Miss Helen Franklin Is Wed To Ernest T. Newell

Miss Helen Bryson Franklin, daughter of Mrs. Edith Bryson Franklin of Washington, N. C., and A. J. Franklin, Jr. of Bryson City, was married to Ernest Tittle Newell, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Owen Newell of Clyde, Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Duke University Chapel, Durham.

Mr. Newell, father of the bridegroom, officiated. The church was decorated with woodwardia ferns, candles and baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Paddy Ann Wilson, vocalist and Mrs. Mildred L. Hendrix, organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Andrew J. Franklin III, wore a gown of candle-light satin made with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar and full skirt with court train. Her veil of bridal illusion was attached to a luted coronet, and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias centered with white camellias.

Miss Amy Franklin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of turquoise satin made with fitted bodice and marquisette over-skirt. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses showered with stevia.

Miss Mary Bryson and Mrs. William C. Clark, Jr., cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns like that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of talisman roses showered with stevia.

Laethlan L. Campbell served as best man, and ushers were Ernest Schnoor, Joseph Conroy, Lucy Stallings and John Vogel.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Duke Chapel choir room. The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of powder blue with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of plum color with a corsage of gardenias.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. They will reside in Durham. For traveling the bride wore a green wool dress with gray coat and black accessories. Her corsage was of white camellias.

Mrs. Newell attended Duke University where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority, and she is a graduate of Duke University School of Nursing. Mr. Newell was graduated from Duke and was a member of Phi Kappa Phi social fraternity. He is now a senior in the Duke University School of Medicine and will intern in surgery at Duke Hospital in July.
