Paul Leaves Ephesus

Scripture—Acts 6:1-6; 20:17-21-6; I Corinthians 12; I Timothy 3.

In the early church all things were shared equally among members. The Greeks claimed that their widows were not given their fair share, so the elders asked the congregation to choose seven good men to remedy this situation.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Acts 6:1-6; 20:17-21-6; I Corinthians 12; I Timothy 3.

Paul called the elders of the Ephesian church to him at Miletus and told them he was leaving them. He told them they might never see his face again. Paul prayed with them, and, weeping, they bade him goodbye.

At Tyre, where Paul landed, he sought out disciples, who warned him not to go to Jerusalem. All the men, women and children, took him to the shore, where, kneeling on the beach, they prayed before he sailed away.

Paul, writing to Timothy at Ephesus, instructed him to choose his bishops and deacons with care, selecting men who were of the highest moral and religious character for these important posts.

MEMORY VERSE—II Timothy 2:15.
