

Student of the Week

Other outstanding student of the Waynesville High School is Jimmie Swift, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Swift.

He started leading an active life when he entered the seventh grade five years ago. He is now a senior and still going full speed in his many activities.

He was still in Junior when he entered the U. D. C. and played a trombone in the band and won the American Citizenship Award.

In the past several years he has been drum major of the Junior and of the Senior band two years. He has played the trombone in the Senior band since the 9th grade. He is a member of the Student Council and of the Music Council and of the Student Council this year. He is president of his class.

He was elected treasurer of the Ho Club as a sophomore.

Jimmie is a member of the First Presbyterian Church and an active member of the Young Peoples League for reading, which is one of his favorite pastimes, he chooses the Post, the Reader's Digest, plus the many books from the library. He also likes to hunt, dance and go to the movies.

When he was asked what he was interested in, he replied, "I would not let his ambition be beat but we are going to be proud of Jimmie when all of his plans are complete."

U. Crabtree 4-H Club Organized; Officers Named

By EVELYN McCracken
Mountaineer Correspondent

The members of the Upper Crabtree Community 4-H Club elected their officers last Saturday during a business meeting.

Lillie Jane Sanford was named president, Eddie Hill, vice-president; Jewel Dee Ferguson, secretary and treasurer; Ralph Elkins, song leader; Barbara Best, Gertrude Frady, and Valerie Henderson, group captains; and Hilda Best, recreational leader.

In other business, the members chose the title "Busy Bee" for the name of their club, and decided to hold their next meeting on February 14.

Charles McCrary Elected Fines Ck. CD Chairman

By MRS. FURMAN NOLAND
Mountaineer Correspondent

Charles B. McCrary, past president of the Haywood County Farm Bureau, was elected chairman of the Fines Creek Community Development Program last Friday when a large group of the citizens of the community named their new officers.

Mr. McCrary succeeds Charles Duckett as leader of the Fines Creek program.

Mrs. Vance Holbrook was elected vice-president; Mrs. Stephen Verasko, secretary; Marion Kirkpatrick, re-elected treasurer; and Mrs. Betty Seay, elected reporter.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Marion Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Stonewall Rathbone.

Fines Creek residents will hold their next Community Development Program meeting at 7:30 P. M. Friday at the Fines Creek School.

Chairman McCrary urges everyone to attend this meeting and help make plans to improve our community.

THE YOUNGER SET

Teachers are lucky, don't you think?

I "thought" they were. But after thinking the situation over a little bit, I began to wonder . . . If they weren't just guinea pigs for the Home Economics students that are trying to learn to cook.

For the past several weeks at Waynesville High, Home Economics students have been preparing and serving the teachers, either their breakfast or their lunch.

Some of the students had never cooked before, and others were old hands at it, but never-the-less they cooked and their guest teachers thought that it was pretty good.

Usually there were four girls in a cooking group. Two or three would eat with the teachers, while the other served and acted as a waitress.

Maybe you think that it was the three girls that ate with the guest that was nervous—but it wasn't, it was the waitress. Ask Laura Woody, she was the waitress one day when Mr. Bowles and Mrs. Richeson were the guests.

She was so nervous that she wiped the silverware with an apron rather than the tea towel.

Anyway Laura, you did a swell job and we are very proud of you.

I enjoyed watching the expression on the boys' and girls' faces from the Bethel sixth grade as they were shown through The Mountaineer plant last week.

were all ears and eyes, and they remained that way until they walked out the front door.

When Max Shepherd was watching the linotype machine work, he exclaimed, "Gosh! It would take you a lifetime to learn to work that machine."

All one little boy, with freckles across his nose, could say when they gave him a slug with his name, James Mease, on it was, "Boy, it's nice."

Another Tally-Ho Club Party! And another one good time for the members of the club and their guests.

The club will have its party in the American Legion Club Room, Saturday night, and there will be plenty to eat and certainly enough room to dance to your heart's content.

The members of the club will either make something to eat (candy, cookies, cup cakes, etc.) or bring something to go into the punch.

We must admit, they sure know how to keep their budget down.

I know everyone will have "oodles" of fun, including Miss Jackson, the advisor.

"It's smart to MIND YOUR MANNERS."

When a girl sees those words she will stop everything to read what it says. Or at least I do. Maybe you do too, and would also like to know what was read under those very words.

"On what finger and which hand is a girl supposed to wear her school ring?"

Maybe you already know, but still wondering whether you are right or not. Well, this is what it said.

There's really no hard and fast rule on this, but a girl usually wears her school ring on the third finger of the right hand. She keeps the left hand free of jewelry until the day that all-important solitaire is slipped on the third finger.

Yes, the student council at W.T.H.S. is proving that it is worth something. Both to the students as individuals and to the school as a whole.

James Whitman, president, reported the other day that they had already gone as far as a letter—to ask Dr. L. Nelson Bell if he would speak to the student body of the school.

A lot of the young people heard Dr. Bell at the First Presbyterian Church and thought that he was just great. They wanted to hear him again, and to give others the same opportunity.

We are keeping our fingers crossed, James, hoping that he will come to our school.

Patsy Rogers On Dean's List At Mars Hill

Miss Patsy Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rogers, Church Street, Hazelwood, has been placed on the Dean's List at Mars Hill College for the first semester. To be eligible for a place on the Dean's List a student must have earned forty quality credits, with no grade below 'C'. Miss Rogers is a freshman at the college.

TAX TIPS

A SINGLE-INCOME couple can't lose and may gain by making a joint return. Husband and wife are both liable for the tax under a joint return.
