

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

65th YEAR NO. 13 12 PAGES Associated Press and United Press News WAYNESVILLE, N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, FEB. 13, 1950 $3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

TODAY'S SMILE
"These pictures don't do me justice."
"Lady, you don't want justice. You want mercy."

Sidelights Of The News

For Cowboys

all cowboys, calling all Saturday night, the police assume the role of cowboys, a cow out of traffic. animal had broken loose, dived into town. She was a long chain, which was to traffic, and dangerous own neck. report—animal rescued, no

Life In Old Boy Yet

may be old in years. But I got the energy of a young man—and the appetite of a young man. The combination of youthful energy supported by the wisdom of the elder make him still a tough customer for rats, and other cats who might disclose tendencies. who lives with Mr. and Mrs. Fancher, is better than old. That's equal to more years in a human. His is unknown, but, to use the dignified term, he's a white American shorter, he didn't go on his automobile ride until November when the Fanchers took on their Lynbrook, Long Y. home to Waynesville, first year, he said, he almost continuously. But at he just shrugged his shoulders, decided there wasn't he could do about it, and get most of the way.

the Fanchers can't keep the car when they start to drive. using the discretion that with the years, doesn't go looking for fights. But he dodges any either when lions fall to reach an amittlement of an issue. And he's acquired only one show for his experience's own species. That one out from being bitten in by another cat.

very judicious regarding, and hunts and destroys natural enemy wherever he found around the house or mediate neighborhood. Just Christmas he was wounded line of duty when a large him behind an ear. But a penicillin fixed him up.

experience, however, did to dampen his ardor in his of the enemy. Shrugging wound after a brief period respite, he went right work, prowling the likely and recesses where a rat he might be seeking refuge.

will become attentive imly when he hears a car up the driveway. Some'll relax again and go his business. Other times he to the front door. When that, you know either Mr. Fancher or both have at someone to let him into use himself, he doesn't and whine at the door like cats. He hauls off and on it until he gets some. Or he'll come down the d pound on a window.

rather startling to hear on d stormy nights. There's a g on the door. You get up at it and there's nobody ut a big and white cat star- on solemnly. It's one of things that adds a little to the humdrum routine of

ing. a man pushes toward the e Sidelights—Page 6)

the humdrum routine of ing. a man pushes toward the e Sidelights—Page 6)

To Methodist Leaders Writing Book At Lake

Elmer T. Clark, editor of Outlook, Methodist monthly, York is now at his home Junaluska. He was accompanied by Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Mabel Clark, one of his secretaries, shop Ivan Lee Holt, president of the Council of Bishops of Methodist Church. Clark and Bishop Holt will rate in writing a book on all Methodist churches of the world. The volume will be presented at the ecumenical Methodist conference to be held at Oxford, England, the summer of 1951. Dr. Clark and Bishop Holt are also the executive secretary and chairman, respectively, of a directing committee working with the A. N. Marquis Company of Chicago in the preparation of a Who's Who In Methodism. The volume, which is sponsored by the historical societies of America, as well as International Methodism, will list more than 50,000 ministers and laymen in positions of church leadership.

Power To Be Off 4 Hours Sunday

Plans now are to have a power cut-off from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, as linemen switch the 22,000-volt lines of Carolina Power & Light Company over to the new 66,000-volt lines. The cut-off will affect Lake Junaluska, REA, Waynesville, Hazelwood and Balsam, according to Harry Burleson, local manager of the power company.

CLLOUDY
February 13—Cloudy, and slightly warmer.
Waynesville temperature recorded by the staff of the Test Farm:

Max.	Min.	Rainfall
53	40	.30
56	48	.07
63	36
57	30

Police Arrest 3 For Attempted Robbery

The arrests of three men in the last seven days apparently has solved the case of the series of four break-ins and attempted break-ins in the Waynesville area recently.

Bryan Medford Is Asking Re-Election As Register Deeds

Bryan Medford today formally announced he would seek the Democratic nomination and re-election as Register of Deeds of Haywood County.

Rotarians Told Of Cataloochee History By Woody

Jonathan Woody turned back the pages of history for Rotarians here Friday.

MRS. WARD AT MISSION HOSPITAL

Mrs. Hallett Ward is a patient at Mission Hospital, Asheville, where she underwent an operation last Thursday.

New Building Slated For Calvary Baptist, Canton

This is the architect's sketch of the proposed new church and educational building of the Calvary Baptist church in Canton. Work is slated to begin early this spring, according to Rev. Ben L. Ray, pastor. Estimates are that the church will cost about $125,000. The educational plant will be built later. The new plant will be on a lot across the street from the present church. The congregation recently completed a $23,000 parsonage. The church auditorium will seat about 600, and the educational plant will accommodate 900, according to the specifications as prepared by Brackett & Brackett, architects, of Asheville. The building committee of the church is composed of Fred Fore, chairman, A. L. Sutton, Oscar Stamey, and Nute Cole.

Power To Be Off 4 Hours Sunday

Plans now are to have a power cut-off from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, as linemen switch the 22,000-volt lines of Carolina Power & Light Company over to the new 66,000-volt lines. The cut-off will affect Lake Junaluska, REA, Waynesville, Hazelwood and Balsam, according to Harry Burleson, local manager of the power company.

Haywood County Goes Over Quota In Annual Polio Drive

Haywood county went over the top in its "overtime" 1950 March of Dimes campaign. Waynesville area Drive Director Felix Stovall reported this morning that the campaign account here showed $8,097.60.

County Buildings Given Okay By Grand Jury Study

The Haywood county grand jury today gave the county's institutions and property a generally clean bill of health, though recommended repairs and improvements to several schools.

500-Gallon Copper Still Captured

Haywood County law enforcement officers shortly after noon last Friday swooped down on a moonshine factory going full blast between Big Bend and Big Creek.

The still, a 500-gallon beauty, was taken only 100 yards from the place where Haywood officers last January 13 grabbed the 600-gallon liquor factory which was the largest ever found in the county.

Navy Officer Here Honored For War Service

William Henry Lee, of Waynesville, retired U. S. Navy officer, recently was awarded an additional Navy Cross and advanced on the retired list from commander to the rank of captain for anti-submarine service in World War I.

Merchants To Discuss Closing Hours Tonight

The Waynesville Merchants Association will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the little court room of the Haywood County Court House to discuss store closing hours for the spring and summer.

White To Manage Cherokee Drama; Sink The Publicity

Carol E. White was named general manager, E. Carl Sink publicity director, and final organizational plans were made here for the July 1 opening of "Unto These Hills, a Drama of the Cherokees," at nearby Cherokee Village.

John M. Queen Heard By Bethel Democrats

John M. Queen addressed a group of Young Democrats at Bethel Saturday night, as part of the campaign now underway in the county as sponsored by the Young Democrats of Haywood.

Seeking More Business For Tourist Place Hembree Builds A Fish Pond For Farm Guests

A long time ago W. H. Hembree, of Allens Creek, heard the story of the man who built a better mouse trap, and the world made a path to his door.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date)

Killed 2
Injured 8
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)

Is A Candidate

Charles C. Francis this morning announced he was a candidate for the office of chairman of the board of Commissioners.

Charles C. Francis, well known Ratcliffe Cove farmer, church worker, and community leader, this morning announced he was a candidate for the nomination as chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

County Buildings Given Okay By Grand Jury Study

The Haywood county grand jury today gave the county's institutions and property a generally clean bill of health, though recommended repairs and improvements to several schools.

Merchants To Discuss Closing Hours Tonight

The Waynesville Merchants Association will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the little court room of the Haywood County Court House to discuss store closing hours for the spring and summer.

White To Manage Cherokee Drama; Sink The Publicity

Carol E. White was named general manager, E. Carl Sink publicity director, and final organizational plans were made here for the July 1 opening of "Unto These Hills, a Drama of the Cherokees," at nearby Cherokee Village.

John M. Queen Heard By Bethel Democrats

John M. Queen addressed a group of Young Democrats at Bethel Saturday night, as part of the campaign now underway in the county as sponsored by the Young Democrats of Haywood.

Seeking More Business For Tourist Place Hembree Builds A Fish Pond For Farm Guests

A long time ago W. H. Hembree, of Allens Creek, heard the story of the man who built a better mouse trap, and the world made a path to his door.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date)

Killed 2
Injured 8
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)

Board Establishes 2 New Voting Precincts

The Haywood County Board of Elections in a busy session Saturday morning voted to authorize the checking of the petitions for a county-wide election on beer and wine sales and decided to establish two new voting precincts.

South Ward And Fines Creek Precincts Divided

The board members in the other action voted to create the two new precincts by splitting the present Waynesville South Ward and the Fines Creek section.

7,963 Registered Motor Vehicles In Haywood County

Haywood county is slightly short 8,000 registered motor vehicles, according to the official statement of the North Carolina Motor Bureau. The exact figure, according to the department's records, is 7,963.

Red Cross Official Praises Lions Club Blood Work

The Waynesville Lions Club last week drew the official praise of the American Red Cross Asheville Regional Blood Center for their efforts in connection with last month's highly successful blood donor program.

Oral L. Yates Is Candidate for H. of Representatives

Oral L. Yates, iron Duff farmer, and civic leader, this morning formally announced he was a candidate for the nomination as House of Representative in the Democratic primary.

Grover C. Davis Will Not Run For House Post Again

Grover C. Davis will not seek re-election as a member of the General Assembly. This decision was reached this week-end by Mr. Davis, who represented Haywood in the 1949 House.

John M. Queen Heard By Bethel Democrats

John M. Queen addressed a group of Young Democrats at Bethel Saturday night, as part of the campaign now underway in the county as sponsored by the Young Democrats of Haywood.

Seeking More Business For Tourist Place Hembree Builds A Fish Pond For Farm Guests

A long time ago W. H. Hembree, of Allens Creek, heard the story of the man who built a better mouse trap, and the world made a path to his door.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date)

Killed 2
Injured 8
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)

Board Establishes 2 New Voting Precincts

The Haywood County Board of Elections in a busy session Saturday morning voted to authorize the checking of the petitions for a county-wide election on beer and wine sales and decided to establish two new voting precincts.

South Ward And Fines Creek Precincts Divided

The board members in the other action voted to create the two new precincts by splitting the present Waynesville South Ward and the Fines Creek section.

7,963 Registered Motor Vehicles In Haywood County

Haywood county is slightly short 8,000 registered motor vehicles, according to the official statement of the North Carolina Motor Bureau. The exact figure, according to the department's records, is 7,963.

Red Cross Official Praises Lions Club Blood Work

The Waynesville Lions Club last week drew the official praise of the American Red Cross Asheville Regional Blood Center for their efforts in connection with last month's highly successful blood donor program.

Oral L. Yates Is Candidate for H. of Representatives

Oral L. Yates, iron Duff farmer, and civic leader, this morning formally announced he was a candidate for the nomination as House of Representative in the Democratic primary.

Grover C. Davis Will Not Run For House Post Again

Grover C. Davis will not seek re-election as a member of the General Assembly. This decision was reached this week-end by Mr. Davis, who represented Haywood in the 1949 House.

John M. Queen Heard By Bethel Democrats

John M. Queen addressed a group of Young Democrats at Bethel Saturday night, as part of the campaign now underway in the county as sponsored by the Young Democrats of Haywood.

Seeking More Business For Tourist Place Hembree Builds A Fish Pond For Farm Guests

A long time ago W. H. Hembree, of Allens Creek, heard the story of the man who built a better mouse trap, and the world made a path to his door.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date)

Killed 2
Injured 8
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)

Board Establishes 2 New Voting Precincts

The Haywood County Board of Elections in a busy session Saturday morning voted to authorize the checking of the petitions for a county-wide election on beer and wine sales and decided to establish two new voting precincts.

South Ward And Fines Creek Precincts Divided

The board members in the other action voted to create the two new precincts by splitting the present Waynesville South Ward and the Fines Creek section.

7,963 Registered Motor Vehicles In Haywood County

Haywood county is slightly short 8,000 registered motor vehicles, according to the official statement of the North Carolina Motor Bureau. The exact figure, according to the department's records, is 7,963.

Red Cross Official Praises Lions Club Blood Work

The Waynesville Lions Club last week drew the official praise of the American Red Cross Asheville Regional Blood Center for their efforts in connection with last month's highly successful blood donor program.

Oral L. Yates Is Candidate for H. of Representatives

Oral L. Yates, iron Duff farmer, and civic leader, this morning formally announced he was a candidate for the nomination as House of Representative in the Democratic primary.

Grover C. Davis Will Not Run For House Post Again

Grover C. Davis will not seek re-election as a member of the General Assembly. This decision was reached this week-end by Mr. Davis, who represented Haywood in the 1949 House.

John M. Queen Heard By Bethel Democrats

John M. Queen addressed a group of Young Democrats at Bethel Saturday night, as part of the campaign now underway in the county as sponsored by the Young Democrats of Haywood.

Seeking More Business For Tourist Place Hembree Builds A Fish Pond For Farm Guests

A long time ago W. H. Hembree, of Allens Creek, heard the story of the man who built a better mouse trap, and the world made a path to his door.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date)

Killed 2
Injured 8
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)

Board Establishes 2 New Voting Precincts

The Haywood County Board of Elections in a busy session Saturday morning voted to authorize the checking of the petitions for a county-wide election on beer and wine sales and decided to establish two new voting precincts.

South Ward And Fines Creek Precincts Divided

The board members in the other action voted to create the two new precincts by splitting the present Waynesville South Ward and the Fines Creek section.

7,963 Registered Motor Vehicles In Haywood County

Haywood county is slightly short 8,000 registered motor vehicles, according to the official statement of the North Carolina Motor Bureau. The exact figure, according to the department's records, is 7,963.

Red Cross Official Praises Lions Club Blood Work

The Waynesville Lions Club last week drew the official praise of the American Red Cross Asheville Regional Blood Center for their efforts in connection with last month's highly successful blood donor program.

Oral L. Yates Is Candidate for H. of Representatives

Oral L. Yates, iron Duff farmer, and civic leader, this morning formally announced he was a candidate for the nomination as House of Representative in the Democratic primary.

Grover C. Davis Will Not Run For House Post Again

Grover C. Davis will not seek re-election as a member of the General Assembly. This decision was reached this week-end by Mr. Davis, who represented Haywood in the 1949 House.

John M. Queen Heard By Bethel Democrats

John M. Queen addressed a group of Young Democrats at Bethel Saturday night, as part of the campaign now underway in the county as sponsored by the Young Democrats of Haywood.

Seeking More Business For Tourist Place Hembree Builds A Fish Pond For Farm Guests

A long time ago W. H. Hembree, of Allens Creek, heard the story of the man who built a better mouse trap, and the world made a path to his door.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date)

Killed 2
Injured 8
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)