

SCHOOLS

(Continued from Page 1)

Baldwin, James Carlton Brendle, Mary Elizabeth Brendle, Betty Ann Brown, Alice Marie Burgin, Fred Buff, William Edward Buchanan, Ken Jackson Caldwell, Kathleen Calhoun, Arthur Frederick Carswell, Edna Lee Callahan, Charles Cook, Lois Elizabeth Carver, Donald Eugene Corwin, Harry Earl Crocker, Esther Leila Davis, Robert Francis Davis, Jack H. Enloe, John D. Ezell, Jr., Nancy Lou Floyd, Beatrice Elaine Francis, Edith Eileen Fulbright, Jimmie Dale Galloway, Pearl Elizabeth Gaddy, Mary Jo Grasty;

Betty Lee Gibson, George Rufus Garrett, Ralph Grasty, Patricia Ann Green, Clifford Green, Betty Joyce Hale, Anna Kay Head, Grady Edward Hannah;

Jimmy Lawrence Hooper, Frances Flora Hendricks, Coretta, Alene Henson, Hazel Catherine Hollingsworth, Virginia Dare Hosafhook, Mary Dorcas Howell, Francis Irene Hoyle, June Wanda Hundley, Kathryn Ann Hyatt, Frank B. James;

Genevieve Jaynes, Sam Henry Jones, G. L. Kinsland, Donald Ray Leatherwood, Gene Liner, William Lawrence Lovedah;

James Russell McClure, James David McJunkin, John Hugh Medford, Mildred Lavonia Medford, Nancy Jane Medford, Dixie Mae Mehaffey, James Howard Mehaffey, Howard Leonard Mehaffey, Troy Creed Messer, Harold Wayne Mills, William Louie Mills;

Mary Helen Mills, Kathryn Clara Moody, Joan Morris, Phyllis Mayne Morrow, Phyllis Helen Noland, Mary Abel Osborne, George Robert Owen, William Edward Palmer, Richard Blaine Parham, Samuel Fisker Patterson;

Hazel Harris Palmer, Elizabeth Kathryn Patton, William Roy Phillips, Guy Avrey Poteat, Carl James Pressnell, Homer Edwin Reece, Iva Joyce Rogers;

Georgia Loyce Rogers, Garland Russell Saunders, Joe Keith Scates, Luther Wallace Shaw, Barbara Joe Anne Scates, Betty Sue Sheehan, Evelyn Phyllis Smathers, Julia Pauline Smith, Nancy Virginia Stamey, Susie Josephine Stamey, Velma Carra Stamey, Richard Camden Smith, Homer Snyder, Jr., Betty Robinson Snyder, John Robert Terrell, Vivian Sellers Watkins, Donald R. Whisenant, James Newton Whitman, Charles Joseph Womack, Esther Marjorie Woody, and Gene L. Yarborough.

Canton High School

The Rev. C. W. Kirby, pastor of the Central Methodist Church of Canton, will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon the night of May 28, at the Canton High School auditorium before the school's 58 graduating seniors and their guests. On the following Tuesday night, the graduating students will be honored at the annual Class Night event. Featuring the program will be the presentation of a pageant, "Between The Book Ends".

The seniors will receive their diplomas in the annual Commencement Exercises in the high school auditorium the night of May 31. The featured speakers at the exercises will be Francis Pless, Kenneth Sanford, Aileen Haynie, Barbara Medford, and Carolyn McClraith—all honor students and members of the Beta Club.

Bethel High School

The Baccalaureate Sermon will feature the union services at the Bethel High School auditorium on Sunday morning, with the Rev. G.

H. Hamby, pastor of Canton's High Street Baptist Church, giving the message to the 49 graduating seniors.

Local ministers of all faiths in the Pigeon Valley communities will attend these services with their congregations.

The music will be provided by the Bethel High School Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Delmar Phoenix.

On Wednesday night, the seniors will receive their diplomas and the honor students will be presented their prizes during the annual graduation exercises.

The program will open at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium.

In lieu of the traditional speeches by the valedictorian and salutatorian, the eight top-ranking seniors will deliver the principal addresses.

E. J. Evans, the school principal, will present the diplomas.

Forty-nine seniors, making the county's third largest graduating class, will receive their diplomas Wednesday night from Principal Evan J. Evans at the climax of the annual Commencement.

This Sunday, the Rev. G. H. Hamby, pastor of the High Street Baptist Church of Canton, will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon at union services in the school auditorium at 11 a.m.

Fines Creek High School's seniors will hear Dean W. E. Bird of Western Carolina Teachers' College make the annual Commencement address during the traditional graduation exercises starting at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

The school will present diplomas to nine seniors then, but one of them will have to be sent by mail. Gus Ledford, one of the 1950 graduates, is serving with the Army on occupation duty in Germany.

Fines Creek's commencement week, however, will start tomorrow night with the commencement for the students who are ending their elementary school days.

The awarding of diplomas to the eighth-grade pupils will highlight an evening program of dramatics and other entertainment for the primary and grammar school students.

On Sunday, the Rev. F. O. Dryman will deliver the Baccalaureate address during services starting at the school at 11 a.m.

Clyde High School

The Baccalaureate Program will open Commencement Week at Clyde High School at 8 p.m. Sunday in the school auditorium.

Preaching the sermon will be the Rev. W. T. Medlin, pastor of the Clyde Methodist Church, and special music will be presented by the Clyde High School Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Christine B. Shuler.

Commencement Exercises will be held Wednesday, starting at 8 p.m., with Geraldine Fish of the Valedictory address and Martha Jenkins Rogers, the salutatory.

Also making featured addresses will be Lucille Buchanan, Cleo Buchanan Spencer, and Mary Morgan Poteate, who also are honor students of the class.

Special prizes will be awarded to the winning students, and County Schools Superintendent Jack Messer will present the diplomas to the 29 graduating seniors.

Selected to serve as marshals for the Commencement were these highest ranking students of the junior class: Janice Corzine, Barbara Cockrell, Freda Grey Hipps, and Albert McCracken.

The class mascots who will also have places of honor in the program are Timmie Leatherwood and

With State Office

C. B. (REX) HOSAFHOOK, JR. of Waynesville, joined the staff of the North Carolina Department of Revenue as an auditor shortly after his graduation in March from the University of North Carolina. He is working at the Department's Asheville office, which covers western North Carolina.

Margaret Wilson

These are the seniors of 1950: Doris Caldwell Lindsay, Beulah Alline Medford, Clara Jo Ford, Sally Mae Buchanan, Geraldine Fish, Lucille Elsie Buchanan, Cleo Buchanan Spencer, Mary Morgan Poteate, Dorothy Smith Ford, Shirley Ann Welsh, Martha Jenkins Rogers, Donna Irene Seay, Joann Haynes, Helen Stamey Fore; Marie Jewell Evans, Charles Edward Ford, Carl Lee Mann, Eugene Limbo, Carol Price, Harold Rhodamer, Richard Wayne Hannah, Richard Levi Morgan, Donald Carver;

Ted Herbert McClure, Charles W. Morgan, Mark Haynes Brown, Richard Lenier Stamey, Martin Burdette McClure, and Joseph Howell Medford.

On Monday night, the Clyde School's music students will present a Music Festival in the auditorium, starting at 8 p.m.

The festival, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas M. Bonner, piano teacher, and Mrs. Christine Shuler, the school's music teacher, will feature the playing of the Rhythm Band of 60 students of the first, second, and third grades; the singing of the girls of the eighth grade under Mrs. Shuler's direction; and other numbers.

The Rhythm Band will be led by Van Metcalfe and Mrs. Shuler. Mrs. Bonner's piano students are Mary Jo Cole, Joyce Matthews, Gene Sizemore, Theresa Davis, Kenneth Cole, Trena Rathbone, Judith Harris, Elaine Sanford, Glenna Pressley, Anne Carter, Essie Mae Harris, Mary Jane Greene, Larry Medford, Caroline Abbott, Mary Ann Moon, Sammy Haynes, and Nelda Cashion.

The Rev. Frank Leatherwood will give the invocation following the processional, "Guard of Honor" which will open the program.

The Glee Club will sing, "Sundown," and Miss Medford will make the address of welcome, Miss Kinsland and Miss Noland will follow her on the rostrum, and the Glee Club will sing, "When Lights Are Low."

The presentation of the diplomas by Jack Messer, county schools superintendent, and the special awards by Mrs. Fred L. Safford will bring the program to a climax. Mr. Leming will deliver the farewell address, with the recessional, "Semper Fidelis," following.

The Rev. C. O. Newell, co-pastor of the Crabtree Methodist Church, will close the exercises with his benediction.

The honor students who will serve as marshals are Bobbie Smith, chief marshal; Lois McCracken, Doris Sue Parks, Doris James, Mattie Sue Medford and Maxine Medford.

Patsy Crawford and Roger Ferguson will be the mascots. The graduating students include: Hilda Best, Don Crawford, Jim Davis, Ralph Elkins, Andrew Haney, J. C. Haney, Eleanor Kinsland, Bob Leming, Edgar McElroy, Joan Medford, Dorothea Lee Noland, Farrell Sanford, Carroll Smith, Bobby Stevenson, Billy Welch, Keller Wells, Charles West, Novella Wood and Betty Jo Ferguson.

The eighth grade class's commencement exercises will open at 7:30 p. m. Monday, offering a well-balanced musical program coming to a climax with the presentation of the diplomas by Glenn Noland, the teacher of the class.

Honor students will deliver the featured addresses, with Sybil Bradshaw giving the valedictory, and Jewell Dee Ferguson delivering the salutatory.

Taking leading parts in the program will be the pupils of the fifth, sixth and seventh grades, as well as the graduating class.

The fifth grade is to give the welcome song and another choral offering, while the seventh grade will give a play.

The sixth grade's flute ensemble will play several offerings, and a trio from the class—Louise Best, Doris Messer and Barbara Smith—also will sing a special number.

The program also will feature the playing of flute quartets of George Kirkpatrick, Tommy Kirkpatrick, Martha Zeil Chambers and Jean Crawford in one; and Barbara Crawford, Carolyn Bryson, Boyd Fisher, and Roger McElroy in another.

The awarding of the diplomas will follow the musical program and close the exercises.

Student Speakers Chosen For Clyde Commencement

Geraldine Fish and Martha Jenkins Rogers will be the featured speakers at the annual Clyde High School commencement exercises Wednesday night.

Miss Fish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Fish of Clyde, will make the valedictory address, while Mrs. Rogers will give the salutatory.

Both girls are top students in the graduating class of 29 seniors. Miss Fish, a star in athletics and dramatics, was a high-scoring forward in the high school's basketball team last season, and served as an active member of the Future Homemakers of America chapter and the Beta Club at Clyde.

Mrs. Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jenkins, was prominent also in both class work and school student activities. Besides maintaining a high scholastic average all through her school days, she was also an active member of the school's Beta Club.

The Commencement program will open at 8 P. M. at the high school auditorium.

MORE ABOUT Campbell

(Continued from Page 1)

were Milas Ferguson, the 1950 commander of the Waynesville Post; Roy Ruff, commander of the Hazelwood post; Lush Hall, newly-elected commander of the Canton post; George Hanger and Jeter Williams, both of the Canton Post; J. T. Russell, Waynesville post finance officer; Herman Francis of the Waynesville post; and Carroll Whitener, Thurman Smith, and Roy Moody, all of the Hazelwood post.

IN TOWNS AND CITIES ALL THE way to Florida, they stopped, showed pictures of Gatlinburg and the Smokies, met Chamber of Commerce officials, exchanged travel literature with them.

By the time they got back home, at least 20,000 more people knew about Gatlinburg, where it was, what it had.

That was part of the returns on an investment of $50 expenses for each of the 30 cars in the Gatlinburg caravan.

Backing up this alert advertising program is the peoples' willingness and ability to make the most of what they got.

This town of 2,200 men, women, and children, is hemmed in pretty closely by the mountains in a valley just 1,335 feet above sea level.

They can't expand outward very far. So they utilize every available square foot of land within their limits.

Beautifully designed, well-built tourist courts and hotels fronted by rich, green lawns greet the visitor as he drives into town from the Park.

There's variety in the design of the gift shops, restaurants, and tourist places. But generally all of them seem to have been built in compliance with a strict minimum high standard.

Both sides of the main street are flanked by these places, but the building continues on the hills right above the street. Everywhere you look there is a beautiful structure of some sort, or one in the process of being built.

Even the buildings with the most

MORE ABOUT Gatlinburg

(Continued from Page 1)

"Nope," answered one restaurant man, "that's not competition. We feel that we'll need every one of them."

More and more people seem to be coming into the Park every summer. The Cherokee pageant is starting in July, and that will attract a lot of others.

"But I figure the publicity we've been getting has helped us." The New York Times' 40-page vacation section of two weeks ago last Sunday showed the application of the printer's ink prescription: on one page one ad of respectable proportions told the reader about the principal features of Gatlinburg.

To place an ad two inches wide and two inches long in the New York Times' Sunday edition costs you $32.

The businessmen who make up the directors of the live-wire Tourist Bureau supplement their extensive newspaper advertising with straight personal contacts.

A few weeks ago, some 70 people, including a party of 30 Cherokee Indians drove out of Gatlinburg in a motorcade and headed south.

In towns and cities all the way to Florida, they stopped, showed pictures of Gatlinburg and the Smokies, met Chamber of Com-

MORE ABOUT Motorcade

(Continued from Page 1)

Spartanburg, and making the last stop before heading for a highway patrol car.

The motorcade from here, be accompanied through Carolina by a patrol car from the state.

Each car entering the parade carry a large banner on top of the car.

The Merchants and Tourist Association, and of Commerce directors are operating in the project, ing the motorcade a success persons making the trip their own expenses.

Those planning to make should attend the special at the court house here night at eight o'clock in receive last-minute details full particulars.

LANCASTER, O. (UP)—came close to convicting charged with a traffic offense by error signed a printed "verdict guilty" instead other form and the jury read it in court. When interrupted to protest, the was corrected, freeing Clark, 68.

The tuberculosis death rate in Japan has been among the highest in the world for the past 30 years but health programs inaugurated by the Supreme Command of the Allied Powers are reducing the excessive death rate.

Hot Dog - It's Picnic Time Again. ALL MEAT FRANKS: 49c. CHEESE: 1/2 pkg. Kraft sliced 29c. COKES: 6 Bottle Carton 23c. PICKLES: 22 oz. Jar 25c. CATSUP: 14 oz. Bot. 19c. HOT DOGS: 6 Hot Dog Skinless 39c. BUNS: 10c. Itchin' to get out of the kitchen? Then pack up and picnic this weekend. Fill the lunch basket with all the favorite treats—gloriously good foods selected from our vast variety of picnic-snacks—all low-priced to save you money... conveniently displayed to save you shopping time. Look 'em over. Make your list. For it's picnic time again.

KRAFT MIRACLE WHIP QUART JAR 55c. PEAR HALVES: No. 2 1/2 Rosedale 29c. PINEAPPLE: No. 2 Dole Crushed 27c. Fruit Cocktail: Libby's Buffet 2/25c. PINK SALMON: Peter Pan 37c. WHEATIES: 8-oz. Pkg. 14c. Orange Ade: 46-oz. Orangex 23c. CREAM CORN: No. 303 Del Maize 2/27c. SHELLIE BEANS: No. 2 Stokely 21c. GREEN PEAS: No. 303 Trellis 2/25c. SWIFT'S PREM: 12-oz. Can 39c.

Fruits & Vegetables. LETTUCE: Firm Crisp 2/25c. ONIONS: Fresh Spring bulb 2/19c. BANANAS: Ripe Fancy lb. 2/27c. BEANS: Tender Green lb. 2/25c. RED BAND Enriched FLOUR. VALUABLE COUPON, GIFT CATALOG, RECIPES IN EVERY SACK. 25 lb. bag $2.20.

RAY'S SUPER MARKET. PARK • SHOP • SAVE. BEHIND THE POST OFFICE. FOOD STORE SUPER MARKET. MAIN STREET.

Same fine flavor day after day... year after year. JFG SPECIAL COFFEE. The Best Part of the Meal.