Tally-Ho Club Has Last Party

The Tally-Ho Club of the Waynesville High School closed the school year with a wiener roast given at the Moody Farm on Wednesday night. Peggy Moody was hostess for the event.

Miss Alma Jackson and Marshall Teague, faculty members, were chaperons.

The club, a dramatics group, has had as officers this year: Mary Jane Rogers, president; Betty Nolan, secretary; Lillian Medford, treasurer; Ann Rector, historian; and Miss Jackson, faculty advisor. Around twenty-five guests attended the party.

Tea Honors Faculty At Junaluska

Members of the faculty of the Junaluska Elementary School were honored at a tea given in the school cafeteria on Tuesday afternoon.

An arrangement of blue and white iris with yellow candles was used on the table and Mrs. Zack Massie presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Lee Evans presented each teacher a gift of costume jewelry as a token of appreciation.

The honor guests were Mrs. Ruth Noland, Mrs. Lewis Burress, Mrs. Ed Jaynes, Mrs. Dudley Moore, Mrs. Flora Ballinger, Miss Frankie Cecil and Mrs. Edna Ferrell.

VFW's Candidate

This is about the prettiest candidate we've seen come out this campaign. But she's not running in Saturday's Primary. She's Miss Mary Jane Rogers, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers, and she has been selected as the Waynesville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post representative in the contest for State VFW Beauty Queen. The contest will be a feature of the 1950 State VFW Convention at Hendersonville June 1-4.

Junior-Senior Banquet Is Held At The Lodge

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet of St. John's High School was held Wednesday evening at The Lodge.

The school colors, green and yellow, were noted in the appointments and the table was centered with arrangements of mixed flowers flanked by green and yellow candles.

Walter Tallaferro served as toastmaster and Barbara Jean Potts, president of the Junior Class, paid tribute to the Seniors.

The Class Prophecy was read by Robert Jeter, a junior, and a tribute to the school was given by Dolf Kienast, a member of the senior class.

Hallett Ward, also a senior, gave the Last Will and Testament.

Gifts were presented to each graduate by Walter Tallaferro on behalf of the school, and memories of school days were reviewed by Bette Hannah.

The Rev. Francis J. Tait and the Rev. C. F. Hill were the speakers for the occasion.

Dancing was featured following the program.

Davis Chapel WSCS Holds Study Course

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Davis Chapel in Iron Duff met at the Parsonage Thursday afternoon for a study course in the theme: "God—In Families".

Those taking part in the program were Mrs. T. C. Davis, Mrs. Ernest Chambers, Mrs. Grady Davis, Mrs. F. L. Safford, Mrs. Frank M. Davis, Mrs. Cash Medford, Mrs. C. O. Newell, Mrs. R. B. Medford, Mrs. V. R. Davis, and Mrs. J. Manson Medford.

A social hour followed and the hostess served refreshments assisted by Mrs. F. M. Davis.

Elizabeth Watkins Has Slumber Party

Elizabeth Watkins entertained with a slumber party at her home in Grimsball Park Wednesday night.

During the afternoon preceding the event, the guests enjoyed a swim and later attended a movie.

Those present were Eileen Gerfinger, Pat Reed, Linda Welch and Nancy Bischoff.

Food Sale To Be Held At Maggie

A Food Sale will be held at the Maggie School, Saturday, May 27, for the benefit of Peachtree Church.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Fender of Waynesville visited the million-dollar International Trade Mart in New Orleans, La., during their stay there recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Ray left today for Mahanoy City, Pennsylvania to attend the wedding of their son, Sgt. Harvey Rowan Ray and Miss Shirley Belvelheimer, which will take place on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ray will also visit in New York for several days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin arrived this week from Warner-Robins, Georgia where they have spent the winter. Mrs. Martin will be here for the summer and Mr. Martin will return to Warner-Robins the first of the month.

Local Schools Are Represented At Cherokee Exhibit

Creative paintings and articles of handiwork, made by students in the Haywood County and Waynesville Schools, are receiving praise by art critics at the First Annual Cherokee Art and Craft Exhibit, according to Mrs. Frank Brown.

Mrs. Brown, who is a supervising teacher in the Waynesville Township, made the entries for the local schools and served with a committee at Cherokee in arranging and selecting articles for the exhibit.

The exhibit will be open to the public today, Friday and Saturday and from 2 until 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A number of Haywood county teachers are making plans to take their classes over for a visit.

Mrs. Morgan Is Hostess For McKimmon Club

Mrs. H. L. Morgan was hostess for the May meeting of the McKimmon Home Demonstration Club at her home in Canton Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Harkins presided and the devotional was given by Mrs. J. H. Kirkpatrick.

Miss Mary Cornwell gave the demonstration and project leaders reported as follows: foods and nutrition, Mrs. L. J. Cannon; home gardens, Mrs. W. J. Muse; clothing, Mrs. Paul Hyatt; arts and crafts, Miss Willie Smathers; and health, Mrs. Moody Hyatt.

A social hour followed the meeting.

Seniors Of WTHS Have Social Events

By ANNE BISCHOFF
Members of the Senior Class of the Waynesville High School are ending their high school years with a "bang."

They started last night by having a slumber party at the Girl Scout Hut. The girls there were Betty Ann Browne, Patsy Green, Betty Hale, Marjorie Woody, Kathleen Calhoun, Edna Callahan, Vivian Watkins, Alice Marie Burgin, Joan Morris, Mildred Medford, Mary Osborne and Coretta Henson.

Bette Hannan, Dolf Kienast and Mary Lu Elwood accompanied the girls to a movie but didn't spend the night. Miss Alma Jackson spent the night with them.

After their graduation exercises tonight, Mildred Medford is having open house. Plans are to barbecue chicken, eat and dance.

Then they're going to Betty Ann Brown's for breakfast.

After that they'll be high school seniors no more—they'll be freshmen in college, married, or "just graduates."

Sophomore Girls Are Entertained

Betty Felmet and Shirley Mae Connatser entertained a group of sophomore girls at events yesterday and today to mark the closing of school.

The group was entertained with swimming and a picnic with Miss Felmet as hostess at the Welch Farm yesterday afternoon after which Miss Connatser entertained with a slumber party.

Today the girls hiked around Lake Junaluska, picknicked and enjoyed a swim.

Mrs. Evelyn C. Ferguson of Burbank, California is visiting her mother, Mrs. Seymour Clark, in Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell had as guests this week, Carl and Mrs. Wilkes of Brandenton, Fla.

Thought for Meditation

So much of life is wasted in a most neglectful way. When so many deeds of kindness we could render or display: A hand upon the shoulder Kind words that we can bring. We think will go much farther, than almost anything.
