

SENATOR FRANK P. GRAHAM

Vote For FRANK P. GRAHAM

"Champion Of The People"

HERE IS WHAT RESPONSIBLE
PEOPLE SAY ABOUT
Our Senator Graham

THE LATE FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT Appointed Frank Graham Chairman Advisory Council of Committee On Economic Security. Said Roosevelt: "The work of this Council and Committee led to the recommendation made by me to the Congress and the adoption by the Congress of the SOCIAL SECURITY Act of 1935."

LOYALTY . . . Senator Clyde R. Hoey:

"He (Senator Graham) is as loyal as any American who walks this earth."

ABILITY . . . General Geo. C. Marshall:

"The work Frank Graham did in Indonesia for United Nations was a diplomatic miracle."

CHARACTER . . . Senator Wayne Morse:

"Frank Graham is the most Christ-like man I know."

STATESMAN . . . Senator Charles Tobey:

"Frank Graham's Senate speech on the Atlantic Pact was the greatest I have ever heard in the U. S. Senate."

WOMAN'S VIEWPOINT . . . Mrs. W. T. Bost:

"I think this famous quotation can be applied to Frank Graham: 'There are some men who lift the level of the age in which they live until all men stand on higher ground.'"

DIPLOMACY . . . Mrs. O. Max Gardner:

Wife of late Governor and Ambassador Gardner and sister-in-law of Senator Clyde R. Hoey: "While I have many reasons for being for Senator Graham, I shall state only one—I believe that he works effectively for the prevention of war and the establishment of permanent world peace."

Look At The Record

Schools

Frank Graham is a teacher and educator. He is well known for advocating the nine months school term and 12 grades for all. He has consistently fought for sufficient appropriations for the public schools of North Carolina.

Labor

A life-long champion of labor, he has consistently fought for labor's right to collective bargaining. He was primarily responsible for the Workmen's Compensation Laws of North Carolina; was among the first to advocate Child Labor Laws and he voted for Minimum Wage Laws.

Veterans

He was a fighting Marine in World War I, enlisting after being turned down three times on account of poor eyes. Since being in the Senate he has championed the cause of Veterans. Fought against breaking up of the wise unification of the Veterans Administration.

Farmers

He actively supported Governor Scott's Better Schools and Roads Program. Frank Graham has always stood for the extension of rural electrification and rural telephone service. In the U. S. Senate he has consistently voted for the present farm price support program.

Senator Graham

Is Qualified For The Job

Our candidate stands for clean politics, has consistently refused to enter into a campaign of mud-slinging for the sake of influencing votes. He is running on his own record—the records of his opponents.

Senator Graham has a positive program establishing peace in the world in our time and will work tirelessly to carry it through.

Senator Graham also has a positive program for the welfare of all the people of the United States. Not just special groups.

No man has ever become so loved and respected as Frank Graham has in the 14 months he has been in the senate and he has the ability of being able to work with people to accomplish his high ideals.

Every citizen will have a rare privilege May 27 to vote for a man whose character and integrity are above reproach.
