Sober Reflection

APPARENTLY reflecting on his predicament, Ralph Coolack, 35, of Morrisstown, N. J., is shown in the Morris County Jail, Newark, N. J., where he is being held in the double slaying of his former girl friend, Irene Swetz Poole, and her husband, Arthur. The couple was shot to death in a Whippany, N. J., tavern, police say. precinct? Mr. Hendrix said he and Mr. Allen were planning to ask County Elections Chairman Jerry Rogers this week to arrange a conference with the election board members to discuss the matter.

The full text of the letter follows: To the Governor, State Board of Elections, County Board of Elections, and any other person or persons concerned:

There is a community annexed under the Haywood County Community Development Program known as Allens Creek Community. This community has been recognized as the Allens Creek Community for a number of years. It is approximately five miles long and one mile wide, embracing the

Miss Farmer Dies Today At 93

Miss Harriet Roman, Farmer, 93, died at the home of a nephew, Fred Farmer, on Allens Creek early this morning after an extended illness.

Miss Farmer was daughter of Daniel and Nancy Roman. She was born in 1856. She was a member of the Methodist church and a native of the state. She was married to Fred Farmer, who died in 1912.

Funeral services will be held in the Allens Creek Branch Baptist church at 10 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Rev. C. L. Allen will officiate. Interment will be in the Green Hill cemetery.

Surviving in addition to Mr. Farmer with whom she lived for the past ten years, are a number of nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are under the direction of Garrett Funeral Home.

Death Claims Mrs. Sitton At 95

Mrs. Emmaline Jones Sitton, 95, native of Fannin County, Ga., died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Victoria Mills, Tuesday night after an extended illness.

Funeral services will be held in the Allens Creek Branch Baptist church at 10 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Rev. C. L. Allen will officiate. Interment will be in the Green Hill cemetery.

Surviving in addition to the widow are three daughters, Mrs. Emma Brockley and Mrs. Fannie Brockley, both of Jackson County, and Mrs. Victoria Mills of Waynesville. Her son, Bradley Sitton of Waynesville, and a number of grandchildren.

The body will be returned to the home of Mr. Mills Thursday morning and remain there until the time of the burial.

The Crawford Funeral Home is in charge.

Arrangements are under the direction of Garrett Funeral Home.

PRICE INFANT

MORE ABOUT C. R. Brown

Surviving in addition to the widow are three daughters, Charlotte, Jane and Bonarose Brown, of the home; the step-mother, Mrs. Flora Brown of Greenville; two sisters, Mrs. Bruce Knowling of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Mary Catherine Brown of Greenville; and a brother, Baylor Brown, also of Greenville.

Crawford Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements here.

Function of Tursten Keen-edged tools, capable of cutting and shaping the hardest steel hold their edge at high speeds because of the tungsten in them.

Tooth Cleanser An apple for dessert in the school child's lunch is a most effective tooth cleanser and breath sweetener.

Pilgrims Succumbed Of the 102 people who went to America on the "Mayflower" only 49 were alive eight months later, which rather explodes the "hardy pilgrims" story.

Ironing Table Cloths When ironing a table cloth, to avoid many folds, double it only once lengthwise. Roll the finished cloth on a large roll of cardboard or paper.
