Program committee: Mrs. George Bischoff, chairman, Mrs. W. M. Cobb, and Mrs. Carl Mundy; finance committee: Johnny Cuddeback, chairman, Bill Dover, and Lester Burgin, Jr.; Scout Hut committee chairman, Mrs. Roy Parkman; and public relations chairman, Mrs. Ben Sloan.

Further plans were made for the Girl Scout camp to be held at Camp Hope, June 18 to 25, for all intermediate and senior troops.

Mrs. Hyatt announced that a short film, "Women of Tomorrow—The Story of Girl Scouting as it Happens," will be shown soon at one of the Waynesville theatres and asked the council members to assist in making arrangements for all girls to see it.

Announcement was also made that the semi-annual Court of Awards will be held in May.

The program was featured by a contest between project leaders with an exhibit of articles made under each leader. Mrs. Levi Morgan, clothing leader, who displayed a long-sleeved silk blouse, was winner of the contest and was presented a prize.

Other program features included a demonstration by Miss Mary Cornwell on decorating ideas for the home, and the showing of a health film by Mrs. Alma McCracken of the health department.

Mrs. Joyce Haynes discussed the club's participation in the library program at Clyde.

Mrs. Tom Rogers and Mrs. Stanley Livingstone reported on the recent Parafire Refinishing Workshop held in Waynesville and Mrs. Levi Morgan reported on the Family Life School.

Mrs. Clyde Jolly, home beautification leader, discussed varieties of jonquills and their cultivation.

The members voted to have a covered dish luncheon at the April meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Martin with Mrs. R. C. Cook and Mrs. C. A. Darnell as associate hostesses.

Mrs. Harriet Estes, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brendie of Haywood County, is the widow of Goldman Estes. She is the mother of nine children and has forty-eight grandchildren, fifty-five great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grandchildren.

She is still active about the house and pursues her favorite hobby of quilt making. She is making quilts for each of her grandchildren and this winter has completed fifteen.

Mrs. Estes also likes to entertain her friends and family with the true stories of her girlhood during the War Between the States.

Mrs. Estes divides her time between her children who live in Haywood and Swain Counties. She is a frequent visitor at the home of a son, John Estes, on Allens Creek but she is spending her birthday with a daughter in Bryson City.
