

Marguerite Russ Celebrates 13th Birthday

Miss Marguerite Russ celebrated her thirteenth birthday with a dinner given at The Towne House Friday evening. She was assisted in entertaining by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Russ.

A color motif of pink and green was carried out in the details of the party and the long table, at which the guests were seated, was centered with a two-tiered birthday cake.

Circle Honors Two Members

The Fannie E. S. Heck Circle of the First Baptist Church entertained with a handkerchief shower last Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Henry Davis, honoring two of its members who are leaving town.

The honor guests were Mrs. Earl Messer, who is moving to Asheville to reside, and Mrs. Douglas Moore, who will go to Japan next month to join her husband.

The home was decorated with spring flowers and punch and cookies were served following an evening of informal entertainment.

Around fifteen members of the circle were present. Mrs. Earl Miles and children, Earl White and Margaret Ann Miles of Atlanta are here for a visit to Mrs. Miles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Terrell.

The Messers Are Honored At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis were hosts of a dinner given at The Towne House Friday evening as a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Messer, who are moving to Asheville to reside.

The party also marked the sixteenth wedding anniversary of the honor guests.

The dinner table was centered with an arrangement of pink and white snapdragon, flanked by green candles, and Mrs. Messer was presented a corsage of pink carnations.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Messer, the Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Fender, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patrick.

Miss Medford Gives Party For Bride-Elect

Miss Bebe Medford was hostess of a dessert bridge in her home on Love Lane Saturday afternoon as a courtesy to Miss Ruth McCoy of Franklin, whose marriage to Ted Martin, Jr. will take place in Saturday.

A color motif of pink and white was carried out and spring flowers were used in decorating. Ices in the shape of wedding bells were served to the guests and tallies were in the bridal motif.

The honoree was presented a corsage of carnations and a gift of china in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. Paul McElroy was winner of the high score prize and Miss Bette Hannah won the floating prize.

The guests included Miss McCoy and her mother, Mrs. Nina Tibbett McCoy, and Miss Ann Lyles, all of Franklin; Mrs. Fred Martin, mother of the bridegroom-elect, Miss Marguerite Way, Miss Mary Lu Elwood, Mrs. William Dover, Mrs. Bruce Jaynes, Mrs. Ned Howell, Mrs. Porter Frady, Miss Bette Hannah, Mrs. Calvin McDaniel, Mrs. Leon Killian, Jr., and Mrs. Paul McElroy.

Miss Juanita Noland

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Noland of Lake Junaluska have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Juanita Noland, to James Lardner Query, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Query of Concord. The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Ruth McCoy Announces Plans For Her Wedding

Miss Ruth McCoy of Franklin, daughter of Mrs. Nina Tibbett McCoy, has announced plans for her marriage to Fred E. Martin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin, Sr. of Waynesville.

The ceremony will take place in the First Baptist Church in Franklin, next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. M. W. Chapman, pastor, will officiate.

A program of wedding music will be presented by Mrs. W. L. Matney, grandmother of the bridegroom, organist; and Mrs. Fred Calhoun, aunt of the bridegroom and Thomas Calhoun Davis, cousin of the bridegroom, as soloists.

The bride will be given in marriage by her cousin, William Vance Canaler, and will have as her maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Ann Lyle of Franklin.

Fred Martin, Sr. will serve as his son's best man and ushers will be Edwin Paul Martin of Waynesville, Sidney Allison of Asheville, and Joseph Frank Martin of Franklin, all uncles of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Edwards Gives Party For Daughter

Mrs. Harry Edwards entertained a group of children at a party Saturday afternoon in celebration of the seventh birthday of her daughter, Darlene Edwards.

A color scheme of pink and blue was carried out and balloons were presented to the guests as favors. Mrs. Berlin Henry assisted in serving.

Those present included Grover and Floyd Gaddis, Dean Rogers, Rebecca and Trixie Curtis, Barbara and Buddy Nichols, Billie Sue Stamey, Patsy Henry, Betty Sue Patman, Carolyn and Ronnie Oxford, Nancy Moore, Polly and James Parker, Joyce and Judy Warren, Jane Ray, and Ralph, Ray and Brenda Gall Edwards.

Others assisting Mrs. Edwards were Mrs. Bill Oxford and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Warren.

H. D. Camp And Workshop To Be Held In June

A camp and handicraft workshop for home demonstration clubs in the western district will be held at the 4-H Camp here, June 7, 8, 9.

The camp will open for lunch on June 7, and will close following an afternoon session, June 9.

Classes will be taught in metal craft, wood carving, ceramics, rug hooking, broom making, and hand stenciling.

Haywood County club members may attend the classes during the day provided they enroll for the entire course. They will not be allowed to drop in for odd sessions.

Further information regarding the program may be had from Miss Mary Cornwell, home demonstration agent, or from her office in the Court House.

MRS. QUEEN AT CONFERENCE

Mrs. Sam Queen, Sr., superintendent of the Haywood County Welfare Department, left today to attend a State Welfare Conference in Raleigh, to be held through Friday.

Mrs. Swift Is Hostess For D.A.R. Meeting

Mrs. W. F. Swift was hostess for the May meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home on the Fairview Road, Friday afternoon. Mrs. James R. Boyd, vice-regent, presided.

Mrs. R. L. Prevost was in charge of the program and presented Jimmy Swift, one of the winners in the annual D.A.R. - sponsored Jeopardy contest in the Waynesville High School who delivered his speech on "Security."

Mrs. James Harden Howell, Sr., gave an account of the National Congress of the D.A.R. which she attended recently in Washington, D. C.

Miss Ida Penny, chairman of Approved Schools, reported that a box of clothing had been sent to Crossnore.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess. Special guests were Mrs. Raymond Lane and Miss Nancy Killian.

Rummage Sale To Be Held This Week

A Rummage Sale will be held in the building formerly occupied by Jones Radio and Music Shop on Main Street, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 18, 19 and 20.

The sale, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, will be held throughout regular business hours all three days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bramlett of Greenville, S. C., former residents of Waynesville, were week end guests of friends here.

Miss Johnston To Attend Workshop

Miss Margaret Johnston, Haywood County librarian, with Mrs. Helen Kittrell of the Fontana Regional Library, Bryson City, will leave tomorrow for Lexington to attend a workshop for trained public librarians and public library trustees, to be held Wednesday through Friday.

The workshop will be held under the sponsorship of the North Carolina Library Association and the North Carolina Library Commission. Guest speakers will include Dr. Paul Wager and Dr. Louis R. Wilson of the University of North Carolina and Miss Lucille Nix, public library consultant in Georgia State Department of Education.

Other features will include discussions and talks by N. C. librarians with the showing of films on library service.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bushnell, Jr. of Durham arrived Saturday to spend a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan.

Florrie Patrick Is Party Hostess

Miss Florrie Patrick was hostess of a "slumber party" at Shamrock Motor Court Friday evening, following the presentation of the high school senior play. She was assisted in entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Patrick.

Those present were Eileen Gerlinger, Elizabeth Watkins, Pat Reed, and Linda Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bischoff and daughters, Ann and Nancy, spent the week end in Bryson City as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grant.

Son Sends Mother Message From Indian Ocean

Her son, a Merchant Marine officer, couldn't be at home with her yesterday.

But Mrs. Harry Hyatt knew he was with her in spirit. Last Friday, she received a cablegram from him.

It read: "Mother's Day greetings from the Indian Ocean."

Her son, Charles, is serving aboard the USNS General Greeley en route to Melbourne, Australia.

"That was the first we'd heard from him in two weeks," she explained, "he was in Egypt then, but we didn't know where he was after that until I received this cablegram."

His ship is scheduled to reach Australia next Saturday.

Program For Court Of Awards Is Announced

Mrs. Howard Hyatt, president of the Hazelwood-Waynesville Girl Scout Council, has announced the program for the Court of Awards to be held Tuesday night, as follows:

- Processional, Bette Hannah Flag Ceremony, Troop 6 Song, "Hall to Scouts," Troop 1, 7 and 11 Welcome, Mrs. Hyatt Song, "White Choral Bells," Troop 5 Presentation of badges Address, Hugh Massie Presentation of First Class and Curved Bar Awards. Closing Song Taps, Julia Ann Calhoun The Public is invited to attend the program at The First Methodist Church at 8 o'clock.

Want Ads Bring Out... HEY GRADS! here's Smith-Corona most portable... ONLY 10% DOWN... Skyriter by Smith-Corona... It's terrific! Fits in a briefcase - weighs only 9 lbs... a full-size office typewriter... Keyboard! Feather-light and high-speed action... in and try it! The Book Store... Shop At Home - Help Your Town Grow

Reliable Jewelers Say

Come Register For 20 Lovely Gifts

At one o'clock on Wednesday, May 24, we are giving away TWENTY Lovely Gifts to Haywood Graduates. All you must do is register. Nothing to buy, nothing to sell, and no obligation... just register NOW. This applies to all 1950 graduates from Haywood's seven high schools.

RELIABLE JEWELERS

"It's Easy To Pay The Reliable Way"

ARE YOU A GRAD?... Save this AD!

Matched Sets Teenager Photo and Scrap Books. Gift List and Address Books—leather bound Diary—Pocket and regular—one and five year.

Stationery and Notes by Montag and Gibson (They will need lots 'Thank You' notes)

Fountain Pens and Pencils by Sheaffer & Parker

Complete line Graduation Gift Wrap Paper, ribbons—Congratulations Cards By Gibson and Rust Craft.

THE BOOK STORE

Shop At Home — Help Your Town Grow

Episcopal Church To Have Special Service

EPISCOPAL Church to—14 There will be a special service of the Holy Communion in Grace Episcopal Church on Ascension Day, Thursday, May 18, at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Messer and two children have moved from their home on Pigeon Road and will reside in the future at 39 Westover Drive, Asheville. Mrs. Messer and the children have taken an apartment on Main Street until the close of school when they will join Mr. Messer in Asheville. Mr. Messer has accepted a position with the Imperial Life Insurance Company.

Col. and Mrs. Minthorne Reed, and daughter, Pat, have moved to their summer home on Pigeon after spending the winter in Hazelwood.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Turner had as guests for the week end the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Turner, of Dante, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and daughter, Beth, of Tazewell, Virginia; and Dr. and Mrs. Josh Davis and son, Danny, of Birmingham, Alabama. John Turner and Mrs. Davis are a brother and a sister of Dr. Turner.

OUR DUTY TO YOU—

As registered pharmacists, our responsibility for you is as great as any doctor's. That is why we are always prepared to meet any emergency need you may have.

Depend On Us.....Your Doctor Does!

Your Walgreen Agency CURTIS DRUG STORE Home Owned & Operated Phone 32

Massie's Have Just Received BEAUTIFUL, DUTIFUL COTTONS Of Nationally Known Brands Georgiana — Mayflower — Doris Dodson — Jonathan Logan — Kay Dunhill — Lampl — L'Aiglon — Imported Voiles — Eyelets — Washables — Colorful — OUTSTANDING VALUES — Not Only Is This Our Largest Showing of Lovely Cottons But Also The Best Prices Many Years — MASSIE'S DEPARTMENT STORE