

THE YOUNGER SET

By MILDRED MEDFORD
High School Senior

Calhoun certainly has the "younger set" rather it seems that way senior at WTHS, enjoying Canasta so much he wanted to organize a club to play with other members of the club and play Canasta. Each will rotate to one of the members of the club.

Thursday night, starting at the home of Vivian the members of the club will rotate to one of the members of the club.

the past week, Mr. Bowles presville High, has been a conference with each of the members of the club.

don't DO that!

DON'T BE A PIG... It isn't fair to deprive other shoppers of a selection while you try to make up your own mind.

The King's "mumps" have gone away by then.

I imagine that every one is going to the dance tomorrow night, by all the excitement that has been accumulating since the announcement of the dance.

The Beta Sigma Phi is sponsoring the dance, with Teddy Martin and his orchestra playing.

I know every one will have a wonderful time, since in the past it has been proved that everyone loves a Beta Sigma Phi Dance.

Others that participated in the contest were: Stanley Williamson, Darryll Cagle, Charles Paris, Eugene Davis, Bobby Thrower, Ted Rogers, Roy Callahan, Wilburn Duncan and Larry Callum.

These boys sure did some good work, and I don't believe that they could be beat.

More "slumber" parties and more sleep lost.

Everyone enjoyed themselves at Kathryn Hyatt's slumber party.

We did everything but sleep, and yet we can say that it was one of the best "slumber" parties that have ever kept us awake.

Ann Bishoff, another future photographer, took pictures. I bet they turn out to be pretty good, as she got the shots when everyone was unaware of her taking pictures.

This will be one "slumber" party that Mary Jane Rogers, Betty Hale, Alice Marie Burgin, Nancy Floyd, Elaine Francis, and Ann Bishoff will long remember.

H. R. CALDWELL ON CAMPUS NEWSPAPER

Hardy Caldwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Caldwell of Waynesville, has been named to the editorial staff of The Technician, campus newspaper at N. C. State College. He is a member of the Junior class.

Dr. Frank Graham Chosen As Outstanding Senator By Pearson

Months later, Donnell remarked to Morse: "Remember what you said about Frank Graham being the most Christlike man you know? Well, I share your opinion."

Whenever Senator Graham rises from a Senate desk that almost swallows him—he is the shortest man on the floor—Senators come back from the cloakrooms to listen. This is a tribute few men in Senate history have won. Frank Graham is not an orator, in the manner of dramatic Arthur Vandenberg. He speaks in a soft drawl, but he is able to put in simple words the great problems of the day, and point the way clearly to their answers.

After his Senate speech on the Atlantic Pact, Republican Sen. Charles Tobey, himself a vivid phrasemaker, remarked in awe: "Frank Graham's speech was the greatest I have ever heard in the Senate. The Senator has given us a pattern, not for my party or his party, but a pattern for America. I commend his state for having given him to us as a Senator."

After another Graham talk, Senator Vandenberg said thoughtfully, "I was profoundly impressed by his grasp of the subject."

Despite the praise showered on him, Frank Graham is still a modest, unassuming man with a great affection for people. He will spot a friend, a Senator, an elevator boy working his way through college, or a reporter, and trot up to him. "Hey, there," he will say, "got something to talk to you about."

Senator Graham is one of the most conscientious men in Washington, and a story is told of how President Roosevelt exploited this. Dr. Graham's University trustees had asked him to resign from the War Labor Board and give all his time to the University. Graham stayed up all night writing and re-writing his letter of resignation to the President.

When he arrived at the White House, Mr. Roosevelt, who had been tipped off, got in the first word. He said, "Frank, what would you think of a man who deserts his nation in time of war? I have a businessman here who wants to resign from the War Production Board and go back to his company."

Later, when Dr. Graham returned to his hotel, a friend asked, "well did you resign?"

Meekly, Graham drew from his pocket the rumpled but still unopened letter of resignation. (Copyright, Bell Syndicate.)

New Managers To Operate Soda Shop

Mrs. Bonner Ray and Mrs. F. H. Marley have taken over the management of the former Handy Soda Shop, next to the Park Theatre, and will start operation of a Coffee Shop, next Monday morning.

The soda shop has been operated by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Massie until this week when it was closed for remodeling.

Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Marley will serve home-cooked meals in addition to sandwiches and soft drinks.

N, O, P, Q Drivers Advised To Get Licenses Now

Motorists whose last names begin with N, O, P, or Q have until June 30 to renew their licenses. But they had better get it done now.

Many of the "M" drivers in the Waynesville area waited until the last minute to see about that.

And of course during the last week up to New Year's Eve the basement of the Court House looked like the front of the box office at the Yankee Stadium at the World Series.

Robert V. Hooper, examiner for the Highway Safety Division, announced his schedule today for examination at Waynesville, Sylva, Franklin, and Highlands.

He's at Waynesville in the Court House from 8:30 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. every Monday and Thursday, and the second, fourth, and fifth Tuesdays of each month.

The rest of his schedule is as follows, with the same hours as those at Waynesville:

Sylva—Every Friday.

Highlands—First and third Tuesdays of each month.

Franklin—Every Wednesday.

He urges that drivers whose last names begin with N, O, P, or Q clip the schedule and report to the station nearest to them at their earliest convenience.

W. Pigeon Folks Discuss New Road Chances

By MRS. HOWARD H. SMATHERS
Mountaineer Correspondent

More than 100 residents of West Pigeon Community discussed the possibilities of a new West Pigeon road when they held a Community Development Program meeting recently.

With Jack Sloan, the retiring community chairman presiding, George Stamey of the roads committee explained to the audience how the state plans to build new roads and what the state expects of the community residents.

The round-table discussion followed this explanation.

Hominy Re-Elects All Incumbent CDP Officers

Looking back on a year of great progress in the Community Development Program, the residents of Hominy Creek this week decided to keep the same leaders they elected last winter when they organized.

The Hominy folks, jamming the meeting hall to the rafters, re-elected: Hershel Hipps as chairman; Fred Mann as vice-chairman; Mrs. Gobel McCracken as secretary; Mrs. Robert Holland, treasurer; and Porter Broyles, reporter.

After expressing satisfaction over the improvements accomplished in 1949, Chairman Hipps turned to the year ahead, and urged his neighbors to improve on the improvements.
