News Items From Cecil Community

By MRS. J. EDGAR BURNETT (Mountaineer Correspondent)

The showing of The Champion Paper and Fibre Company film, "The Price of Freedom," was held before a full house at the Friday night meeting of the Cecil Community Development Program.

One spectator remarked later: "It is a film which makes you think how precious is the freedom which we have from day to day—and which we seldom stop to appreciate."

Assistant County Agent Wayne Franklin was in charge of this part of the meeting.

During the business session which followed, the list of special committees for the 1950 Program was revised and a committee for visiting the sick was appointed.

Community Chairman Carl Green presided.

The first Friday of each month was set as the regular date for the Community Development meetings.

The residents of the community started organization for the new year the previous Tuesday night, with the election of Mr. Green as chairman, Robert Messer as vice-chairman, Mrs. George Rogers as secretary, Clyde Caldwell as treasurer, and Mrs. J. Edgar Burnett as reporter.

A capacity crowd filled the Cecil School auditorium for this session, and many more stood outside the door and the windows because even standing room in the hall had been filled.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Medford have purchased the Ira Massie farm. The Massies will live in the new lovely brick home they bought near Canton.

Mrs. Herbert S. Francis is at home after a week's stay at Haywood County Hospital where she underwent an operation.

One of the first roads of Haywood County to be paved was the Lake Logan thoroughfare, which Road Commission officials term the most travelled in the county.

A work crew had gravelled the highway to Ted Inman's recently.

The paving will start at the Paris Store and run as far as the Robert Messer Store in its first strip. More of the Lake Logan road will be paved after right-of-way problems are ironed out.

Mrs. Edna Browning has passed the test as census enumerator for the Cecil Township.

Jim Reece is recuperating at his home following a long illness.

Mrs. Lawson Reece is still confined to bed at her home. She has been ill for the past four months.

Corporal Wallace Pressley returned last week to his station at the Roswell, New Mexico, Air Force Base. He had been called home two weeks before because of the serious illness of his grandfather, George O. Allen, who died.

At The Park Monday and Tuesday

Ex-Red to Testify

A FORMER Communist who left the party in 1931, Freda Uley (above), revealed she has been asked by Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) to appear before a Senate subcommittee in Washington as a witness against Owen Lattimore, Far Eastern expert. At a press conference, she said her testimony will be based on Lattimore's writings. "I think I can prove they follow the Party line," she declared. (International)

Anti-Smoke Ordinances

As far back as the thirteenth century, London had an antismoke regulation. As long ago as 1924, some 50 American cities had them, and in 1949 it is a rare city which does not have an ordinance aimed for smoke abatement.

Left Handed Child

Forcing the left-handed child to be right-handed, may cause an emotional disturbance and unusual behavior, such as stuttering or stammering.

Screw Worms in Hogs

Screw worms can be controlled, but it is absolutely necessary that hog raisers check their hogs every day for breaks in the skin where the eggs may be laid and the worms developed.

18 Towns To Be Represented At Canton Meeting

A regional meeting of the Carolina League of Mountain Carotene Clubs will be held April 18 at Canton, N.C.

Expected for the session are representatives of Asheville, Forest, Black Mountain, Burnsville, Brevard, East Flat Rock, Hendersonville, Hot Springs, Lake Lure, Park, Marshall, Mars Hill, Saluda, and Westerville, N.C.

Bible Quiz Answer

Today's Bible picture represents God's revelation of the Ten Commandments to Moses.

AND THE LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain: and the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mountain: and Moses went up. . . And God spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; And shewing mercy unto the thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested on the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

AND ALL the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

First Birthday Of Francis Cove CDP Observed Sat.

By MRS. WM. HOLLINGSWORTH (Mountaineer Correspondent)

Francis Cove celebrated its first birthday in the Community Development Program Saturday night.

The residents of the Cove observed the occasion with a party that attracted a large audience to the Community Church.

The program opened with the singing of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by the audience.

Two offerings were songs by the young people's choir of Hettie Franklin, Ruth Boone, Sara Boone, Carol Webb, Bill Boone, Kate Franklin, Edward Rickman, Frank Rickman, Francis Webb, Mark Radford, and Allen Boone.

Vinson McElroy reviewed the accomplishments and progress the community made during its first year of existence.

The Rev. C. O. Newell of Crabtree and Iron Duff gave the devotional program, and the greeting was offered by Mrs. Henry Francis.

Another feature of the program was the piano solo by Betty Franklin of a selection by Coleman.

The guests were introduced by Community Chairman Robert Boone and Mrs. Homer West. Introduced the featured speaker, Mrs. C. O. Newell.

In appreciation for his services in aiding with the Community Development Program, Assistant County Agent Turner Cathey was presented with an aluminum tray which had been made by the Cove women at the handicraft school held recently at the home of Mrs. Henry Francis.

The women also had made four more trays to present to the other agents of County Agent Wayne Corpening's staff.

Photographer Joe Davis of Hazledale was on hand to take a picture of the community's birthday cake, the sportsmanship trophy the Francis Cove boys had won in the recent Community Development basketball tournament, and the first officers the community residents had elected when they organized their Program in 1949.

Punch and cake were served by the ladies of the Cove to the residents and their guests from other communities. Among the visitors who attended were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Francis of Ratcliffe Cove, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse James, also of Ratcliffe Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. Oral Yates and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Iron Duff, in addition to those previously mentioned.

Varied Program Features White Oak Meeting

By MRS. GEORGE BORING (Mountaineer Correspondent)

The White Oak Community Development Program meeting had many features of interest Wednesday night. Co-Chairman Roe Ledford presided, due to illness of the chairman. Devotionals were led by David Teague and Robert Fisher led in prayer.

Everybody joined in singing hymns and popular songs. Several selections were sung by the quartet.

An Easter story was then told by Mrs. George Boring, and then the quartet sang "Kneel At The Cross," after which the story of the Dogwood tree and blossom was told, as the cross on which Christ was crucified was made of the wood of the Dogwood tree. Also the story of how the robin got his red breast by plucking a thorn from the crown of Christ as he hung on the cross, and the blood from the thorn touched his breast thus making it red.

Many items of business were discussed and future plans laid out. Workers on the Red Cross drive turned their final reports over to Chairman Bob Williams.

Robert Fisher helped Mr. Williams canvass Upper White Oak, and Mrs. Boring covered Lower White Oak members. Too, it was voted upon to change the future meeting night of the club from Wednesday to Saturday nights. The next meeting was set for April 22.

Plans for a new club house were enthusiastically discussed, everyone present giving his own idea as to what it should be like. The 4-H Club meeting that was to be held at the leader's home, was changed to 6:30 at the Community meeting place, just prior to the Community meeting at 7:30, on April 22.

Refreshments of cookies and cold drinks was then served by the ladies.

The average cost of a television set is around $400.00.

Two mountaineers were complaining about the cold. "Nearest I ever came to freezing," said one, "was when I was holding the lantern for my wife while she cut the kindling."

Cat Stems

The children were having a great deal of fun playing with the young kittens. After a while little Mary came running into the living room in tears.

"Mommy, Jimmy is hurting the kittens. He is holding them up by their stems."

New Look

At last Mike hit it rich. He bet on three horses and they all came in. Bubbling with good news, he rushed some, flung a wad of greenbacks on the table and shouted:

"There, Baby—now at last you can go out and buy some good-looking clothes."

"I'll do nothing of the kind," Mrs. Mike snapped. "I'm going to buy the same kind other women are wearing."

Exhibits A and B

A small retailer in a city had been trying for months to collect an overdue bill. But all his pleas and threats were completely disregarded. As a last resort, he sent a snapshot of his little daughter. Under the picture he wrote: "The reason I must have my money."

A prompt reply enclosed a photograph of a beautiful blonde in a bathing suit, labeled: "The reason I can't pay."
