

CLUBS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN ACTIVITIES

Office Phone 700 — MRS. BEN SLOAN, Editor — Home Phone 462-J

Mrs. Sprinkle Is Hostess Of Children's Party

Mrs. Fisher Sprinkle was hostess of a party on Saturday afternoon, in observance of the fifth birthday of her daughter, Sandra Sprinkle.

Honors at the party were shared by Sandra and little Miss Betsy Isley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isley, who celebrated her fourth birthday on March 10.

Mrs. Sprinkle was assisted by Mrs. Isley and Mrs. James McClure.

The Easter motif was noted in the party appointments and an Easter Egg hunt was featured.

Easter candies were also presented to the children as favors.

Attending the party in addition to the honor guests were Clifford Underwood, Phyllis Underwood, Pauline Underwood, Michal McClure, Danny Leatherwood, Jimmy Woodard, Joan Suttton, Ann Rogers, Barbara Sisk, Gwendolyn Sisk, Ann Owen, Jackie Felmet, Robert Lee Underwood, and Cathey Isley.

Rehearsals Are Underway For School Play

Rehearsals for the three-act comedy, "American Passport" by Dana Thomas are progressing under the direction of Miss Alma Jackson. The play will be presented by the Masque and Gavel Society of the Waynesville High School at the school auditorium next Thursday evening.

Gene Yarbrough and Elaine Francis will be seen in the romantic leads. Johnny Patterson will have the part of Ed Hamilton, the complacent American Father who, like Hip Van Winkle, discovers he has been napping for twenty years.

Ann Rector is the 12-year-old and others in the cast are: Danny McClure, Mildred Medford, Nancy Stamey, Susie Stamey, Nancy Floyd, Deryl Davis, and Jimmie McJunkin.

Tickets are available from any member of the speech class and admittance will be fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

West Canton Club Meets With Mrs. McElrath

The West Canton Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. W. S. McElrath. Mrs. McElrath presided and the devotional was given by Mrs. J. E. Corzine.

Mrs. Louis Sanford, secretary of the club, reported on the recent county council meeting.

The demonstration on Brighton The Home For Spring, was given by Miss Jean Childers, assistant home agent.

Project reports were given by Mrs. Theodore Clark on clothing, Mrs. J. E. Corzine on gardens, and Mrs. Hugh Early on home beautification.

Book reviews were given by Mrs. Theodore Clark, Mrs. Cromer Crisp, Mrs. Arleta Watts, Mrs. McElrath, Mrs. Sanford, and Mrs. Howell Pless.

Refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour.

Miss Janet Abel has returned to Nyack, New York after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Mabel Brown Abel. Miss Abel has a position as personnel director with Charles A. Meyer and Associates, Translators, located in Nyack-on-the-Hudson.

Miss Elizabeth Bradley

MISS BRADLEY is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bradley of Waynesville. Her engagement to Joseph C. Cline, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Cline of Shelby has been announced. The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Elizabeth J. Bradley Is Engaged To Joseph Cline

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bradley of Waynesville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jane Bradley, to Joseph C. Cline, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Cline of Shelby.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Waynesville High School and the University of Tennessee in Knoxville where she majored in home economics. She is a member of the Phi Mu Sorority and while in college participated in numerous campus activities. For the past two years she has been head of the Home Economics Department at Bethel High School.

Mr. Cline was graduated from North Carolina State College in Raleigh where he was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. He is a veteran of World War II having served three years in the infantry with eleven months overseas. For the past three years he has been employed as assistant farm agent of Haywood County.

Plans for the wedding, which will take place in June, will be announced later.

Mrs. Braren Is Honored At Farewell Party

Mrs. Herbert Braren, retiring president of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, was honored at a farewell dinner given by sorority members Thursday evening at The Lodge. Mrs. Braren left Friday to reside in Bradenton, Florida.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of yellow and orchid snapdragon flanked by yellow candles and the guest of honor was presented a corsage of yellow rose buds.

Miss Nancy Killian, social sponsor of the sorority, was presented a corsage of red rose buds.

All members of the sorority were present for the party.

Miss McCracken Is Married To J. S. Cunningham

Mr. and Mrs. William Edgar McCracken of Lake Junaluska have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Carrie McCracken, to J. Scott Cunningham, son of Mrs. Mice Cunningham and the late Aaron Cunningham of the Allens Creek section.

The ceremony took place at the home of the Rev. C. L. Allen on Saturday, March 18, at one-thirty o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Allen officiated in the presence of members of the families and a few close friends.

For her wedding the bride was attired in a blue garbardine dress with black accessories.

Mrs. Cunningham is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and has been employed as dietitian at Sunset Cottage at Lake Junaluska.

Mr. Cunningham is also a graduate of the Waynesville High School and is now engaged in farming at Allen's Creek where the couple will reside.

Waynesville Man Is Married In Omaha, Nebraska

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Patricia Dair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Dair of Omaha, Nebraska to Gene Lloyd Sheehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sheehan of Waynesville.

The ceremony was performed in the chapel of the Offut Air Base in Omaha on Saturday, February 4, at eight o'clock in the evening. Chaplain H. W. Reinke pronounced the vows.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a blue suit with a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Vincent Seyler, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Cpl. Alton R. Gentry served as best man.

Immediately after the wedding the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at their home. The bride was graduated from the Omaha High School in January.

Mr. Sheehan is a graduate of the Waynesville High School and was formerly employed by Dayton Rubber Company. He enlisted in the U. S. Air Corps two years ago and is now stationed in Omaha.

Parker-Ingle Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Conard Ingle of Canton and Leicester have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mamie Ingle, to Hershel Parker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Parker of the Pigeon section.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Peck on Sunday, March 19. The Rev. Mr. Peck, pastor of the Barberville Baptist Church, pronounced the vows.

The bride is a member of the senior class of the Bethel High School and will be graduated in June.

Mr. Parker is employed by the M. O. Galloway Lumber Company of Waynesville.

The couple is residing at Thompson Street, Canton.

Mrs. Browning Is President Of Young Adult Class

Mrs. Denton Browning was elected president of the Young Adult Bible Class of the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church during a business session of the class held Friday night.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Browning were Mrs. Sam Linn, vice president; Mrs. Lawson Summerraw, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Paul Throver, teacher; and Harry Robinson, assistant teacher.

Members of the activities committee appointed by Mrs. Browning are Mrs. W. D. Duncan, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, and Mrs. Rufus Summerraw.

The meeting was held at the church with a social hour and covered dish supper prior to the business session.

The Rev. Paul Throver, pastor of the church, served as chairman until after the election of officers.

Rector's Guild To Meet Tues.

The Rector's Guild of Grace Episcopal Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Brees, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Janie Love Talliaferro will be associate hostess.

Charles Hyatt Returns To N. Y.

Charles Hyatt, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyatt, left Sunday for New York, where he has been re-assigned as officer on the U. S. S. General Greeley. He will sail on April 4 for Australia, going by way of Naples and the Suez canal.

This will be Mr. Hyatt's second trip to Australia, the first having been made by way of the Panama Canal, and will complete a round-the-world tour for him. He has previously made 28 trips to Europe and has visited ports in ten countries.

4-H Club To Meet At Allens Creek

The 4-H Club of the Allens Creek Community will meet at the school Thursday night at 7 o'clock.

Ernest Medford is leader for the boys and Mrs. Lulu Hendrix is leader for the girls.

Miss Emily McCracken, daughter of Mrs. Weaver McCracken of Lake Junaluska, is home from Woman's College in Greensboro to spend the spring holidays.

Recent Bride

MRS. OLIVER ELLIOTT is the former Miss Marian Morgan, daughter of Dr. Ernest L. Morgan and the late Mrs. Morgan of Clyde. She was married in the Foundry Methodist Church in Washington, D. C., on February 23.

Miss Morgan Is Married In Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Byers of Waynesville and Washington, D. C., have announced the marriage of their niece, Miss Marian Morgan, of Washington to Oliver Elliott, also of Washington.

The wedding took place in the Foundry Methodist Church in Washington on Saturday, February 25, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, chaplain of the United States Senate and pastor of the church, pronounced the vows.

The altar was banked with evergreens and decorated with floor vases of white gladioli flanked by branched candelabra.

Prior to the ceremony a program of music was presented by the church organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Byers, wore a gown of white lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with long sleeves and v-shaped neckline and was buttoned with tiny lace-covered buttons. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds and tube roses and wore a matching coronet of white flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Hugh Hines of Sanford, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore an afternoon dress of blue lace over matching taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow rose buds.

William Hudson of Washington, D. C. was best man.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson entertained with a reception at their home in Washington. Around sixty guests attended.

Mrs. Elliott is the daughter of Dr. Ernest L. Morgan and the late Mrs. Morgan of Clyde.

She formerly resided in Waynesville with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan and attended the Waynesville High School. She was graduated from Virginia Intermont College in Bristol, Virginia, and received a master's degree from Alma College in Alma, Michigan. She moved to Washington last summer and since that time has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Byers. She holds a position on the office staff of Senator Frank P. Graham.

Mr. Elliott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Elliott of Flint, Michigan. He is a graduate of Flint High School and of Alma College and is a veteran of World War II. He is now employed by the Potomac Electric Power Company in Washington where the couple is residing.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hines of Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Queen of Waynesville, Clifford E. Brown of Clyde, John McConnell of Statesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Byers.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Hattie Shipley has returned to Waynesville to make her home after spending several months with her son, Joe Shipley, in Michigan. She is residing at the Massie Apartment on Haywood Street. Mr. Shipley, who accompanied his mother home, will return to Michigan tomorrow.

Dr. C. M. Hinkley will leave tomorrow for Louisville, Kentucky where he will attend a dental convention at the University of Louisville March 29 to April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee Hooper Open House For Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee entertained with an open house at their residence on Walnut Street Sunday afternoon, in honor of their guests who included Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith, Sr., their daughter, Miss Anna Smith, and their son, Lee and Alton Smith, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Cameron Lewis of Charleston, West Virginia. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Lewis are sisters of Mr. Lee.

Vases of mixed flowers were arranged throughout the rooms as a decorative note. Gladioli and yellow roses were used in the living room while mixed spring flowers were used in the entrance hall and dining room.

During the first hour the guests were greeted by Mrs. Robert Brees and were introduced to the receiving line, composed of the hosts and honor guests.

Mrs. W. F. Swift greeted the callers during the second hour and Mrs. Jack Messer was at the front entrance during the third hour.

Mrs. M. H. Bowles received in the dining room for the first hour and Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., was at the dining room door for the second hour.

Serving were Miss Vivian Watkins, Miss Bette Hannah, Miss Joan Morris, Miss Mildred Medford, Miss Allee Fincher, Miss Marguerite Way, Miss Mary Ann Masste, and Miss Lane Prevost.

Others assisting were Mrs. W. L. Hardin and Mrs. R. L. Coin.

Around four hundred guests called during the designated hours. Among those from out-of-town were James K. Dorsett, Jr., of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson of Canton, and Tom Newborn of Kinston.

PERSONALS

O. C. James left Sunday for August, Florida, where he will spend a few days. He is accompanied by Monroe and Mrs. Silvers of Canton. Mrs. James, who is a student at Wake Forest, is the daughter of Mrs. Monroe Silvers.

Miss Mary Sue Crocker, Dixie Campbell spent the spring holidays with her mother and Mrs. Carl Matthews.

Miss Jean Ann Bradley of Brenau College is here on spring holidays with her mother and Mrs. W. A. Bradley.

Miss Barbara Boyd, of Brenau College is here on spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

Miss Norma Jean Burdette of Brenau College is here on spring vacation with her mother and Mrs. R. L. Burdette.

Miss Mozelle Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Linn from Woman's College is here on the spring vacation.

Robert Gibson, Jr., of Clemson College, spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson.

Mrs. Bryan Medford and Mrs. Dick Medford and Miss Thompson of Asheville left for Miami, Florida where they will visit friends and relatives for a week.

There's nothing so becoming, nothing so truly right for morning, noon or night as these two prints in softest rayon crepe.

RIGHT. Gay with galloping fauns, this light-hearted print has a notch collar, cuffed dolman sleeves, tiny pearl buttons and a graceful gathered skirt. Beige, brown and black; pink, brown and black; blue, salmon and black; lime, brown and black. Sizes 10 to 20. $14.95

BELOW. Aswirl with accordion pleats, this Persian Bayadere makes a bright point of medallions, features a pretty collar and self tie, cool cap sleeves and these lovely colors: peacock and pink; chartreuse and brown; green and fuchsia. Sizes 10 to 18. $16.95 pick a pretty print for spring!

L'AIGLON

MASSIE'S DEPT. STORE

"Better Brands Mean Better Buys"

LAFF-A-DAY

Start the 30-day Camel MILDNESS test today

CAMELS ARE SO MILD that in a cigarette-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported

Not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking CAMELS