Bible Quiz Answer

Today's Bible picture represents Christ's driving of the money changers out of the temple.

AND WHEN He was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

AND JESUS went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of them that sold doves. And said unto them, ...

It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Matthew 21: 10-13. From the Oxford Bible.

SKY-HOOKS

We build pillars of steel in the mud . . . and we hang a road from them!

Twenty centuries ago a little band of men built some pillars of faith. They built them in the mud of life's sweeping stream, but they pointed them toward heaven. Then they hung a road from their pillars of faith . . . a road their Master had shown them.

It was a new and different kind of bridge. It carried men from the cold, angry shores of strife and bitterness across to a life of unselfishness and brotherhood. It was more than another religion—it was Christianity!

When a man grows tired of the ugly side of life—when he's ready to see the other side and become a part of it—he need only turn to the Church. That is where the bridge begins.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

AMOS TEACHES ABOUT WORSHIP

SINCERITY AND PURITY WANTED BY JEHOVAH

NEWMAN CAMPBELL
HOW MANY of the millions of people who go to church regularly and kneel to pray, repeat the words of the service, are thinking about what they are doing? How many are thinking of business, their domestic affairs, their social affairs, their political views, their country, or pray to their Lord? How many are sincere and devout, but many are not. They go through the forms devoted by their religious service to their minds on other things. There are even those who attend services regularly, but who are not interested in the boards or other governing bodies of their churches, and who are not religious persons, but who, in their daily lives, are anything but righteous.
It was in the time of Amos, when the people of Israel that were on their way to doom they altered their manner of worship and worshipping.

at this moment of prosperity they might again overtake them, and proceeded to live as they pleased, forgetful of the wrath of Jehovah.
"For thus saith Jehovah unto the house of Israel, Seek ye Me, and ye shall live; but seek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to naught."
"Seek Jehovah, and ye shall live; lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be none to quench it in Bethel. Ye who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth."
Amos reminded them of their righteous God, in beautiful, poetic words:
"Seek Him that maketh the Pleiades and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the day morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; Jehovah is His name."
The prophets of old spoke in no uncertain terms of what the Lord required of His people; and all agreed that God wanted sincerity in worship, and right living, and these only were what pleased Him. Amos quotes Him:

"I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies (the feasts and pilgrimages).
"Yea, though ye offer Me your burnt-offerings, and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your hearts. Take thou away from Me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.
"But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."
These words were uttered between 760 and 770 B. C., and still justice is not being done in the earth, and people cry aloud for it, praying that fear, hunger, destitution of all kinds be banished from the earth. God the Father will help us to accomplish it if only we will hear Him and do our part.
