Is The Keynote of Haywood Club Women

This store remembers when there were just a "few" Home Demonstration Clubs in Haywood. We have seen the work go forward—we have watched with interest as the clubs have grown to 24 strong. In fact, we have grown together.

It has not been so many years ago that this store was just a small one-floor firm, not as large as even our ready-to-wear department today. From that humble beginning, this store has grown to the largest west of Asheville, with three large floors, filled with modern, up-to-the-minute merchandise at modest low prices. Belk Hudson has consistently carried the type merchandise that has enabled the home-maker to have more for her family at less cost. No matter what you want—curtains for the kitchen, to a complete wardrobe for all the family, you can always get it at Belk-Hudson's for less money.
