By BILL BOONE
(Mountaineer Correspondent)

An audience of 150 people who overflowed the Beaverdam School auditorium Tuesday night elected the Beaverdam Community Development Program officers for 1950 during an enthusiastic meeting. Jack Chapman was named chairman, Fred Best, vice-chairman; Eva Jane Worley, secretary; Ray Worley, treasurer; and Bill Boone, reporter.

County Agent Wayne Corpening and Assistant County Agent Wayne Franklin aided in the organization session, which drew the greatest response since the community was first set up for the Development Program approximately a year ago.

Another feature of the meeting was the showing of The Champion Paper and Fibre Company film, "The Price Of Freedom".

Walt Disney is credited with having produced the first movie cartoon, "Steamboat Willie," in 1928.

Small Fry Love Raisins

RAISIN BREAD AND MILK . . . After-school snack.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If there are children in your family use raisins with a lavish hand in dishes for everyday meals. Serve them, too at snacktime to eat "out of hand" because they're such a wholesome sweet; high in natural fruit sugar they also supply iron, other minerals, and B vitamins.

The dishes improved by raisins are legions—cakes, cookies, puddings, and sauces in the dessert category. In the hot bread section they add flavor to muffins and coffee cakes. They're delicious in stuffings for chicken and duck, as old-fashioned recipes for poultry dressings testify.

Youngsters always enjoy raisins in sandwich fillings. Team them with peanut butter and add a little honey or cream or mayonnaise to moisten. Let them give flavor to bland cottage cheese or cream cheese fillings. Put raisins and walnuts through the food chopper and add a little mayonnaise for a most delicious spread—especially when it's put between slices of dark whole-wheat bread. Another suggestion is to add them to grated soft yellow cheese along with a little sweet pickle relish.

In the salad department they go well with slaws—cabbage or carrot—and a sour cream dressing. They're good in Waldorf Salad—that old-time combination of celery, apples, walnuts and boiled dressing. Youngsters also like them scattered over a salad of crisp romaine leaves and round slices of orange. Or make the salad one of pears—fresh or canned—and fill the fruit cavities with this good sweet.

All the youngsters—from pre-schoolers to teen-agers—will enjoy an after-school snack of slices of homemade raisin loaf served with tall glasses of cold milk. Here's an easy recipe the children themselves can use:

QUICK RAISIN LOAF

Ingredients: 1 cup bran, 1 1/3 cups milk, 1 cup seedless raisins, 1 egg (slightly beaten), 3 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted), 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 5 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sugar.

Method: Put bran and milk in a mixing bowl to soak. Rinse raisins in hot water, drain and chop with a knife. Add raisins to bran and milk along with beaten egg and melted butter or margarine and mix well. Sift flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar together and add; stir only enough to moisten all dry ingredients. Pour into greased 7x3x3 1/2-inch loaf pan and bake in moderate (350° F.) oven for about 1 hour.

S. Clyde Licks Francis Cove In Spelling Bee

An audience of 200 people last week saw South Clyde's spellers lick the Francis Cove team in their inter-community match at Louisa Chapel.

On the winning team were Mrs. Tom Rogers, Mrs. Joyce Haynes, Mrs. Maude Osborne, Tom Rogers, and Paul Jackson.

The Francis Cove spellers were Hazel Hollingsworth, Mrs. Rhoda Rickman, Esther Davis, Edna Hollingsworth, and Clarence Frady.

Stanley Livingston, principal of Clyde School, gave out the words, and for the first several of them there were no misses.

Finally, contestants on both sides started going down as the assignments grew stiffer, until only Mrs. Tom Rogers of South Clyde and Mrs. Rickman of Francis Cove were still standing.

Then Mrs. Rickman was eliminated, leaving the field to South Clyde.

Serving as master of ceremonies was Mrs. P. C. Mann.

The program opened with the singing of "Revive Us Again," by the group.

Mrs. Mann offered a prayer, and a quartet of Betty Justice, Mary Lee Justice, Lloyd Justice, and Billy Stamey, with Mattie Lou Justice at the piano, sang.

The devotional was given by the Rev. W. T. Medlin, pastor of the Clyde Methodist Church.

During the meeting also refreshments were served to the members of the audience.
