

At The Park Thursday and Friday

Humphrey Bogart changes his name for a number in this scene from his latest thriller, "Tokyo Joe."

Pensions Discussed By Millar For Rotarians

The Transvaal district in South Africa rivals the Belgian Congo as world's No. 1 diamond source.

"Pensions are on the way in, and if industry does not provide them, then the government will and industry will pay for them anyway."

DEAR NOAH IF THE SAUCERS FLY WILL MALLARD DUCK? RONNIE ESRANG MAUCH CHUNK PENNA

He covered the technical details of the new machinery as provided by the government for setting up a pension plan, and the benefits to be derived from several of such plans.

For a quick cake topping, soften a package of cream cheese and mix well with a container of strained baby-food fruit—choosing your favorite flavor. Add a dash of salt, too.

DEMOCRATIC TEXAS has elected a GOP candidate to Congress. This proves the boast of the Lone Star State that it has everything—even a Republican.

With so many persons trying to find a cure for the common cold it's surprising we aren't all too busy to catch one.

It would seem Ontario has the prize dough boy. He's a 10-year-old who defeated a field of 10 girls in a cake-baking contest.

A Russian publication raises its voice in praise of the late author Mark Twain. Next thing we know, Pravda will claim that Moscow invented Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

A Massachusetts cow chased four persons up a tree. Bossy, after all, needn't have been that bossy!

On reading the above, Zadok Dumkopf says that sounds like a tougher bit of beef than they serve at the corner beanery.

Florida, we read, has a chimpanzee that can say three words. As a loyal resident of the Sunshine State those words no doubt are: "Vacation in Florida!"

TRUMAN SIGNS FOREIGN AID BILL

THE OMNIBUS FOREIGN AID bill calling for $3,248,450,000, which President Truman has called a major step toward peace, is signed by the Chief Executive at a White House ceremony in Washington.

IN MEMORY OF AN UNKNOWN BUDDY

THREE WHEELCHAIR veterans visit the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington, Va., National Cemetery in observance of Memorial Day.

TRAFFIC COP TAGS AIR-GOING AUTO

IT WAS SOMETHING NEW to a New York traffic cop, but it was parked in a restricted area of mid-Manhattan, and hence rated a tag.

JAIL GETS THEM COMING AND GOING

PASSING ON THE STEPS of a Los Angeles jail are Wilbur Jerger, school teacher candidate for the California State Assembly (second from left) and his wife, Diedre.

INSURANCE statistics show married women live longer than unmarried women. Probably it's easier to make a man make a living than to make a living.

Having to look out for only one man may have something to do with it.

At any rate husbands can now say, "I've given you the best years of your life."

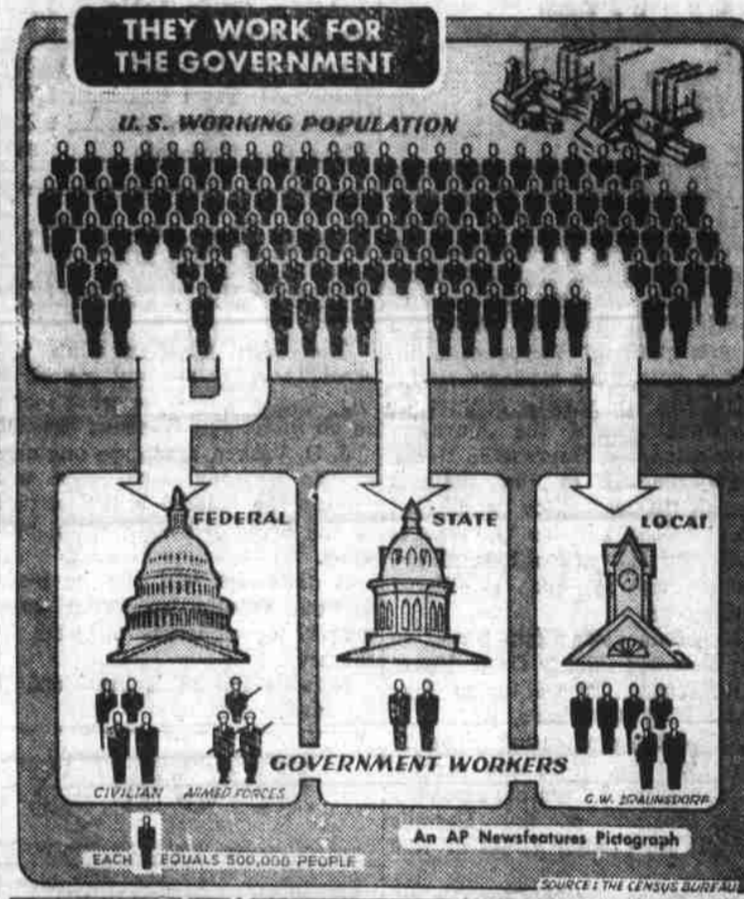

Riad Ghali, the Coptic Christian who married the Moslem Egyptian princess, started having in-law trouble before he even had a honeymoon.

As in too many such cases, Ghali's troubles show signs of pyramiding.

Farouk threatens to cut off all the princess' income. Love may be sweet, but this couple can't live off Cairo.

The way it looks, if girl commoners aren't good enough for Farouk, he isn't going to let men commoners be good enough for his sister.
