

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN SOCIETY and CLUB ACTIVITIES

MRS. BEN SLOAN, Society Editor— Office Phone 700—Home Phone 462-J

Woman's Club Holds January Meeting

The Waynesville Woman's Club held its January meeting in the Assembly Room of the Presbyterian Church last Thursday afternoon with Miss Louise Ballard, vice president, in charge.

Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, chairman of music, presented Miss Florrie Patrick, student in the Waynesville High School, who played two piano numbers, "The Butterfly," and "Spring Showers."

Mrs. Raymond Lane, chairman of International Relations, had the program and discussed the formation of the State of Israel.

Reports were given on the annual Christmas tree, sponsored by the Club for underprivileged children, showing the event as a great success.

Mrs. Carl Mundy announced that members of the Brownie Troop at Central Elementary School, sponsored by the club, would attend the February meeting and exhibit their work.

Plans were also made for the annual silver tea to be held in February.

A social hour followed the meeting with Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., Miss Robina Miller, and Mrs. Edgar Good serving as hostesses.

Sorority Aids In Campaign For March Of Dimes

Members of the Alpha Theta Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority are doing their share in the March of Dimes Campaign for this area.

The sorority is sponsoring the annual Haywood County polo ball at the Waynesville Armory on January 27, and is in charge of two nightly collections at the Strand Theatre.

Music for the ball, which promises to be an outstanding event, will be furnished by Teddy Martin and his orchestra.

A special intermission feature will be a cloudburst of balloons, some of which will contain lucky numbers for prizes which have been donated by Waynesville merchants.

Cold drinks will be sold during the dance by the Boy Scouts and all profits will go to the Polio Fund.

Tickets are on sale at The First National Bank, Tut's, The Firestone Store, Curtis Drug Store, Waynesville Florist, The Ladye Fayre Beauty Shop, and Charlie's Place.

Bible Class Names Officers

New officers for the Alpha Omega Bible Club of the Waynesville High School were elected Friday morning to serve for the second semester.

They are: president, June Hundley; vice president, Phyllis Morrow; secretary, Edna Callahan; treasurer, Phyllis Noland; reporters, Nancy and Susie Stamey; and historian, Nancy Floyd.

Mrs. Robert K. Green and children, Leida Gail and Bob, Jr., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hampton, left Saturday for their home in Bridgeton, N. J. Mrs. Green is the former Miss Mary Helen Hampton.

Miss Wilson Is Bride Of J. T. Smathers

Miss Helen Louise Wilson, niece of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wilson of Canton, and J. Thomas Smathers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aney F. Smathers, also of Canton, were married Wednesday at 7 p. m. in a candlelight service in Morning Star Methodist church, Canton.

The Rev. Asmond Maxwell performed the ceremony in the presence of members of the families and close friends. The church was decorated with evergreens, baskets of white gladioli interspersed with fern and with candleabra holding white tapers.

J. B. Rhea, organist, and Jordan A. Neal, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Mr. Neal sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Mr. Rhea played "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "Indian Love Call" Prelude to Act Three from "Lohengrin" and "Leibstrum." He played "To a Wild Rose" during the ceremony.

The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, D. J. Wilson. She wore a mist-grey suit of gabardine. Her hat was of pink felt fashioned in off-the-face style with matching halo veil. Her accessories were pink and grey and she wore a white purple-throated orchid corsage.

The matron of honor and the bride's only attendant was Mrs. Carol Pless. She wore a teal blue gabardine suit with navy and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Hilliard Ray Smathers was best man for his brother, and ushers were J. D. Cooper and Robert V. Sheperd.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Mrs. Lane Medford, sister of the bride, presided in the dining room. She was assisted by Mrs. V. E. Wilson, Jr., and Mrs. Ellis Smathers.

The table, spread with a lace cloth, was decorated with silver and crystal bowls of white gladioli and fern and white candles in silver holders. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with lilies of the valley and a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Wilson, aunt of the bride, wore navy with red accessories and a corsage of red carnations. Mrs. Smathers, mother of the bridegroom, wore navy with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple left by motor for Florida and upon their return will be at home in The Clifton on Academy Street.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. L. O. Wilson and the late Mr. Wilson of Greenville, S. C. She attended Canton High School and business school in Asheville. She now is employed by The American Enka Corporation.

The bridegroom graduated from Canton High School and from the University of North Carolina where he majored in accounting. He is a veteran of World War II and served in the European theater. He now is employed by the Crane Company, Baltimore.

Jack Richeson of Martinsville, Virginia, spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. L. M. Richeson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hill and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Loudon, Tennessee, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Stringfield.

Mrs. Noland Is Hostess For Home Club

Mrs. Fred Noland was hostess for the January meeting of the Crabtree-Hyder Mountain Home Demonstration Club on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Glenn Palmer, newly elected president, presided.

During the business session project leaders for the year were elected as follows: home gardens, Mrs. L. O. Ferguson; home poultry, Mrs. Fred Noland; home management, Mrs. C. O. Newell; family life, Mrs. W. B. Davis and Mrs. Glenn Palmer; and clothing, Mrs. Marshall Kirkpatrick.

Committee chairmen were also named and include: community service, Mrs. C. O. Newell; health, Mrs. Marshall Kirkpatrick; citizenship, Mrs. F. L. Safford; education, Mrs. Fred Noland; recreation, Mrs. Lowery Ferguson; loan fund, Mrs. W. D. Davis; 4-H leaders, Mrs. Fred Noland.

Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, gave the demonstration and Mrs. Fred Noland gave a book report.

Plans were discussed for the February meeting which will be held with Mrs. Marshall Kirkpatrick.

Julia Ann Calhoun Is Hostess Of Birthday Party

Miss Julia Ann Calhoun was hostess of a party at her home Saturday evening, in celebration of her sixteenth birthday. She was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Fred Calhoun, and her sister, Miss Kathleen Calhoun.

The Valentine motif was observed in the party appointments and refreshments and various games were played during the evening.

The guests were Miss Ann Green, Miss Mary Crouser, Miss Carolyn Sayer, Miss Mary Kitehin, Miss Harriet Gibson, Miss Katherine Wilson, Miss Ann Comar Crawford, Miss Letitia Schenck, Miss Mary Michal, Miss Dora Lee Matney, and Miss Irene Wilson.

B. And P. W. Club To Hold Meeting

The Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club will meet at The Lodge, Tuesday, January 24, at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. M. G. Stamey will preside and the program will be presented by the International Relations Committee composed of Mrs. Edith Alley, Dr. Mary Michal, Mrs. Wilma Sease, and Mrs. Lawrence Clark.

Mrs. Raymond Lane will be the guest speaker and will discuss general world conditions.

Friendship Class Will Meet Tuesday

The Friendship Class of the First Baptist church will meet Tuesday, January 24, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ernest Edwards on Main Street.

Mrs. Juanita Rivers will be co-hostess.

Cove Creek Club To Meet Friday

Residents of Cove Creek will hold a Community Development Program meeting at 7 p. m. Friday at the Cove Creek church. Everyone is urged to attend.

Library Notes

MARGARET JOHNSTON
COUNTY LIBRARIAN

RECENT FICTION
Graves—Islands of Unwisdom.
Aldrich—Journey Into Christ-mas.
Lawrence—My Heart Shall Not Fear.
Schaefer—Shane.
Santee—Bubbling Spring.
Sabatini—Gamerster.
Barnes—Brief Gaudy Hour; a novel of Anne Boleyn.
Ogilvie—Rowan Head.
Hopson—Horse Thief Masquerade.
Chapman—Rogue's March.
Burman—Everywhere I Roam.
Guthrie—Way West.
Landon—Never Dies the Dream.
Stone—Passionate Journey.
Mason—Dardanelles Derelict; a Major North Story.
Kennedy—Peaceable Kingdom.

MYSTERIES
Knight—Bass Derby Murder.
Dryer—Fort Afrique.
Coxe—Lady Killer.
Du Bois—It's Raining Violence.
Stein—Coffin Corner.
Cumberland—Man Who Covered Mirrors.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ferguson of Clyde have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Anne Ferguson, above, to Wilton Harrison Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Daniel of Lynchburg, Va.

Mrs. League Has Birthday Party For Daughter

Mrs. C. C. League entertained with a children's party at her home on Pigeon Street last Wednesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Sara Jane League on the occasion of her fifth birthday.

She was assisted by Mrs. E. K. Herman.

Pastel shades of pink and blue were used in the decorations and party appointments. Pink and blue balloons were hung from the ceiling in the dining room and were later presented to the guests as favors. The table was centered with a birthday cake and places were marked with pink and blue candy baskets.

The guests were Mary Barber, Mary Mac Moore, Mary Linda Sloan, Charlotte Watkins, Carey Howell, Dottie Turner, Katharine Lantz, Mary Ellen Evans, Mary Otis Burgin, Ellen Freeman, Marietta Campbell, Anna Lane Rogers, Charlie Hendry, John Schell, Jimmy Medford, Bobby Walker, Eddy Weatherly, Edwin Davis, Harry Sullivan, Robert Underwood, Jr., Ronnie Timbes, Ernie Edwards, Dickie Braron, Jimmy Woodard, Lawson Summerrow, Blane Hawkins, and Billy Davis, Jr.

Skit Features Crabtree-ID FHA Meeting Friday

By PEGGY BRADSHAW
(Mountaineer Correspondent)

An entertaining skit, "Sally To The Rescue," featured last Friday's meeting of the Crabtree-Iron Duff Future Home Makers of America chapter.

Peggy Bradshaw, Helen Ferguson, Frances Bobby Smith, and Juanita Rathbone played the leading roles in the production.

Songs during the meeting were led by Club Songleader Doris James.

President Mattie Sue Medford opened the meeting by calling the members to order, and Maxine Medford followed with the devotion.

Crabtree P-TA Holds Meeting

The January meeting of the Crabtree-Iron Duff Parent Teacher Association was held in the High School auditorium last Thursday night with Glenn Noland, vice-president, presiding in the absence of James Kirkpatrick, president.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Guy Fulbright.

A film was shown on Educational Guidance for Parents and Teachers and was followed by a general discussion by the members.

John Schibor's room won the banner in the grade count.

Iron Duff Society Has Meeting

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Davis Chapel in Iron Duff met at the home of Mrs. J. Manson Medford on Thursday afternoon.

A program on the subject, "Take My Love," was given by the following members: Mrs. C. O. Newell, Mrs. Fred Safford, Mrs. V. R. Davis, Mrs. Cash Medford, Mrs. J. R. Caldwell, Mrs. F. C. Davis, Mrs. Grady Davis, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Creed Welch, and Mrs. Roy B. Medford.

A social hour followed the program and refreshments were served by the hostess.

MRS. ROGERS ATTENDS CLASSROOM TEACHERS COUNCIL

Mrs. Claude Rogers, state vice-president of the Classroom Teachers' Division of the North Carolina Educational Association, attended a council meeting of her division at N. C. E. A. headquarters in Raleigh on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Prevost left Friday for New York City where the former will attend the furniture market.

Maggie Home Club Meets With Mrs. Plott

The Maggie Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Henry with Mrs. Herbert Plott, new president, in charge.

Mrs. Plott and other officers of the club, Mrs. Jack Campbell, and Mrs. C. L. White, reported on the recent County Council and the members voted to participate in the campaign for membership in home demonstration clubs.

Two new members, Mrs. Glenn Campbell and Mrs. T. Wahlgren, were welcomed at this meeting.

Project leaders for the year were elected as follows: foods and nutrition, Mrs. Jim Plott; home garden, Mrs. Dave Plott; home dairy, Mrs. Ralph Campbell; food preservation, Mrs. Hobart White; house furnishings, Mrs. T. Wahlgren, Mrs. Dave Plott; family life, Mrs. C. L. White; home beautification, Mrs. Fred Henry, Mrs. Glenn Campbell, Mrs. Jack Campbell; clothing, Mrs. Herbert Plott, Mrs. Norman Caldwell; arts and crafts, Mrs. William Holston, Mrs. Herbert Plott. New committees include: community service, Mrs. C. L. White, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Fred Henry; health, Mrs. William Holston, Mrs. Glenn Campbell, Mrs. Herbert White; citizenship, Mrs. Jim Plott; recreation, Mrs. Dave Plott; and loan fund, Mrs. Jack Campbell.

Miss Margaret Johnston, county librarian, was a guest at the meeting and spoke on the services available from the County Library and the Bookmobile. She encouraged the members to read books from the new Home Demonstration Club approved list.

Mrs. C. L. White gave reports on "Cheaper by the Dozen," by Gilbreth and Carey; "New England Born," by Bassett; "Green Light," by Douglas; "Pappa Was A Preacher," by Porter; and "Farmer Takes A Wife," by Gould.

Mrs. Dave Plott reported on "Men of Abergama," by Fletcher.

A social hour followed the meeting.

Allens Creek To Hold Special Program

A special program will feature the Allens Creek Community Development Program meeting at the Allens Creek School at 7 p. m. Thursday.

The Rev. Kay Allen said in his announcement today that an invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Ralph Prevost has returned from New York where he attended the furniture market.

Ankle Length Evening Dress

Black velvet separates.

By VERA WINSTON.

EVENING DRESSES go to any length this season, allowing for variety, charm and interest. An ankle-length skirt and strapless top is the design of this one, a pretty black velvet model, nice for almost any evening occasion. The top is bordered with inter-lacing black lace and sequin embroidery, and the bodice is fitted in basque effect. The skirt is softly gathered all around.

The Yorks Are New Owners Of Florist Shop

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. York of the Pigeon Road have purchased the Waynesville Florist and Garden Shop, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith. The new owners took over the shop on January 14.

Mr. and Mrs. York are experienced flower and plant growers, having for many years operated the York Plant Farm.

The new florists will continue to handle a stock of cut flowers and plants and will add garden seeds and spray materials. They will also have flower and vegetable plants and bulbs grown at their own plant farm.

Carey Howell Celebrates 6th Birthday

Little Miss Carey Howell was hostess of a party at her home Sunday afternoon in celebration of her sixth birthday. She was assisted in entertaining by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harden Howell, Jr., her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harden Howell, Sr., and Miss Nancy Killian.

The party appointments were in the Valentine motif, refreshments were served at the dining table which was centered with a birthday cake and decorated with Valentine favors filled with candy.

Games were played and movies were made of the guests.

Among those invited were Betty Owen, Lynn Kilpatrick, Mary Barber, Helen Kirkpatrick, Marietta Campbell, Charlotte Watkins, Sara Jane League, LeRoy Roberson, Harris Prevost, Jack Prevost, Chip and Mike Killian, Jimmy Medford, Joe Cathey, Charles Hendry, and Harden Howell, III.

Marguerite Way Receives Degree From WC of UNC

Miss Marguerite Way, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Way, completed her work for a B. S. Degree in Home Economics, at the close of the first semester at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro last week. She will receive her diploma at graduation exercises in June.

Miss Way, who was graduated from St. Mary's Junior College in Raleigh before entering Woman's College, participated in many campus activities. She was a member of the Home Economics Club, the "Y" Club, the Chemistry Club, the Physics Club, and the Cornelian Society.

She arrived home on Sunday and will be with her parents for the rest of the winter.

Rector's Guild To Meet Tuesday

The Rectors' Guild of Grace Episcopal Church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Lilius, Tuesday night, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Henry Lee will be associate hostess.

Clyde 4-H Club Met Last Friday

The 4-H Club of the Clyde School met Friday afternoon for a short program.

The scripture reading was given by Pinky Haynes and others on the program were Asalie Farley, Joan Banks and Shirley Rathbone.

LAFF-A-DAY

"Why worry? Nobody's ever going to give ME eighteen apples and take away six."

PERSONAL

Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. Marley, and Mrs. Carl... Georgia. Mrs. Ray and Marley will be guests of Mrs. Huckabee and Mrs. Marley visit her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil... and Mrs. Ned Howell... weeks' vacation in Florida.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell of... spent the week end here... ant music director at the... High School.

NOW
One year guarantee on... sion watch repairing.

RELIABLE JEWELRY

ADEQUATE EQUIPMENT

... makes this plant... healthier, happier... Pharmacists have "know-how" to use tools, the integrity to low your doctor's orde

Your Walgreen Agent

CURTIS DRUG STORE

Home Owned & Operated

Phone 32

only $59.95 for the casual coat you'll live in all year

OUR Season Skipper* Ardmore two complete coats in one

What a practical, smart way to breeze through four seasons (with one coat! With this beautiful Season Skipper classic, you have a coat that's toasty-warm in fall or winter, and topcoat light in spring and summer. The patented all-wool lining buttons in or out, sleeves and all, to match the weather. Expertly hand-tailored by the same master craftsmen who make the famous Season Skipper men's coats. In fine 100% virgin wool gabardine, in fashion-favored colors. Don't miss this outstanding buy of the season.

The Toggery