D.A.R. Chapter Has Christmas Program

A Christmas program arranged by Mrs. Frank Kinsey, chairman of American Music, was presented at the December meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The meeting was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martha Stringfield with Mrs. Ernest Hyatt as co-hostess.

The program included a group of readings by Mrs. O. V. Barker and two solos by Mrs. James Edward Way. Mrs. Barker presented "Christmastide," "Echoes From Bethlehem," and "The Christmas Tree" and Mrs. Way sang "Holy Night" and "Homing" Mrs. Way was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Stretcher.

During the business hour with Mrs. J. W. Killian, regent, presiding plans were made for meeting the chapter's quota for the building fund for the addition to Memorial Hall in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. R. N. Barber, chairman of genealogical records, reported additional records sent to National headquarters; and Mrs. H. C. Marshall, registrar, reported the transfer of papers of Mrs. Hugh Leach from Hartman, Tennessee.

Mrs. James Boyd made a report on the Christmas card sale and Mrs. J. Harden Howell, senior president of the Children of the American Revolution, made a report for that group.

During the social hour the hostesses were assisted by Miss Stringfield's mother, Mrs. Sam Stringfield, in serving. Special guests were Mrs. Way, Mrs. Stretcher, Mrs. Lulu Uzzel, and Mrs. C. N. Clark.

Mrs. Plott Gives Party For Her Husband

Broadcloth And Mink

Navy blue with fur trim.

By VERA WINSTON

THIS YEAR'S crop of winter coats is particularly good, with something worthwhile available for almost every taste and price level. Mutation mink and navy broadcloth combines for a really handsome town coat. The fur collar is on the front of the bolero which ends at the side seams to emphasize the bloused back, a detail that marks many of the newest coats. The straight skirt is relieved in front by a few gathers at either side of the waist.

Crisp-Wilson Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor Wilson of Waynesville, route 1, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Wilma Wilson, to Vernon G. Crisp, son of Mrs. Zeb Crisp and the late Mr. Crisp of Bryson City.

The ceremony took place at the home of the Rev. S. L. Stephens in Waynesville on Wednesday, November 20, at 7:00 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Mr. Stephens pronounced the vows.

The bride wore her wedding a navy blue suit with grey accessories. A small group of close friends and relatives attended.

Miss Crisp attended the Waynesville Township High School and Mr. Crisp attended Proctor High School. He now holds a position with the State Highway and Public Works Commission.

The couple will reside at the Reeves Apartment on Depot Street.

Pat Yourself On The Back To Stay Sane

CHICAGO (AP)—To help prevent mental illness, try to build up whatever is best in your personality. This is the advice of Mrs. Helen Thomson, a psychiatric social worker in an article in Hygeia magazine. Most people spend too much time mulling over their own weaknesses and shortcomings, she says. "To safeguard our mental health we need to get turned around the other way. We need to focus on what's best in ourselves. That is the road to emotional health."

The Famous Toe Holed

BERWYN, Md.—(AP)—Earl L. Wells, 21, went hunting for squirrels but shot a piggy instead—the big one on his right foot. He managed to hobble home and call a doctor.

The Friendship Class of the First Baptist Church, which is composed of young women and matrons of the Sunday School entertained with a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Frank Frye on the Balsam Road Friday night. Miss Edna Bright was co-hostess.

The residence was arranged throughout with Christmas decorations and the coffee table was centered with a miniature Christmas tree. Red candles were used in the rooms. Mrs. J. L. Edwards, president of the class, and Miss Marianna Phillips, teacher, presided at the table.

A brief business session was held followed by the features of the evening, which included an exchange of gifts between the members.

Around thirty attended the party.

Sorority Expects Large Crowd To Hear Gene Kruppa

Members of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority are expecting a record-breaking crowd at the Christmas Dance which they are sponsoring on December 23, at the Waynesville Armory.

These expectations are based on the fact that the sorority has secured one of the nationally known orchestras to furnish music. Gene Kruppa, accompanied by his orchestra, featuring Bill Black and Francis Leason, soloists, will make the dance an outstanding event of the holiday season.

Mrs. Herbert Heaton, president of the sorority, is serving as general chairman for the event and Mrs. Sebe Bryson, Mrs. William Cobb, Mrs. William Duvier, Mrs. Herbert Gibson, and Mr. Edwin Russell are in charge of publicity. Miss Edna Summerrow is chairman of the ticket sales which are being sold at the home of Mrs. Heaton.

Proceeds obtained from the dance will be used for projects.
