the audience sang a song paying respect to each man on the menu. And when the banquet ended they paid their final respects to the ladies with a long burst of applause.

Next year's will be a victory banquet.

For every one of the boys who attended Friday night's dinner will be back for the next one.

Bryson City Bowl To Close WNC Football Season

Last weekend's Bowl games all but closed the high school football season in Western North Carolina.

Bryson City's first Smoky Mountain Bowl contest next Saturday afternoon will pull down the curtain and hand the state over exclusively to basketball.

At Asheville Saturday afternoon, Quarterback Tucker Graham of Ben Rippen and Halfback Clingman Capps, star of Black Mountain's Buncombe County champions, led Coach Stewart Farmer's Western boys to a 26-6 victory over Art Ditt's Easterners in the third annual Optunist Bowl game. ## NC State 'Hoosiers' Pick In South

By ROBERT L. MOORE AP Newswriters

RICHMOND, Va. The No. 1 troubmaker in the Southern Conference basketball race again undoubtedly will be North Carolina State's vicious Wolfpack.

Even Coach Everett Case admits his defender champion will be strong.

FIRST OF A SERIES

"Our team at present looks as good as any I have had at State," says Case. "Our main problem is getting the reserves. The new sophomores filled into our system. That will take time, but if they stand up under pressure we should have another good season."

Case's ace has won 81 games, lost only 16 since the little man from Anderson, Ind., turned up at Raleigh, N. C., three years ago. Only three times have conference teams been able to outscore the Pack. Wake Forest did it twice and Duke once.

State's starting lineup is headed with veteran Dick Dickie and Sam Romano, a pair of sharpshooters. Indiana Hoosiers man the forward, Paul Horvath of Chicago, 6-foot, 7-inch frame, 170 pounds, 21-year-old center. Vic Baker of Gary, Ind., and Joe Harand of Terrell, N. C., have the guard assignment.

The most valuable player on the squad seldom starts. He's Warren Cartier, a 6-foot, 3-inch, 160-pound man from Green Bay, Wis. He plays any position.

Another veteran, forward Tom Davidson, led the Wolfpack last year with 1,000 points. He led the Pack to a 17-10 record, which won 13 of 30. The team's conference record was 10-10.

The Wolfpack has a new edge with starting capacity of 12.

Duke, North Carolina, George Washington, William and Mary and Wake Forest have outstanding clubs. Duke's Blue Devils might be singled out as the team most likely to succeed in any bid to knock off State.

Scrapping for Duke are its positions on Coach George Garard's squad are several sophomores from the 1949 team outfit, the finest in the Blue Devils' long career history. Last year's 12 chosen won 15 of 17 contests and averaged close to 70-point a game.

Five Duke letters are back including Greg Yostine, Dave Scarborough, Tommy Hughes, Bill Martin and Scott York.

North Carolina's chance may be dimmed by a back football injury to Xenon Newman. Hugo Kappeler will be one of the mainstays.

George Washington's letters are

WARREN CARTIER Valuable to State

future seniors Phil McNeil and John Moffatt and Junior Ray Adley.

William and Mary has more reserve strength this season. Her name on the Indians' is Chester Giermak of Chicago, 6-foot, 4-inch center who jumped in 740 pounds last year. Giermak needs exactly 700 points to break the college scoring record for four seasons. The present mark, 2,498 points, is held by Jim Lacy of Loyola.

Wake Forest's Deacons have long been troublemaker.

Maryland's Old Liners, South Carolina's Gamecocks, Virginia Tech's Gobblers and Washington and Lee's Generals may surprise. Jimmy Slaughter, 6-foot, 9-inch center, will spearhead the Gamecocks. Washington and Lee has two dandies, in Jay Hamilton and Bob Goldsmith.

The team's other six squads have beeniddled by graduation. They are Davidson, Furman, The Citadel, Richmond, Clemson and Virginia Military Institute.

Bob Davis Given Honorable Listing On All-State Team

Bob Davis, a back of the Waynesville football team, was among those given honorable mention in The Charlotte News' all-state selection of high school players. Hendersonville had one man on the honorable list, and so did Marion.

Clyde Cage Teams Lick Webster HS

By BOB MEDFORD Mountaineer Sports Writer

The Clyde High School Cardinals boys and girls rolled over the Webster high school cagers Friday night in the Clyde gym. This win made victory No. 4 for the Clyde boys, and 101 and no game lost in the season.

Before the first half ended, in both games, all three of Clyde's teams had played out to the run-away score in their favor. At the end of the half in the boys' game, the score was 26-14 for the Clyde boys, and the basketball was playing.

Little Jewell Egan, forward for the female section, pulled in 14 points to add to three victories of 22-33, 30-11 and 25-10. Hendersonville were 10-11 behind with 12 points each. Clyde, center for the Webster party, was high scorer in the game with 20 points.

The boys' game was a runaway for Clyde. Forward, Cecil Stevenson and Charlie Morgan each rolled in 10 points for the Cardinals.

The half time score was 27-2, for the Clyde boys and the Webster boys just couldn't catch up even though Clyde's second and third teams played all of the second half. The final score was 52-15 for the Clyde boys.

This week's games are: Fines Creek at Clyde Tuesday night; Creek at Clyde Tuesday night.

Mountaineer Gridders' Slate For 1950 Is Set

Last Wednesday, the Waynesville Mountaineers wound up another highly successful football season.

But the next morning, Head Coach Carleton Weatherby started them thinking of next season.

He informed the public generally that he has already lined up nine games for the 1950 campaign, with two more possible.

The worry lines left over from the sad afternoon that was less than 12 hours behind were only a trace on his forehead, but new ones already beginning to appear.

After all, there are only 288 days until the Mountaineers open against Sylva.

It will be a home game, the night of September 15.

The only new face on the schedule so far is Brevard, a Blue Ridge Conference team, which returns to the Waynesville schedule after a two-year road trip.

The last time they met, Ervin Shook cut loose and the Mountaineers stomped the Blue Devils, 40-

Hanes Hosiery 53, Duke 52	Washington and Lee 61, Wake Forest 54

13, right in front of everybody, that night of September 26, 1947.

Brevard replaces Bryson City's Maroons, who haven't had much luck with the Mountaineers either the last two years.

Otherwise, the Mountaineers will meet their same-old friends of this last season, though Tryon hasn't appeared on the schedule yet.

They won't meet Monroe, either, though the absence of the Pythons is due to no fear of a historical repetition of last Wednesday's 13-0 disappointment.

The schedule was made up several days before the Wednesday afternoon kickoff.

The Mountaineers take a trip to Elizabethton for another engagement with the Bets Cyclones on September 29. Right now they have an open weekend between the Sylva game and that date.

Canton's Black Bear's come to Waynesville October 6 for the first of the semi-annual series, then the Mountaineers meet Hendersonville at Hendersonville.

They meet Christ School, Brevard, and Asheville School in three straight home games, then go to Marion for their third meeting with the Rippers.

They are scheduled to wind up the regular season, as usual, against Canton on November 23. The game will be at Canton.

As to the perennial question: Why don't the Mountaineers get into the Western Class A Conference, the answer is it was answered a long time ago.

Conference officials have informed the school the Mountaineers will have to get three other teams to enter with them, otherwise, no dice.

Canton, it was understood, was willing to break into the loop with Waynesville. But the Mountaineers couldn't find two other teams who found such a movement convenient. So, it's been no dice so far.
