Student of the Week

MILDRED MEDFORD

better known to his class as "Cuddles", is our first student of the week from the Canton High School. He is indeed very happy to be named as the Student of the Week.

is a senior this year at High and a very busy one. Trying to keep up with all club activities and getting "Boys", their annual, off printing company was a job, but Bryant, Editor-in-Chief of the annual, had it all plenty of time.

the Vice-president of the Club, and at the last State Convention in Raleigh, he gave the address for the Beta Club. Junior, Bryant was selected best citizen of his class. He is a member of the Junior Club, which is made up of selected for being outstanding.

is also a member of the Club, the Spanish Club, and the Spanish Club.

everyone knows the Student of the Week is a very important thing in high school, and it takes a lot of intelligence to be here again. Bryant is working to keep the council up to the standard.

is also a Hall monitor, and a member of the C.H.S. is an active member of the Baptist Church of Canton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Holtzclaw of Canton.

LEWIS BRYANT HOLTZCLAW

B.T.U.'s, and was the President of the R.A.'s for three years. He is also a member of the Church Choir.

Not very long ago you probably heard a lot about the Canton High School Senior play, "The Perfect Idiot". Well, if you saw that play—you would have seen Bryant as an actor, although he plans to go to Georgia Tech and major in architecture.

This summer Bryant's plans are to visit in Texas . . . and get ready to become an architect.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Holtzclaw of Canton.

THE YOUNGER SET

By MILDRED MEDFORD
High School Senior

Tomorrow is surely a big day for the F.H.A. members—leave for the State Rally in Raleigh. The girls, along with their Mrs. John Nesbitt, will leave early Friday morning to spend the night in the Raleigh Hotel in Raleigh. They will represent the F.H.A. Chapter at the Crocker, Maurice Carver, Messer, Marietta Dillard, and Noland, Elsie Palmer, and Vickery, Betty Sheehan, Patton, and Carolyn Sayer.

The girls will be approximately 100 from all over the State. To tell you all about the Prom and do justice would be a very hard task, but I will try—starting with the decorations which could not be beat anywhere by anyone.

The hall was decorated with dark blue crepe paper, having the top covered with a large sheet of crepe paper with silver stars scattered on it. Coming from the top of both sides of the hall were small strips of the blue crepe paper reaching almost to the floor. Behind the crepe paper were the tables set up for parties of four.

As you entered the hall you faced a beautiful white arch, covered with Ivy, with the moon shining behind . . . then white flowers in front of each side of the arch. Under the arch was the throne which was covered with royal blue . . . where Dolf, the Queen, sat while she was being crowned by Hallett, the King.

The theme for the Prom was Blue Moon. A record player furnished the music, but that certainly didn't keep anyone from having the time of their life.

As Dolf Kienast and Hallett Ward, Jr. were chosen as Queen and King, they reigned over the Prom. After the Grand March Dolf sat on the throne while Hallett placed a beautiful white crown made of lace on her head. Bette Hannah, maid of honor, carried the crown on a pale pink satin cushion.

After the crowning of the Queen, everyone danced . . . and again I will say that everyone enjoyed themselves more than they ever had before at a dance.

Our congratulations go to the Students of the St. John's high school who helped make the plans for the Prom . . . and especially to those who decorated the hall. The Prom was a huge success for not only the students of St. John's, but to their guests.
