Budapest Waiters Halt Acceptance of Tips

BUDAPEST, (AP)—In the eating industry in Hungary there are still some restaurants where the waiters accept tips.

The Catering Industry Workers' trade union, which has long been fighting against the practice, decided to put an end to this "absurd situation." A poster will be placed on the wall of every Budapest hotel and restaurant asking the public not to insult the workers by giving tips. The resolution provides for a strict control.

GOOSE FOR DINNER

BALCOLM, Ill. (UP)—When Dan Walker returned home empty handed from a goose hunting trip, his wife had a big fat goose in the oven. She explained that the bird had flown through the windshield while she was driving on the highway.

Yule Charm Tips

When shopping for last-minute glamor gifts for family and friends, give something appropriate. Don't take just any old thing because time is getting short. You can make wise selections by making a list of things you want for each person on your list. You'll find it is simpler to shop when you know what you want. Here are some suggestions:

FOR GRANNY . . . Just because she's a grandmother don't think she won't adore a beautiful compact that she can fill with her favorite powder. Or how about a travel case filled with creams and lotions to perk up her weary face after a long bath sets containing scented soaps and toiletries are other top-of-the-line favorites. A good hair brush and comb always is welcome. She'll be packed in a knitting box offers double appeal.

FOR MOM . . . You can splurge on her. She'll adore a gift certificate to a beauty salon, a vitalizer machine for beauty massages, a home permanent wave, perfume in special bottles, cologne, special beauty kits containing favorite cosmetics or a compact with jewel trim—perfect for evenings out with Pa.

FOR BIG SIS . . . Sachet pillows for lingerie and sachet hangers for special dresses will make a big hit with Sis. A box-office beauty kit in a compact carry-all for make-up at home, office or on the campus, a wallet containing a lipstick and compact, a nosegay of violets cut-ting "our" lipsticks, a Christmas stocking containing everything for the bath from dusting powder to fluffy bath hair petal wafers are useful and practical. Budget priced are liquids which are painted over the lips to keep lipstick from smearing, lipstick with mirror attached, a pink tinted heart of soap with a bottle of perfume nestled atop it, manicure cutlery set containing cuticle seissors, nail file, tweezers and cuticle pusher—in a zippered case.

FOR TEEN-SIS . . . Start her off right with delicate colognes, perfumes and sachets, a debutante-type kit of makeup essentials, a set of various nail polishes and manicure essentials (a budget nail polish and lipstick combination comes with a round plastic base and a built-in finger rest). A fun compact is available with a horseshoe, wishbone or four-leaf clover motif, solid perfume in a bracelet compact to dangle from her wrist, a comb and brush set for her vanity table.

PRESIDENTIAL CHRISTMAS TREE . . . This was the annual community Christmas tree in Washington, D. C., as it blazed with light last year. President Truman, at his home in Independence, Mo., pushed a button to turn on this holiday brilliance by remote control. The White House shows dimly in the background, framed by the tree and huge Christmas candles.

Patient Who Lived Wins $1 Bet From Skeptic

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UP)—Lew Helperin of Philadelphia has a dollar bill worth framing for keeps. He won it because he lived.

Helperin was gravely ill with influenza in 1918 when he was a soldier at Fort Dix. N. J. Doctors gave up hope and, rather than deceive him, Dan McEvoy of St. Paul decided to go see his buddy and tell him it was "curtains."

Helperin bet McEvoy $1 that he would live.

He did and McEvoy paid off.

The first all-electric radio sets in which the storage battery was eliminated were developed nearly 25 years ago.

Bed-Ridden Woman Runs Business by Telephone

CLOQUET, Minn. (UP)—Helen Weston, bedridden for the past 20 years, runs several business enterprises from her bedside.

All of Cloquet's 2,500 telephone subscribers acquire greeting cards, magazines, cosmetics and eye-negatives on furnace-cleaning jobs from her.

Miss Weston hired two men to clean furnaces after a company she solicited that type of work for fell down on the job. When people continued to complain to her, she decided the only remedy was to organize her own cleaning crew.

Boiled grasshoppers are said to taste something like lobster.

THE TAP ROOM
ED'S GRILL

SCENTIBLE YULETIDE . . . Merry young fragrance in Yankee clover or violet scents are beautifully packaged in a dream house, sleigh or magic lantern for good gifts.

Merry Christmas

The season of glad cheer and good fellowship is with us once again — and everywhere we go we see as well as hear and feel this wonderful spirit! We see it in the gaily adorned shop windows . . . the colorfully lighted trees . . . and on the smiling faces of the people about us. We hear it in the well-wishing greetings of friend to friend . . . stranger to stranger . . . in the church bells resounding magnificently through our community. We feel it in our every activity—be it home or business. And we extend it also in our own sincere heartfelt wishes to you our friends and patrons—that this may be a truly memorable Christmas and a happy, happy New Year!
