

PERSONALS

Lucille Cathey of Greensboro expected tomorrow to spend the week end with her mother, Mrs. A. Cathey, in Clyde.

Hugh Moody, who is connected with the Sanitation Department in Murphy, spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Moody.

William Lingo of Knoxville, Tennessee spent the week end with his wife and sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. Howell.

Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Roberts and baby of Webster are spending this week with Rev. and Mrs. Belk at their home on the Creek.

Rev. A. E. Belk of Jonathan and the Rev. Bruce Roberts made a business trip to Cary this week.

Mrs. David Felmet are spending a few days this week in Lexington, Kentucky.

William Lingo and child, Betty Ann and Billie Lingo, of Washington were guests of Miss Mary Gladys Lingo is the former Mary Ziebell of Waynesville worker in the Free Methodist church.

J. E. Yountz returned to the Academy Street Tuesday spending a week with Mr. R. J. Lookabill, who is ill at his home in Lexington.

Robert Turner returned from Elkin where she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Turner. She was accompanied by her small daughter, Kay Turner, who has been her grandparents for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Kenneth Stahl and Mrs. Stahl's mother, Mrs. Leatherwood, have returned to visit to Clearwater and Dunedin, Florida.

Home Club Meets With Mrs. Cuddeback

Mrs. John Cuddeback was hostess for the Waynesville Homemakers Club at its February meeting held Tuesday night. Mrs. Jimmie Williams, president was in charge of the meeting and Mrs. Lawrence Leatherwood gave the devotional. Plans were made for an Aluminum Tray Workshop to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick in March. Mrs. Lawrence Leatherwood and Mrs. Johnnie Cuddeback, who attended a leadership school on aluminum work this week, will direct the workshop. A demonstration on Making Lamp Shades was given by Miss Mary Cornwell.

Poles Haven't Moved, Scientist Contends

BERKLEY, Cal. (UP)—Contrary to popular belief, neither the poles nor the continents have shifted position during the past 50,000,000 years, according to research by a University of California scientist.

Dr. J. Wyatt Durham, associate professor of paleontology, reporting on his researches into Pacific Coast weather of the Eocene period, said he found typical warm water fossils in ancient deposits on the Kamchatka peninsula in Alaska.

Supporters of the theory of shifting poles place the peninsula within 15 degrees of the North Pole at the time these fossils were living water creatures. But according to Durham, it is impossible that these animals could have lived so close to the pole.

His study also shows that a warm tropical climate extended as far northward as Seattle and Puget Sound, which evidence indicates was once the home of crocodiles.

Durham said that findings revealed that coral reefs and tropical water life also existed in the north-west area.

Since that time, he said, there has been a gradual shift in climate, interrupted only during the ice age, bringing the warm climate southward.

Bookmobile Schedule

Tuesday, February 28th

BETHEL

Henry Francis	9:10-9:30
Wiley Franklin	9:40-10:00
Wells	10:15-10:35
School	11:00-12:30
Store	12:35-1:00
Hill School	1:10-1:30
Wells's Grocery	1:35-1:55
Wells Singleton	2:10-2:30

Friday, March 3rd

CECIL & CRUSO

Store	9:30-9:45
James Reeves	10:00-10:15
Earl Burnett	10:25-10:40
School	10:45-11:30
State School	12:00-1:00
Wells McCall	1:15-1:30
School	1:45-2:30
Wells's Grocery	2:35-2:55
Wells's Grocery	3:00-3:15
Wells's Grocery	3:30-3:45

Gives Last Rites Main Companion

WATERBURY, Mass. (UP)—The witness was another dog when a motorist killed John P. Fox terrier Boston.

The witness was Dar, a German shepherd owned by Henry Kloetzler. Dar couldn't catch the dog who killed his constant companion but he did the next best thing.

Suffolk saw Dar carry Boston's little body into a field, dig a hole in the ground and bury it.

Know-How And Know-What

All registered pharmacists must know how to mix a prescription. More than that... we must also know what to use—only proven products from advertised brands.

PROTECT YOUR HEALTH — WITH PROVEN PRODUCTS!

Your Walgreen Agency

CURTIS DRUG STORE

Home Owned and Operated

"Depend on Us — Your Doctor Does."

Officials Of Haywood Cooperative Breeders Association

Officers of the Haywood Cooperative Breeders Association were elected at a recent meeting here. Shown with them are artificial breeding experts from other sections. Left to right, front row, H. R. Clapp, secretary and treasurer of the Association, and director of the Mountain Test Farm here; Joe Palmer of Clyde, president; and T. C. Davis, vice-president. Back row, M. H. (Hub) Caldwell, director; John Carver, inseminator in charge of the artificial breeding program in Haywood; Millard Ferguson, director; John Brown, N. C. State College Extension dairy specialist; Raymond Caldwell, director; Matt Dietrick, of the Southeastern Artificial Breeding Association; D. Reeves Noland, director; and County Agent Wayne Corpening. (A Mountaineer photo by Ingram's Studio.)

Plenty Of Excuses For Knife-Bearing

OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—Police raided several bars and searched patrons for deadly weapons after reports that there were too many knives and guns around certain areas.

They found an ample supply of weapons and the next day some of the persons accused were brought into court.

Judge Frank Nimitz, asked for explanations of the various-sized knives.

"I am carrying these things," he read.

"I am carrying them for my business."

"I just found it."

"Handy things to have."

"Trying to sell it for a friend."

Fertilizer Fire Makes Whole Town Achoo!

WRIGHTSVILLE, Ga. (UP)—Wrightsville suddenly became the sneezing town in the country.

A smoldering fire from 2,200 tons of fertilizer sent off gas and smoke that had everybody in town coughing and sneezing for hours. Firemen were afraid to throw water on it because of a possible explosion.

Odor and smoke from the fire could be detected for miles around.

Quick Way of Learning Not So Fool-proof

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP)—A Harvard junior, Merrill O. Young, thought he had a fool-proof way to learn his lessons.

A psychology textbook suggested the theory that sounds repeated frequently enough to a sleeping person will enter his subconscious mind and stick in his memory.

So Young made a long recording of himself reciting Greek vocabulary, turned on his automatic phonograph and went to bed.

He finally got out of bed and turned off the device after discovering that the recording was keeping him awake.

Students Open Drive On Foul Literature

MINNEAPOLIS (UP)—The national Newman Club Federation has started a decent literature campaign.

It is aimed at removing indecent literature from 200,000 magazine racks in railroad and subway stations, drug, cigar and department stores and newsstands throughout the country.

The national president, Dennis Duffy, has wired the United States attorney general's office demanding prosecution of "publishers of lewd and indecent literature... who distribute... to the newsstands of the nation by common carrier in clear violation of federal statutes."

Duffy also urged the postmaster general to withdraw second-class mailing permits from such publishers.

The organization is composed of some 100,000 Catholic students on 400 secular college campuses. The campaign is made in co-operation with the National Organization for Decent Literature and the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

Bear Hits And Runs

MEREDITH, N. H. (UP)—A hit-run bear is on the loose hereabouts. Al Moses reported that while bird hunting he stopped to light a cigarette. Suddenly he was felled by a terrific hook to the jaw. He scrambled to his feet in time to see a black bear ambulating into nearby woods. His jaw was broken.

Macaroni Meals For Lent

MACARONI CASSEROLE... Satisfying Lenten dish.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

Macaroni and cheese once a week is a good idea during Lent because it's just about the most popular of all the macaroni dishes, easy to make, inexpensive and nutritious.

And here's a new idea for spaghetti. Make a savory tomato-eggplant sauce as we suggest in the following recipe.

OLD-FASHIONED MACARONI AND CHEESE

Ingredients: 1 tablespoon salt, 4 quarts boiling water, 16 ounces elbow macaroni, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 pound American cheese (grated).

Method: Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook, uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Melt butter or margarine in a saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Stir in mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Grease a 2-quart casserole; add alternate layers of macaroni and cheese, ending with the cheese. Pour white sauce over macaroni and cheese in casserole. Bake in a moderate (350 F.) oven 35-40 minutes or until top is lightly browned. Makes 6 servings.

SPAGHETTI WITH EGGPLANT SAUCE

Ingredients: 3/4 cup olive oil, 1 medium eggplant, 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1 clove garlic (minced), 2 No. 2 cans tomato puree, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 drops tabasco sauce, 1 tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces spaghetti, grated Parmesan cheese.

Method: Heat olive oil in large skillet. Pare eggplant and cut into small cubes, add to oil in skillet with onion and garlic and saute 5 to 10 minutes. Add tomato puree, 2 teaspoons salt, pepper and tabasco sauce. Cook for 1 hour, stirring frequently. Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add spaghetti so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Arrange spaghetti in the center of an oblong serving dish; pour sauce in a wide border down each side. Serve with grated Parmesan cheese.

SPAGHETTI WITH EGGPLANT SAUCE... Tasty treat.

Doesn't Like Burglars So He Wings One

CHICAGO (UP)—August Witzke, 80, almost routed two burglars who dropped into his bakery through a skylight.

They beat him into submission and took $40. One of them, however, carried a painful reminder of Witzke's fencing skill with a baker's knife.

Praised for his courage, Witzke commented, "I haven't liked burglars since they broke into my place 42 years ago."

Too Many Taxes, Sighs Chinese Laundryman

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP)—John Lee, Chinese laundryman, sighed and said he was thinking of getting an adding machine.

Lee flicks the beads back and forth on the bamboo sticks of his abacus, ancient calculating board, to figure the price of doing up a few shirts and socks. But he says it's not much help in compiling reports for income tax, social security tax, unemployment compensation tax, sales tax and withholding tax.

"The abacus hasn't been changed in over a thousand years," Lee mused, "but it needs changing now."

Car Keys Left on Bar Tempt Wild Driver

CHICOPEE, Mass. (UP)—Casually dropping his automobile keys on the bar, Edward J. Sokol ordered a glass of beer.

Before he noticed his keys had disappeared along with another patron, Sokol was informed that his car had been involved in two collisions.

The other patron was arrested on a variety of drunkenness and driving charges.

There were no woodyards between Alabama's pioneer settlements and early steamboats had to fire their boilers with trees which crew members felled along the river banks.

Court Travels to Scene And She's a Citizen

DULUTH, Minn. (UP)—Mrs. Tillie Elizabeth Englund, who came to this country from Sweden 40 years ago, has spent much of her time trying to become an American citizen.

Each time she was about to receive her final naturalization papers, illness intervened. The 62-year-old woman suffered a stroke and underwent eight operations.

When illness last prevented her from appearing at a naturalization hearing, Federal Judge Dennis Donovan and two assistants drove to Mrs. Englund's home at French River and conferred citizenship upon her.

YOU WILL FIND AT RAY'S

Economy Priced
WORK CLOTHES

PRICES THAT ARE ROCK BOTTOM

OVERALLS THAT ARE THE BEST MADE

$2.69 VALUE
Anvil Overall
Only - $2.48

$2.48 VALUE
BIG DAD
OVERALL
Only - $2.25

WE FEATURE GOOD WORK SHIRTS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE —

AT $1.39 - Heavy Weight Chambrays - Coverts

AT $1.98 - A Variety of Very Fine Shirts

Washington Dee Cee Shirts — $1.78

Matched Work Suits
YOU BET — RAY'S HAVE THEM
IN DIFFERENT COLORS AND FABRICS

MAKE UP YOUR OWN COMBINATION

Choose From —

Shirts at $1.98 up

Pants at $2.95 up

In The Qualities We Offer at RAY'S — You Will Not Find Better Bargains Elsewhere —

RAY'S Department Store