meeting of the State Board is being held here on April 13... While the mountain counties have been most in the news with the anticipated changes, you may see trouble in some other counties...

Banks Offering Prizes In Census Contest Here

The biggest guessing game right now is not who will be elected, but "what will the census show?" The First State Bank and The First National Bank officials have found so much interest in the results of the census, that they are staging a contest.

Three valuable prizes are being offered—valued at about $150.00. One prize will go to the person guessing the nearest the correct figure for the county as a whole, then another prize to each of the persons guessing the nearest for both Waynesville and Hazelwood.

There is nothing to buy, or sell. Just three blanks to fill out, together with your name and the time the entry is made. Special blanks have been prepared for the contest, and these are available at either of the two banks.

Officials of the banks said: "This is just a civic proposition, and we are anxious to see how the guesses compare with the actual figures." The first person making the correct guess will be declared the winner in each of the three divisions.

Power, and not the Federal Government, should build the $27,000,000 dam at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.? ... and did you notice that Long Shore Union Leader Harry Bridges was convicted of lying on the witness stand when he said he was not a Communist...

"Sizing" Saves Paint

Surfaces which are relatively porous soak up large amounts of ordinary paint. Sizes or sealers have the faculty of "bridging" the pores, or filling them at the surface, thus reducing the suction. As a consequence, these compositions are helpful in saving paint and in producing uniform appearance. The process of using them is spoken of as "sizing" or "sealing."

A. M.; Waynesville—Saturday, behind Central Elementary School, 11 A. M.; Colored School, noon;

East Waynesville—Monday, Charlie's Place, 3 P. M.; Dellwood Road, Shuler's Store, 4 P. M.; Barberville Church, 5 P. M.; Frog Level—Rose Grocery, 6 P. M.
