Farm, Home Plans Discussed At Stamey Cove

By MRS. MARTIN ROGERS
(Mountaineer Correspondent)

County Agent Wayne Corpening and Home Demonstration Agent Mary Cornwell last Wednesday night discussed plans for improved farm and home life when they appeared at a called meeting of the Stamey Cove Community Development Program organization.

Assistant County Agents Turner Cathey and Wayne Franklin also took part in the program which was witnessed by a record turnout of Stamey Cove residents.

The evidence indicated that the people of this community, the most recent to organize for the Program, are becoming more and more interested, and everyone enjoyed this meeting.

After the business session was over, refreshments were served to the visitors and residents.

The meeting was opened by the Rev. V. N. Allen, the community chairman.

The Haywood High School Student of the Week

By MILDRED MEDFORD

When there's anything to do around St. John's school, or anywhere as far as that goes, a call is put out for Hallett, and he is always on the 'spot' to do it.

He's not just outstanding in one thing, but in everything. And if you don't believe it, just let me tell you a few of the things that he does, has done, and is doing.

To start the story off, I will tell you that Hallett is a senior at St. John's School, and is doing superior work.

Hallett is now being called "King Hallett" by all of his classmates, and they have the right as he was chosen the Prom King of St. John's for the year of 1949-50. You can see very well why he was chosen though... all kings are great leaders.

Besides being a King, Hallett is also the Sports writer for Mountain Echoes, the school paper. Last year he was the Feature Editor, and from all the reports he turned out some good features. In his Freshman and Sophomore year he was just a reporter, and a good one, too. Hallett is also a member of the Quill and Scroll, an International Honorary Society for High School Journalists.

No wonder Hallett does such a swell job as a Sports writer... he's the captain of the basketball team and has been since his junior year.

When Hallett was just a Freshman he was elected the Secretary and Treasurer of his class, and now that he has become a Senior, he is still the Secretary and Treasurer of his class.

As a Junior, Hallett proved that he was a good actor, especially when he was acting in something like "Kiss and Tell," in which he had a good role. Now, this year as a Senior, he is again making a big hit as an actor, playing a lover's part in "Aunt Abby Answers An Ad," which is their Class play.

Hallett is a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and also a leader in the Young People's organization.

HALLETT SIDNEY WARD, JR.

His present plans for the future (when they relate to an education) are to enter Davidson College where he will start as a Pre-med student, and then he is hoping to transfer to Duke University to continue his education. This summer he wants to go to Alaska to work, hunt, and fish.

Hallett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hallett S. Ward, Sr.

County Council Of HD Clubs Will Hold Meeting

An important meeting of the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs will be held on Tuesday afternoon, according to an announcement by Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent.

The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock in the court room in Waynesville.

Mrs. Paul Hyatt, president of the council, is requesting each officer of every club to attend.

Piney Grove Circle To Meet

Circle No. 2 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Piney Grove Methodist Church will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Martin Rogers. All members are requested to be present and visitors are welcome.
